

DEDICATE ORGAN ASHLAND CHURCH ON PALM SUNDAY

ASHLAND, Ore., March 23.—(Special)—George Francis Barron, son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Barron of Ashland, a piano student of unusual ability, who has recently graduated from the University of Oregon at Eugene, will assist at the dedicatory services for the new pipe organ at the Methodist church, which will be held at the church on Palm Sunday afternoon, March 24th.

On Saturday evening John Stark Evans, pipe organ instructor at the University of Oregon, will give an organ concert.

Ashland friends are eager to have the opportunity to hear Mr. Barron, whose work has been of outstanding merit.

Charles May of Ashland had the pleasure of taking out the first Royal Chinook that has been caught in the Rogue river this season. The fish weighed 28 1/2 pounds. President J. A. Churchill of the Southern Oregon Normal school is expected in Ashland soon. Mr. Churchill has been in Portland for several weeks and while there underwent an operation at the Good Samaritan hospital. He is improving rapidly and expects soon to be at his work again.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pierce of Olympia, Wash., were in Ashland Sunday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Westbrook at the Lithia Springs hotel. Mr. Pierce is interested in the Olympia hotel in Olympia.

Mrs. Elizabeth Payne is a patient at the Harbor Convalescent home. Mrs. Payne is 34 years of age.

Lawrence Mitchelmore, son of Rev. and Mrs. Mitchelmore, a student at the state university, is visiting in Ashland at the home of his parents. Lawrence is a major in journalism.

Miss Thelma Perozel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Perozel, is at Ashland during the spring vacation at the University of Oregon.

Marion VanNatta, who has been a patient in a Kelson, Wash., hospital on account of injuries received in an automobile accident, returned on Saturday to his home in Ashland.

Vernon and Raymond McGee, sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McGee of this city, are visiting home folks during the spring vacation at the university of Oregon.

Mrs. George Kramer and son are having a few days in San Francisco.

Albert Myers, for two years employed as operator at the Vining water plant, has gone to Oregon City, where he will take a position as operator at the Liberty theater.

Miss Mary, who has charge of the picture and poster department there, Mrs. Myers and their baby boy are visiting with her parents at Marshfield.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. MacNeal and daughter left Ashland Wednesday for Portland. They made the trip by auto and will return in about three days.

Mrs. C. T. Pine of Medford visited Ashland friends on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack R. Edwards of Hayward, Cal., are in Ashland to attend to business matters and to make a visit to friends. They were former Ashland residents.

Kenneth Stratton, son of Mrs. Sarah Stratton, who has been seriously ill at the home of his mother is reported to be somewhat improved.

Mr. H. D. McNair is ill with an attack of tonsillitis at her home on Iowa street.

Mrs. Bliss, mother of Jack Bliss, athletic coach at the high school, has returned to her home at Berkeley, Cal. Mrs. Bliss has spent several weeks in Ashland visiting with her son and has made her home at the Lithia Springs hotel.

Mr. Charles Mack, Mr. and Mrs. S. Morehouse, Miss Claribel Morehouse, Earl Rogers, Miss Marian Hamrick and John Hamrick of Central Point and Mr. and Mrs. Doremus.

Mrs. Otto Winter entertained on Monday evening honoring Miss Faye Crawford, a student at the Southern Oregon State Normal.

Mrs. Winter's guests were treated with a splendid dinner which was served at 6 o'clock, the table being beautifully decorated with daffodils and lighted with yellow tapers. Novel favors were provided in harmony with the general color scheme. After dinner the guests were entertained with Victrola records which Francis Winter, son of the hostess, made when on a trip to the Hawaiian Islands.

Guests who enjoyed Mrs. Winter's hospitality were Miss Crawford, the guest of honor, Mrs. Anne Russell, Miss Nellie Russell, Misses Marie Davies, Marie Prescott, Emily Taylor, Lorraine Sparr, Louisa Adams, Bernice White and Doris Hitchcock.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Redford, Miss Clara Trotter and Wayne Wood, members of the Normal school faculty, will make a week-end vacation trip to Crescent City. They expect to leave on Thursday morning. Mr. Redford and Mr. Wells will hike down Rogue river to the coast while the ladies will motor to Crescent City, and all the members of the party will motor home together.

