

LIONS' PRESIDENT TO ATTEND MEET HERE ON APR. 20

Ben Ruffin of Chicago, national president of the Lions club, will be entertained by the local organization on April 20, when between 500 and 600 visitors from various sections of southern Oregon will gather in Medford. A banquet and special program will be held at Hotel Medford on that night and an extensive program will be put on. Committees for the affair were named today by General Chairman Lion Hubbard as follows: Club Invitations, Lion Scott; program, Lions Burgess, Collier and Davis; dinner and decorations, Lions Cleveland, Shangle, Pennington and Lanes; local invitations and toastmaster for the evening, Lion Carlin; ticket sale, Lions Tyree, Smith, Jacobs, Erickson and Hanson.

That the Lions club cleared $60 on the Russian Royal Choir, after all expenses were paid, was an announcement made by Lion President Tyree.

Attorney O. C. Boggs, as a representative of the American Bar association, presented William Dougherty, local high school boy, who is going to compete in the nation-wide oratorical contest beginning with district eliminations on April 9. William Dougherty was personally introduced by Ralph Dalley, public speaking instructor of the high school.

After delivering his remarkable oration on the Constitution of the United States, which is the subject to be used throughout the nation in this contest, the local boy was given an enthusiastic shower of applause and extended the hearty wishes of the Lions club.

Lion Scott reported on the interesting charters night held by the new Junction City club last week, which was attended by practically 200 local and visiting members of the organization.

Among the visitors at today's luncheon were: O. C. Boggs, Ralph Dalley, William Dougherty, Verne Hawn, president of the Roseburg club; Clark Hovey of Yreka, Glen Carlin of Klamath Falls, John Runyon and Mr. Dugan.

HIGH SCHOOL BOY READY FOR TALK ON CONSTITUTION

Preparations for the participation of the Medford high school in the constitutional oratorical contest for the southern Oregon district at Roseburg, April 9, are in the last stages of completion. The high school will be represented by William Dougherty, who has chosen "Our Task Is Not Yet Done" for the topic of his 1200 word oration. The winner of this contest will enter the state finals at Portland and compete for a $125 cash prize and a $100 gold watch. The state winner will take part in a national contest.

Out of 15 speeches submitted for consideration to determine the number of contestants at Roseburg the speech submitted from Medford was chosen as one of eight to be given at the contest. The local boy has memorized his speech and this week presented it before the Kiwanis club and today was scheduled to deliver it before the Lions club, while next Tuesday he will deliver it before the Rotary club.

Three judges will govern the awards at the contest and will be chosen by the Oregon Bar association, with O. C. Boggs of Medford, Dexter Rice of Roseburg and Judge Brand of Marshfield named as a committee of three to make the selection.

The Medford high school has much faith in its representative and he will probably be supported at Roseburg by a delegation of students. He has a strong voice, speaks distinctly and is said to have all the qualifications of a prize winning orator.

THREE BELIEVED DEAD WHEN HOME BURNED

SAULTE STE. MARIE, Ont., April 2.—(AP)—Two men and one woman are believed to have lost their lives when fire destroyed the home of Robert Robertson at Goulais Bay, 20 miles from here, late last night.

Robertson, his wife and the former's father, were in the building when the blaze broke out and have not been seen since.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 2.—(AP)—Eugene Leonard, 25, his daughter, Lavina, 15, and his son, Eugene, Jr., were burned to death when fire destroyed their home at Chila station, near here.

The mother, Mrs. Jennie Leonard, 35, and Cleta, a 12-year-old daughter, were seriously injured when they jumped from an upper floor.

Col. Biegler Dead.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 2.—(AP)—Lieutenant Colonel George W. Biegler, executive officer at Fort Mason and holder of the congressional medal of honor, died at the Presidio here today. He was 61 years old.

DANGER Ahead!

TALENT LOOKS AT BUSINESS END OF BOOTLEGGING GUN

The prospect of death at the hands of an alleged northern California bootlegger was the situation in which Federal Agent Terry Talent of this city found himself yesterday afternoon when he, with Federal Agent Clarence Worden, raided a roadside near Dorris, known as "Traveler's Inn," and arrested E. Verente and two others for possession and sale of moonshine.

Officer Talent, although he was dressed in his regular uniform, consisting of a khaki suit and high leather boots, found no trouble, he said, in receiving service in the inn, which he described as being no different than an old-time saloon. He called for beer, but the bartender, the owner of the place, suggested whiskey and set a bottle before him. Upon the appearance of the whiskey, the officer displayed his federal badge.

