

SAVINGS ACCOUNTS IN JACKSONVILLE'S SCHOOLS GROWING

JACKSONVILLE, Ore., April 3. (Special.)—Much new interest has been aroused in the Jacksonville high school and grade school since other small schools of the county have been included in the banking system.

The Jacksonville school was the first school outside of Medford to receive the advantage of the system. A great deal of interest was shown at first, but finally it became hard to keep the interest up, as the school had no one in its class with which to compete in banking. Last week the Jacksonville high school banked 300 per cent and the grade school banked 69.4 per cent.

Mrs. John Greb is very much improved at the Rogue River sanitarium.

Mrs. Carahan and two daughters of Roseburg were week end visitors at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Jenkins.

Mrs. Charles Hamilton of Ruch was a guest of Mrs. A. G. Lewis Friday evening.

Frank Matney of Missouri Flats spent a few hours in Jacksonville Saturday.

Miss Vivian Miller is assisting Mrs. Theodore Johnson at the Birch ranch with her housework for a couple of weeks.

The high school students are preparing their senior play which will be given soon. The title of the play is "Cyclone Sally."

Miss Barbara Fulton went to Medford Sunday to make her home at the Horace Bromley home, after having spent several weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller of this place.

Joe Brown and family of Algora, Klamath county, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Gammon Saturday.

A number from here attended the dance on the Applegate Saturday night, March 30th.

Dr. Inskeep was in our city Sunday.

Styll Fairburn spent Sunday here with her mother, Mrs. W. H. Bell.

Mrs. Sophia Nickells Eckelson, former resident of Jacksonville, passed away at her home in Portland, March 27, at the age of 70 years. Mrs. Eckelson was born in Yreka, Cal. When she was ten years old the family moved to Jacksonville. She attended the St. Mary's academy here and made her home here until her marriage to A. O. Eckelson, August 2, 1881. In 1902 Mr. Eckelson died. Three children survive, A. I. Eckelson, an engineer connected with the U. S. engineer corps; Miss Genevieve Eckelson, and Fabian Eckelson, a brother, the late Charles Nickells, was for many years editor and owner of the Jacksonville Times.

A splendid program was given at the Seventh Day Adventist church Saturday, March 30, as follows: Song, "Wake the Song of Joy and Gladness"; prayer by Elder Wilcox, missionary from China; history and plans were given by Mrs. Mar Marks, superintendent of the Sunday school; welcome, Naomi Williams; Little Gardeners, by four boys; Two Kinds of Parties, Gerald and Martin Pearce; Bringing Sunshine, Clair Vogle; song, "Yes, Jesus Loves Them," by the children; investment prayer, Milton Williams; dialogue, God Shows His Goodness, by five girls; A Little Talk to Mr. World, Lela Conklin; Ten Little Fingers, Naomi Williams; The Lesson the Lonely Bee Learned, Helen Wheeler; The Children's Chance, Mary Wheeler; Interesting Experiences, Wm. Gardner; A Million Dollars in It, Dorris Conklin; Sabbath School investment song, Lucile and Dorothy Holmes; reading, No Retreat from Mission Fields; song, "O, There'll Be Joy When the Work is Done"; and a number planned what they would invest in the way of gardens, chickens, etc., the proceeds to be brought in this fall for missions.

An address will be given by Prof. Vining of Ashland at our schoolhouse Friday evening, April 19th, under the auspices of the P.

T. A., and also a short program will be given, after which candy and pies will be sold to help with the playground funds for the school.

Harold Severance returned Sunday to Stanford university, California, after spending a week's vacation with relatives here.

Mrs. Winnie Wilder of Berrydale near Medford was visiting her aunt, Mrs. Nettie Jones, here a few days recently.

George Russell has gone to Wolf Creek where he will be employed by the Copco.

Rev. and Mrs. Elmer McVicker and Miss Wilma Shetley were dinner guests at the A. L. Boone home Monday evening.