JERUSALEM.—(AP)—Ancient Shiloh, city of Israel's prophets, to be excavated by Danish archaeologists. Shiloh was once the religious center of this region.

MINISTERIAL BODY MEET MONDAY AT JACKSONVILLE

JACKSONVILLE, Ore., March 23.—(Special)—The Ministerial association of southern Oregon will meet at the local Presbyterian church Monday, March 25. The Woman's association of the community will serve a hot plate at noon at 50 cents a plate. Any one wishing to come for the lunch will be welcome.

Mrs. E. H. Pattman and two children of Phoenix spent the week end with Mrs. Pattman's sister, Mrs. G. O. Sanden and family.

Rev. Elmer McVicker and wife were dinner guests of Rev. and Mrs. Lawrence of Medford during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Pick gave a St. Patrick's party Sunday at their home in honor of their son, Lawrence's sixth birthday. Six little invited guests were present, namely Lillian and Bettie Brown of Medford, Lester Wendt, Stanley Shafer and Eunice and Lois Sanden. Games were played and a luncheon was served by the hostess.

Mrs. Amy Dow was a business visitor to Medford Tuesday.

Mrs. John Shely of Central Point visited her daughter, Miss Wilma, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Arthur Kleinhammer and little grand-daughter were calling on friends here Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marceau Bousman and daughter, Mable, and Mrs. Ben Bull and daughter, Mrs. John Williams, all of Wilderville, were dinner guests Monday of Mrs. Chester Moore and Mrs. Lena Stevenson.

Mr. and Mrs. George Russell were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Nelson Wednesday evening.

Bert Stancliff of Phoenix visited George Merritt Wednesday afternoon.

Troop 35 of Jacksonville Boy Scouts enjoyed the visit Monday night of Mr. Jones of Medford, commissioner of Crater Lake council. Mr. Jones conducted a troop inspection and gave an interesting talk on scouting.

EASTER DRAMA WILL BE GIVEN PHOENIX

(Contributed)

An Easter drama, "The King's Highway," with a cast of 30 characters, will be given at the Phoenix Presbyterian church Sunday night, March 31 at 7 o'clock.

Much practice is being put forth for this drama and it promises to be one of great interest and inspiration to all who attend. It is a drama of seven episodes, giving the story of the resurrection and showing the need of the church today.

The drama also shows that, through the spirit of the church, the heathen religions can be united under one Christ. The drama will take the place of the evening Christian Endeavor and church services.

All in the community and all others who find it possible to come are cordially invited and urged to attend.

Daily Meteorological Report

Saturday, March 23. Medford and vicinity. Partly cloudy tonight and Sunday. Frost and freezing temperatures tonight. Oregon: Generally fair, but with considerable cloudiness tonight and Sunday. Frosts or freezing temperatures tonight.

Local Data table with columns for Temperature, Humidity, Precipitation, etc.

Observations Taken at 5 A. M. 120th Meridian Time table with columns for Wind, Clouds, etc.

CITY table with columns for City, Wind, Clouds, etc.

L. W. Dick, Meteorologist.

Oregon Weather. Generally fair but with considerable cloudiness tonight and Sunday. Frosts or freezing temperatures tonight. Moderate winds, mostly northerly, on the coast.

News of the Community

Catholic Church. South Oakdale avenue and Eleventh street. Masses at 8 and 10:30 a. m. Rev. F. W. Black, pastor.

St. Mark's Episcopal. Corner Oakdale and 5th St. 8 a. m.—Holy communion. 9 a. m.—Sunday school. 11:15 a. m.—Holy communion and procession with palms. Wm. B. Hamilton, rector.

Nazarene Church. Central & Jackson. Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. Preaching, 11 a. m. N. Y. P. S., 6:30 p. m. Evangelistic service, 7:30 p. m. Rev. J. E. Bates, district superintendent will fill pulpit both morning and evening. Rev. G. O. Grow, pastor.

Valley Radio Church. Bill Ray, pastor, P. O. box, 918. Fundamental and undenominational.

