SURPRISE PARTY GIVEN BELLVIEW LADY ON APRIL 1

BELLVIEW, Ore., April 4.—(Special)—Mrs. S. K. Barnes was taken by surprise on April 1, when a group of her lodge friends took possession of her home while she was in Ashland.

On her return she found things well under way for a grand birthday dinner for the mystery. Her birthday anniversary, about 32 friends met for this affair. At 3 o'clock time a delicious picnic dinner was enjoyed. Mrs. Barnes received many lovely gifts from her friends. Mrs. Barnes is a faithful worker in the Yeoman lodge. At present she is president of the Rowena circle of that order.

That those who do good in this life are sometimes awarded on earth was ably demonstrated last Saturday morning when Miss Mae Benedict of Mountain avenue was very much surprised when she answered a call to the door to find a messenger bearing numerous packages. Upon asking the meaning she was told that a letter would be found explaining the mystery. On investigation she found that the boxes contained an Easter shower, including gifts from about 40 of her friends.

Dr. Maud Howley, who is confined to her home with illness for a long period of time, but is convalescing at this time at her home in Bellview was the instigator of this lovely surprise shower. In appreciation of the kindly services and deeds rendered not only during her illness but to many other neighbors as well. Each gift carried the name and a sentiment of appreciation from the bearer.

Mrs. Elizabeth Payne more familiarly known as "Grandma" Payne, aged 94 years, a pioneer and one of the best known figures in the early history of the valley, passed away at 2:15 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the Barber convalescent home. Surviving are the following named children: Mrs. Ed Barron of the Upper Valley, C. T. Payne, Ashland; Mrs. George Alford, Talent; Mrs. M. J. Shook, Burlington, Calif.; Taylor Payne, Sacramento, Cal. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Kincaid and daughter, Eunice and Mr. and Mrs. Mark True made a combined business and pleasure trip to Klamath Falls on Wednesday. The members of the Upper Valley Community club are sponsoring an old fashioned dance to be given at the club house on April 11, with the Tucker orchestra furnishing the music.

Thomas Clagett, manager for the Bellfleur-Guthrie Co., has a large crew of men and teams, also a tractor at work plowing and leveling the fields, preparatory to seeding a large acreage to alfalfa.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Chastain of Central Point spent the week-end at the home of Mrs. Chastain's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bryan.