The bartender, known as Verente, attempted to run, but Officer Talent jumped over the bar after him and met with some resistance before he was put under arrest. While struggling with the man, an aide of Verente drew a bead on him with a large German Lueger, cocked to fire, but Officer Worden prevented the man from shooting by covering him with a gun at the same time, said Officer Talent today.

A practically new mahogany bar, highly polished, was chopped nearly into kindling wood by the officers, who also confiscated 10 gallons of alleged gin and 20 gallons of alleged moonshine. Verente told officers he had been operating for a year and all the time had apparently felt free from molestation.

Along with James Huber, arrested by the two officers for the possession of an alleged 80-gallon still near Dorris, Verente and his two alleged henchmen will be given a hearing before the United States Commissioner. Federal charges under the new Jones act, providing a maximum of five years in the penitentiary and a $10,000 fine, will be placed against the quartette. They will be tried in federal court at Sacramento.

OFFICE FRIENDSHIP LEADS TO SHOOTING

COLUMBUS, O., April 2.—(AP)—E. A. Welsh, auditor of the Gwynn Milling company here, and Eleanor Porter, stenographer in the company's offices, were found shot to death early today in an automobile near New Albany, east of here. County authorities believe Welsh shot the girl, then turned the gun on himself.

The man was shot through the head and the woman was shot twice in the chest.

Two windows of the automobile were pierced by bullets. The machine was found standing in the middle of the road.

Welsh was married and was the father of two children. A son 18 and a daughter 14.

city" in aviation, retains the prestige it gained when it pioneered aviation in Oregon, and will become a government terminal.

The result of the election was watched closely by government aviation officials, aerial transportation companies, and many other cities and individuals throughout the state, as well as people all over the country.

Many telegrams of congratulation upon the victory were received today from all over the nation.

The airport publicity committee and associates, for a month have worked unceasingly to present the facts clearly and fairly before the voters and the thoroughness of their task is fully attested by the size of the vote.

Medford Vote Brings Country-Wide Praise

To show the interest taken in what the people of Medford would do with voting bonds for a class A airport, by government officials, officers of air passenger, mail and express companies, and other "air-minded" people, the following messages of congratulation received by the airport publicity committee, are printed:

"Washington, D. C., April 2.—"Please accept my hearty congratulations on the success of your airport bond issue. The interest Medford is taking in the development of suitable airport facilities is most gratifying."
Wm. P. MacCRACKEN, Jr., "Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Aeronautics."

"Seattle, Wash., April 2.—"Medford voters have placed Medford on the roll of enterprising cities which recognize importance of air transportation in the development of their city. A 12 to 1 vote in favor of new modern airport indicates Medford people regard an adequate terminal as an investment for the immediate future."
"Chief of Lighthouse Service." (This department has charge of installing radio stations.—Ed.)

"Washington, D. C., April 3.—"The weather bureau is gratified at result of vote for bond issue for Medford airport and the prospect of Medford becoming a modern center for meteorological activities and service which the weather bureau hopes to inaugurate when new terminal goes into use."
C. E. MARVIN, "Chief of Weather Bureau."

"San Francisco, April 3.—"Congratulations on your splendid demonstration in favor of the airport bond issue. Please accept our best wishes in anticipating an airport worthy of Medford."
"AIRPORT ENGINEERING CORPORATION."

"Portland, Ore., April 3.—"We congratulate your progressive citizens on securing appropriation to build airport. Our club will take first air caravan of its kind in United States to Oakland convention in June and we hope to make stops at Medford en route. Details are now being worked out. We want to do our part in showing that travel by air is safe and the coming mode of transportation."
"ERNEST R. HAM, "President Advertising Club of Portland."

"San Francisco, April 3.—"This office notes with pleasure that Medford has passed its airport bond issue. Your airport, when completed will form an important link in the Pacific coast of Chicago forcing her to the 19th before losing one down."
Miss Turpie eliminated Miss Hicks, three and two, while Glenna Collett took a three-to-two decision from Miss Orcutt, and Miss Quier defeated Louise Fordyce of Youngstown, Ohio, five and four.

SALEM, Ore., April 2.—(AP)—Mabel Beardsley, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Beardsley, was knocked to the street by a hit-and-run driver last night and her leg broken. Officers have no trace of the car that struck her. The two men in the car are believed to have been drunk.