For our Palm Sunday services we will have old time sacred hymns, prayer and scripture reading. We will have with us Adjutant Buchanan of the Salvation Army, and daughter, who will render a couple of duets.

Pastor Ray will preach on the crucifixion.

If you are not attending church elsewhere, tune in at 8 o'clock on KMED and spend the hour of worship with the Valley Radio church.

Bethel Baptist Church. Elder Fredenburg, pastor. Sunday school, 10 a. m. Preaching, 11 a. m. Evening services, 7:30 p. m. 1 Tim. 2:6. There is one God and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time, Hebrews 7:25. Wherefore He is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by Him, seeing He ever liveth to make intercession for them.

Services on 3rd floor, over Medford pharmacy.

Come hear the truth. All are welcome.

English Lutheran Church. Fourth street at Oakdale ave. "Where the Way is Made Plain." Dr. H. C. Fink, pastor. Telephone 1424. Residence 518 West Fourth street. Hour of worship, 11 a. m. "The Real Presence of Christ" will be the subject of the sermon by the pastor. Special music for Palm Sunday. Organ prelude, "The Palms" (J. Faure). Anthem, "The Glory of Jesus We'll See" (Mallara). Offertory, "Spring Song" (Ashford). Postlude, "March" (Bossi).

The Bible school begins at 10:10 a. m., with classes for all ages. Our church will participate in the service for Good Friday at the Presbyterian church.

Church Notice. L. D. S. Sunday school held in the Odd Fellows hall each Sunday, 10:00 a. m. Classes for all ages. We are studying the Book of Mormon and the latter day prophecies.

"We stand for law, the people who live it and the officers who enforce it."

"We believe the Bible to be the word of God, as far as it is translated correctly. We also believe the Book of Mormon to be the word of God."

All members and friends are urged to attend.

Jesse G. C. Elgan, branch president. Phone 1342-R, 323 Mae street, Medford, Ore.

Free Methodist Church. Corner West Tenth and Ivy. J. E. McDonald, pastor.

Bible school meets at 10 a. m., to which you are welcomed. Mrs. McDonald will again address the school on "Personality," and present a splendid demonstration on the lesson.

The morning sermon at 11 o'clock by the pastor on "He Saved Others; Himself He Could Not Save." This is the greatest testimony ever given. He could not save Himself, and others, so He gave Himself. Evening services at 7:30 o'clock. Subject, "The Pearl of Great Price."

Union services at the Presbyterian church Friday afternoon.

Full Gospel Temple. Newtown and Main. Bible school, 9:45 a. m. Morning worship, 11 a. m. Full service at 2 p. m. Poor farm, 3 p. m. Ambassadors, 6:30 p. m. Evangelistic service, 7:30 p. m. Tuesday evening, 7:30 preaching, Wednesday 2:30 p. m., prayer meeting.

Thursday evening, 6:45, choir practice and at 7:30, testimony, prayer and prayer meeting.

The pastor has organized an orchestra, which meets every Friday, 7:30 p. m. If you play an instrument, get in touch with the pastor. The only requirement is a willingness and a clean life.

T. S. Winey, pastor. 3261 N. Oakdale St.

Main Street Methodist Church, South. James E. Conder, pastor. Sunday school meets at 9:45 a. m. Sermon subject at 11 a. m., "A Poasant of Cyrene." In the evening at 7:30, League anniversary program. The young people will have charge.

Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:15.

All who are contemplating uniting with the church, or having children to present for baptism, are kindly urged to plan accordingly for Easter. The choir is preparing special music for the occasion.

A hearty welcome awaits you at the friendly church on the corner.

A joint union service will be held at the Presbyterian church on Good Friday afternoon, from 2 to 3.

First Christian Church. Ninth and Oakdale streets. Carman E. McEl, minister. Office and pastor's study in the church. Phone 1907. Residence phone 1137.

"Test Our Welcome." Sunday begins the observance of Jesus' last week before the crucifixion. Morning worship and communion 10:55. Sermon, "The That Wins." Special music. Evening service at 7:30. Sermon, "Triumphal Obedience." Good singing, special music, and a happy fellowship. These services are very popular and all are cordially invited.