Mrs. George Maxwell visited Mr. Maxwell at the Sturgess mine Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fehl of Medford entertained at dinner Sunday in honor of their nephew, Wilbur Fehl and Mrs. Bill Ray of Jacksonville, it being their birthdays. A lovely turkey dinner was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. L. Neidermeyer, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones and daughter Shirley of Rogue River, Rev. and Mrs. Bill Ray, Robert Daniels, Mrs. Lulu Sausberry of Jacksonville and members of the Fehl family. Several lovely gifts were received by Wilbur Fehl and Mrs. Ray, which were much appreciated by both.

Cliff Dunnington, who had taken Jack Sharp to Portland, returned home Monday afternoon. Mr. Sharp underwent an operation Saturday morning.

Mrs. Frank Sausberry gave a couple of musical readings over K. M. E. D. Sunday evening for the Valley Radio church. One of the readings, an Easter poem, was composed by Henry Scott Clarence Gallup of Jacksonville, who is a great-grandson of the poet, Sir Walter Scott.

Rev. Elmer McVicker preached his last sermons here Sunday morning and evening in a crowded house. It is regretted very much losing Mr. and Mrs. McVicker, who have endeared themselves to members of the church and community.

Mrs. Lizelo Cronmiller of Medford was a visitor of Mrs. Vivian Beach Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Johnson have moved to the Ray Yost home in the West Side district where they will stay during the smudging season.

A baseball game was played on our local grounds Friday, March 29, between the Gold Hill high school team and our local high school team. The Gold Hill boys were victorious.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl White and children visited Mr. White's parents in Ashland Sunday.

James Roch of Phoenix had a paralytic stroke last week. He was at one time a resident of this place.

Alfred Norris made a business trip to Crescent City Friday, returning Saturday.

Mrs. E. C. Stanwood was called to the home of her son Orin Stanwood to attend her daughter-in-law, who is quite ill at her home in Gold Hill.

Mrs. Mary Smith is now employed at the sheriff's office at Medford. She was employed there a few years ago.

Bolton McMahon of Portland spent his Easter vacation visiting relatives in Ashland and friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard McKee and daughter Marjorie and Mrs. W. A. Childers and daughter Maxine of Big Applegate spent Tuesday in our city and Medford.

Mrs. Beesie Frisby passed away Thursday, March 28, at the Sacred Heart hospital. She is survived by her husband, Fred Frisby, and five children. Funeral services were held at Conger's funeral parlors Saturday and interment was made in the Medford cemetery.

Mrs. Norman returned home Sunday from Medford, where she has been employed the past three months.

Harry Lewis of Medford was in our city Sunday.

BAPTISMAL CEREMONY HELD IN REESE CREEK AS REVIVALS CLOSED

RESE CREEK, Ore., April 3. (Special.)—The Reese creek revival meetings closed last Sunday, March 31, with 19 clear conversions and an attendance of about 80. Sunday, immediately after the close of the morning service a baptismal service was held on the banks of Reese creek near the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Brous. The meetings lasted a month to the day having begun on the first of March and ending on the 31st.

The farmers of Reese creek rejoice that water has been turned into the canal and at this writing is on its way to the farms, where it has been needed for some time for stock and other purposes.

The darky minstrel has been postponed until the 12th of April instead of the 5th, as originally planned. The play is to be given by the P.-T. A. for the benefit of the school and to keep up the interest of the parents in school work.

Mrs. H. Ball and son, Willard, went to Medford one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Hammel have been attending the revival meetings the past week.

C. W. Waddell has been busy reseeded and sowing fertilizer.

Marshall Minter has been hauling hay for his dairy herd the past week. He says most of his herd are fresh and are doing fine.

Rev. Rollie Griffith and wife of Derby, sang a special song at the revival meeting that was greatly appreciated on last Sunday evening.

Makes Life Sweeter

Too much to eat—too rich a diet—too much smoking. Lots of things cause sour stomach, but one thing can correct it quickly. Phillips Milk of Magnesia will alkalize the acid. Take a spoonful of this pleasant preparation, and the system is soon sweetened.

Phillips is always ready to relieve distress from over-eating; to check all acidity; or neutralize nicotine. Remember this for your own comfort; for the sake of those around you. Endorsed by physicians, but be sure to get the genuine—