HELEN AND MAUREEN FADE FROM PICTURE IN GOLF TOURNAMENT

PINEHURST, N. C., April 2.—(AP)—Neither Helen Hicks of Hempstead, L. I., nor Maureen Orcutt of Englewood, N. J., remained in the championship picture today at the end of the quarter finals of the north and south women's golf tournament. The survivors were Glenna Collett, Virginia Van Wlo of Chicago, Marion Turpie of New Orleans and Edith Quier of Reading, Pa.

THE AIRPORT PUBLICITY BODY THANKS PEOPLE

The airport publicity committee of the Chamber of Commerce, consisting of S. Sumpter Smith, chairman, Wm. Warner, H. L. Bromley, W. A. Gates, Lee Tuttle and A. A. Hayden, desires to thank the people of Medford for their magnificent response to their request to vote their sentiments on the bond election and for the overwhelming majority they gave the bonds.

The vote is another evidence of the fact that the people will support any measure if they are convinced it is for the good of the community in which they live, and a positive demonstration of the "Medford spirit" that is recognized everywhere, and that has been the means of helping make Medford the "biggest city of its size on the map."

The publicity committee also desires to thank the members of the regular Chamber of Commerce airport committee, consisting of Seely Hall, M. N. Hogan, F. C. Dillard, Larry Mann, Clyde Eskin, J. C. Thompson, Floyd Hart and Bert Thierolf; the city council committee, consisting of Ed Janney, J. O. Grey and E. M. Wilson, also Ted Baker, secretary of the chamber, and other loyal citizens who made talks over the radio and at the manufacturing plants, canvassed the city, donated autos and in many other ways helped make the victory possible.

Another great help the committee had, for which it specially thanks Mrs. W. J. Virgin, was for the free use of the radio station KMED all through the campaign.

The committee is proud of Medford's victory and knows the people are also.

Now for a bigger and better Medford.

TOM THEVENOW HURT IN AUTOMOBILE CRASH

LAKELAND, Fla., April 2.—(AP)—Critically injured in an automobile crash late last night, Tommy Thevenow, shortstop for the Philadelphia National league baseball club early today was reported "resting fairly well" by physicians at Memorial hospital.

Harold Elliott, a member of the club's pitching staff, who was with Thevenow in the accident, also was taken to the hospital, but was later discharged after he was given treatment for bruises.

Physicians said Thevenow apparently was "badly hurt." A preliminary examination was said to have disclosed several broken bones, including a fractured nose and jaw.

GRAND OBSEQUIES PLANNED IN PARIS FOR AMBASSADOR

PARIS, April 2.—(AP) Not in the history of France has a foreigner been honored in death as France tomorrow will honor United States Ambassador Myron T. Herrick. A very French regulation has been stretched to the utmost to make the last rites for the dead American an impressive memorial to Franco-American friendship.

The ceremony will be, as Ambassador Herrick would have had it, of extreme simplicity, but only space will limit the grandeur of the obsequies for the man who once, though a foreigner, infereed a simple offer to give his life, if it was needed, for France.

Only a few of the thousands who have applied for tickets to the services at the embassy will hear the farewell words of Premier Raymond Poincare. General Pershing will speak for the American people, and Quinones DeLeon, Spanish ambassador, speaking for the diplomatic corps.

There will be no flowers, no music. No women will be admitted, only some 300 representative men in severe mourning garb, all according to American usage. The next part of the ceremony however will be in French style, with a guard of honor of the French Legion of Honor, arms drawn, lending the only touch of color to a long solemn funeral cortege.

Don't Fuss With Mustard Plasters

Don't mix a mess of mustard, flour and water when you can relieve pain, soreness or stiffness with a little clean, white Musterole.

Musterole is made of oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, and takes the place of mustard plasters.

Musterole usually gives prompt relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it may prevent pneumonia).

SMALL TOWN TEAM HEADS CAGE TOURNEY

CHICAGO, Ill., April 2.—(AP)—College Grove, Tenn., state champions, with a picked team from less than 100 students, today eliminated Moorhead, Minn., in the opening game of the second day's play of the national high school tournament at the University of Chicago. The score was 30 to 29.

Pocatello, champions of Idaho, eliminated Penn Avenue high of Cumberland, Md., title holders, 34 to 29, in a game devoid of defensive work.