Bible school assembly 9:45. The attendance is increasing. The Easter goal is 500.

Christian Endeavor will meet at 6:30 in four groups.

Friday afternoon from 2 until 3 o'clock, a union passion service will be held in the Presbyterian church. This service will appropriately observe the last hour that Jesus was on the cross. The public is invited.

First Church of Christ, Scientist. Authorized branch of the mother church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass. Services are held every Sunday at 11 a. m., church edifice, 212 North Oakdale avenue. Subject for tomorrow, "The Resurrection."

Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Applicants under the age of 20 may be admitted.

Wednesday evening meetings, which include testimonies of Christian Science healings, at 8 o'clock. The reading room, which is in the Medford building, is open daily from 12 to 4, except Sundays and holidays.

The Bible and all authorized Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed or purchased.

The public is cordially invited to attend the services and visit the reading room.

First Methodist Church. W. Main at Laurel. Raymond S. Ross, minister.

"Your King Needs You" is the Palm Sunday sermon subject at 10:55. Music includes an anthem by Parker, "Jerusalem," and offertory solo by Mrs. C. H. Paske. "There is a Green Hill Far Away" by Gounod. Mrs. Huengerstadt is using "The Palms" as her organ offertory.

"The Treason of Sin" is Mr. Ross' evening subject at 7:30. Mrs. Knight sings Handel's "Open the Gates of the Temple." And Tenney's beautiful poem, "Crossing the Bar," will be sung as a quartet number by Mrs. Knight, Mrs. Fleisher, Mr. Meeker and Mr. Vrooman.

Church school at 9:45 and young people's hour at 6:30.

There will be Holy Week services each evening at 7:30 to which the public is invited.

Palm Sunday. Presbyterian Church, Eighth and Holly. Edwin Percy Lawrence, minister.

9:45 a. m. Bible school. Be prompt and prepared with Bible and lesson studied and offering.

Earl Hopper, superintendent. 11 a. m. Sermon, "Stewardship," Minister.

Organa prelude, "Chorus of Angels." Offertory, "Pastorale" Stobbens Anthem, "Jerusalem." Parker Solo, "The Palms." Faure A. J. MacDonough.

Sunday is Every Member Canevas Sunday. Every member is urged to be present, prepared to make their pledge or remain at home in the afternoon for the canvassers.

6:30 p. m. C. E. National Missions study of "The Ethical Principles of Jesus." Leader, the pastor.

Friday the 29th, 2 to 3 p. m., a Good Friday service.

FIRST METHODIST IN HOLY WEEK SERVICES

Beginning Palm Sunday the First Methodist church will hold a series of evening services during Holy week to which the public is invited. The following are the subjects for the week as follows:

Palm Sunday morning, "Your King Needs You"; evening, "The Treason of Sin."

Monday, 7:30 p. m., "Christ in the Heart, or What It Means to Become a Christian."

Tuesday, "Christ in the Home, or the Joy of Family Religion."

Wednesday, "Christ in Medford, or Planting the Cross on Main Street."

Thursday, "In the Same Night That He Was Betrayed." Anniversary observance of the Lord's Supper.

Friday, "Come, Sinner, Behold Your King Crucified." A Good Friday service of tenderness and power.

All evening services are at 7:30 o'clock, and the cooperation of other churches in holding services of their own will be welcomed.

CHURCHES TO UNITE GOOD FRIDAY SERVICE

(Contributed.) Holy week begins with Palm Sunday and will be observed with a special hour of devotion on Good Friday. Our churches will unite in holding a special service commemorating the passion and crucifixion of Christ. These services will be held on Good Friday at the Presbyterian church, from 2 to 3 o'clock, "His Last Hour."

All of the churches in the Ministerial association will participate in this devotion. Others are invited to join with us and many are coming from surrounding towns.

The profound occasion, with its intensely devotional character, will draw a large number to this service. Special instrumental and vocal music has been provided and a chorus choir will lead the congregational singing.

The public is invited to attend.

