

YOUTHFUL SMITH SHINES ON SAND GREENS IN SOUTH

PINEHURST, N. C., March 28.—(AP)—Horton Smith, from Joplin, Mo., went on his golfing way today with another title tucked away in his bag and seven hundred more first money dollars in his pocket.

Making his first bid for recognition on the sand greens of Pinehurst, the new sensation of the golfing world kicked in with a 72-hole score of 287 to win the historic north and south open, one of the headline events of the spring season.

Tommy Armour, the Detroit masher artist, who usually is red hot on the Pinehurst courses, was runner-up for the second time in his many years. His score was 289, just two strokes behind the youth from the Ozarks.

Roland Hancock, the Lynchburg youngster who gave Bobby Jones and Johnny Farrell the shivers in the national open last summer, served notice that he is back in championship form by shooting a 291 to collect third money.

The brilliant youth from Joplin, Mo., who will not attain voting age for two months, has collected a fair-sized fortune since last November in open golf tournaments. There are various estimates of his winnings, but most of them agree on a figure close to $15,000. The largest single prize was $5000 first money in La Force open at Miami Beach, where he finished ahead of a fine field.

SOUTHERN PINES, N. C., March 28.—(AP)—On the heels of the north and south open over the neighboring course, a field of more than 100 feminine golfers faced the 36-hole grind of the women's mid-south golf tournament opening here today.

Among the entries were Miss Glenn Collett, national women's champion; Miss Virginia Van Wile, national runner-up and Florida west coast titleholder; Miss Helen Hicks, young Long Island sensation; Miss Maureen Orcutt, metropolitan champion; and Miss Marion Turpie, southern champion.
