FORENSIC TROPHY GIVEN BY ROTARY

A silver loving cup, donated for the purpose of the Medford Rotary club and to be known as the Rotary Forensic Trophy, will be awarded this year to the outstanding student of the Medford high school for forensic activities. The club members will be restricted to the four members of this year's high school debating team, composed of Laura Drury, Elbow Mae Wilson, William Dougherty and George Winne. The cup will not go into the permanent possession of the person to whom it is awarded, but will be kept on display at the high school, with the name of the person engraved on its front. It will be awarded each year for outstanding forensic efforts, based on natural ability, improvement and general cooperation. Disinterested parties, probably members of the high school faculty and a member of the Rotary club will make the award. To be eligible for the cup, students

Hole-in-One Trophies of Canada Dry

During the past four years there has been a total of 3,445 cases of Canada Dry given away free for hole-in-one trophies, which means that there have been that many scores of hole-in-one of which there is a record. California leads with New York second. In the number of hole-in-one scores made, and there have been 142 hole-in-one scores in the state of Oregon. Ninety cases of Canada Dry were given away to residents of foreign countries. The Pacific coast states have a higher average than the rest of the United States, due perhaps to the fact that golf is played in the three Pacific coast states twelve months in the year. SHERIFF OFFICE WILL SELL CARS

It will not be long until another auction sale of automobiles, seized for alleged liquor transporting operations, will be held in Medford. No date has been set, but the sale is expected within the next month or six weeks, according to the sheriff's office, which will be in charge. The cars were seized by the state through the sheriff's office and will be the first sale of B kind held in this city. Five cars will be sold and will include a Hudson, a new Ford, a Paige, a Chevrolet and a Dodge. The machines are said to be in good running order, but are expected to be sold at bargain prices. Grandma Drives Bournemouth, Ent., March 26.—(AP)—Mrs. Julia Hames, a grandmother, has celebrated her 90th birthday by learning to drive a car. She learned to ride a bicycle when she was 62 and never rode till recently.

Sunrise Meeting On Easter Morn, Phoenix

An Easter sunrise meeting will be held Easter Sunday morning on the Rader hill, just beyond Phoenix. The meeting is under the auspices of the Crater Lake Christian Endeavor union, but all young people's societies from all churches are cordially invited to attend. Rev. Loftis of the Methodist church of Ashland will deliver the address for the meeting, which will be held at 7 o'clock. Marchioness III. LONDON, March 26.—(AP)—The dowager marchioness of Cambridge, Queen Mary's sister-in-law, is suffering from septic pneumonia and it is reported her condition is regarded as rather grave. Lord Dawson of Penn, one of King George's chief physicians, is attending her. Love Songs in Vogue PARIS, France, March 26.—(AP)—Pre-war love songs are coming back. "The girls are tired of jazz and syncopation," says the man who yields the baton at the Cafe D'Harcourt, which sets the pace for the Latin quarter. "They want love songs and waltz music."

WILLIAM DOUGHERTY SLATED AS ENTRANT ORATORICAL CONTEST

If present indications hold true, William Dougherty will represent the Medford high school at the elimination try-outs at Roseburg April 9 for the national constitutional oratorical contest. Eight schools from Jackson, Douglas, Klamath, Coos and Curry counties will be represented and the winner of this group will represent southern Oregon in the final state contest at Portland a short time later. The oratorical contest is an annual event and is being sponsored in Oregon directly by the Morning Oregonian and nationally is being promoted by the National Bar association, the North American Newspaper alliance with the cooperation of patriotic societies and the indorsement of state governors and the officers of the national executive offices, including the president of the United States. "Our Work is Not Yet Done," is the subject of the 10-minute oration, the local student will deliver at Roseburg and includes approximately 1200 words. It is based on problems of national interest and has been well prepared. The first state prize consists of $125 cash and a $100 gold watch while the second prize is $80 cash and the third, $50 cash. State winners will take part in contests leading up to the national finals.

JACKSONVILLE GRANGE BOX SOCIAL ENJOYED