BELVIEW HOME OF MRS. TRUSTY SCENE OF PARTY

BELVIEW, Ore., March 23.—(Special)—Mrs. Rufus Trusty entertained at her home on the East Main street road on Saturday evening, March 16, with a St. Patrick's party. Games and contests were the amusement for the evening. Prizes were awarded the winners. The close of the evening was with cake and ice cream. Were served to the following guests: Misses Mary and Lois Wiley, Myrtle and Esma Norved, Edie Halbert, Sadie Jones, Hazel Massey, Ellen and Wilda Merryman, Mr. and Mrs. George Larder, Gertrude and Neva Irwin, Rev. Irwin, Craig Hakes, Elmer Halbert, Homer and Paul Culbertson, Clarence Williams, Eugene Shelton, Loren Sewell and Roscoe, Waldo and Gerald Trusty, Mrs. T. A. Merryman assisted Mrs. Trusty with the serving.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus King entertained at their home in Bellview Sunday with a turkey dinner in honor of their daughter, Mrs. Bessie Hibbs, of Oakland, Cal. The dinner was served to the following guests at 12 o'clock: Mrs. Hibbs, guest of honor; Mr. and Mrs. George Barron; Mrs. George King and Miss Ethel Darrow, besides the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. King and Mrs. Hibbs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Newby entertained Tuesday evening at their home on the main street highway with an aluminum dinner. O. Pedergast prepared the dinner and served the guests at 6:30 o'clock. Those present to enjoy this affair were: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Williams, Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Newby of Talent, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gettling, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. Will Dyer and Miss Lenore McCormick, besides the Newby family. After dinner a very pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gettling have rented their place in Bellview to Mr. and Mrs. Farmer, who will take possession about the first of April. The Gettling family will move to Talent to make their home during the summer.

Among the Bellview and upper valley people who attended the anniversary dinner and dance at the Elks' temple Monday night were: Mr. and Mrs. Homer Barron, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Low, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hopper and Mrs. W. G. Tucker and Mrs. Edwin Dunn.

Miss Ruth Newby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Newby, is taking part in the high school orchestra on Thursday and Friday nights of this week at the high school auditorium.

Mrs. Will Grubb and son, William, spent Thursday and Friday visiting with Mrs. Grubb's mother, Grandma Tucker, and with Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Tucker, also other relatives in Ashland. Many friends of Will Grubb will be sorry to learn that he entered the veterans' hospital last week in Portland, where he will receive treatment.

Grubb's father, who returned to their home in Roseburg last Friday, Mrs. W. L. Moore was a guest Tuesday at the I. C. Homes home in Ashland.

Mrs. Roy Hessemer of Klamath Falls and Mrs. Besse Smith of Ashland were calling on friends in Bellview Wednesday. Both ladies were former residents of this community.

Mrs. Hannah of Jacksonville and Mrs. Chatman of Gold Hill spent Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ulrich.

W. L. Moore, well known Bellview resident, was a business visitor in Medford on Wednesday. A number of the pupils in Mrs. McKinnis' room have been absent most of the week due to an epidemic of the flu.

Miss Helen Ulrich, who has been suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism, is slowly improving.

Mr. Croft, music director, spent Wednesday at Bellview giving individual lessons in music to those who expressed an interest in the matter. The pupils will have several more lessons each before their first appearance as a band.

Mrs. Adrian Wolf of Medford spent Wednesday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Moore.

Tris and Royce Boers, new pupils were enrolled in the primary room of the school Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Dollahide have moved to the Miller place in Bellview. Mr. Dollahide has employment with the Moon Lumber company.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Barnard spent Friday in Medford visiting at the home of Mrs. Barnard's brother, Mark Welch, who is recovering from the effects of a bullet wound in his leg.

Mrs. Ed Gowan of Klamath Falls, but formerly of Bellview, is spending some time at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Miller, of Church street, Ashland. Mr. Miller has been quite ill but is somewhat improved at this time.

Mrs. Earl Hamilton of Bellview, another daughter, has been helping care for her father.

Mrs. Abbie Hood left the first of the week for North Bend, Ore., to be in attendance at the convention of the Royal Neighbors which takes place this week. Mrs. Hood is one of the delegates from the Ashland organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Elder, who have been living on the Nelson place, left the first of the week for Montague to make their home. The Andy Nelson family, who have been residing in Ashland, are now moving back to their home in this community.

William Taylor, who is interested in a sawmill at Shale City, was in Ashland Wednesday.

The dance committee of the Upper Valley Community club is planning another of the old-fashioned dances to be given at the club house some time in the first week of April. The exact date will be announced later.

CENTRAL POINT HIGH LATIN CLASS HAS PLAY OF MEDICUS

CENTRAL POINT, Ore., March 23.—(Special)—A short play was presented by the Latin class of the Central Point high school, March 22. The program included:

Song, "Rei Publicae Pauci Militares"—Class.

Reading, "Tale of a Possum"—May Eicher.

LATIN PLAY, MEDICUS. Titus Raymond Wineland Lucius and Publius (twins).

John Cady and John Smith Octavia (mother of the three boys)

Loomis Davidson Medicus (doctor) Marion Caster Patris Vox (father's voice) Oliver Obenchain

Mrs. R. H. Paxson left Tuesday morning for Whittier, Cal., where she will visit with relatives for about two weeks.

The bungalow which Lester Warner and his bride will soon occupy is nearing completion. It is located on the north side of Central Point.

John Lathrop and Wilbur Eicher are becoming intensely interested in the chicken business, having received a shipment of White Wyandotte chicks. They are kept outside. Success is wished them in their new enterprise.

Mrs. Florence Baker was visiting with her mother, Mrs. McKinnis, of Sams Valley, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howard were visiting with their people, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Eicher, of Central Point, Tuesday.

Among those home from college on their spring vacation are Donald Faber, George Elden, Scott Hamilton, Carl and Roland Haver, Howard Deltrich, Donald Wilson, Earl Skyrman and Miss Evelyn Skyrman.

The Central Point young people who are attending the normal commenced their spring vacations on Thursday, March 21.

Mrs. Betta Pankey had some dental work done for her daughter, Roberta, in Medford Wednesday.

Leota and Gene Reames, who are students of the Ashland normal, will be forced to spend their spring vacation in another place than at home because of a scarlet fever quarantine.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Huston, Carme and Gloria, one of Phoenix, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller in Central Point last Sunday afternoon.

The Junior class of the Central Point high school will put on a Junior jubilee some time in the following month. The proceeds will go to the annual junior-senior ball in the school year.

Mr. Pozwa of the Central Point hotel has moved to his new home at Willow Springs.

The Ladies' circle of the Christian church met Friday, the 15th, at the home of Mrs. Sanford Richardson. About 12 were present. Light refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Isaacson returned home March 15 from their trip in southern California.

A picnic dinner was held recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Deltrich near Phoenix. Sixteen were present. They were: Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Crocker and son, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Whiteside and son, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith and daughter, Lola and Vera. A very enjoyable time was had by all.

Misses Helen Lees, Ila and Iolone Morningstar and Jack Lees hiked to Johns peak last Sunday, returning in the evening.

Miss Elizabeth Scott, who has been ill with scarlet fever for the past week or two, is able to be up and around, but will not be out of quarantine for some time.

The people of this vicinity woke up Friday morning to find a blanket of snow on the ground. This is very unusual for this time of year.

A party was held recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Davis. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Ditcher and son Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Faber, "Doc" Boomer, Eugene Reames, Don Faber, Helen and Irene Lanport. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and chocolate were served. Games were the form of entertainment.

The boys and girls of the Central Point high school are training for the coming track meet.

The Girl Scouts of Central Point held a court of honor in the high school auditorium Friday evening.

Planting Trees on Fair Grounds

The Jackson County Fair association, through E. C. Gaddis, one of the directors, has secured from the state nursery 750 native fir, pine, red cedar, Port Orford cedar and redwood trees.

The trees are being planted through the courtesy of Hugh Rankin, supervisor of Crater National forest.

This morning 950 trees that have been set out this winter on the fair grounds.

The trees set out on the grounds several years ago are growing nicely and will soon furnish splendid shade.

KEENE CREEK MEN CHOOSE OFFICERS FOR CATTLE ASS'