

Local and Personal

The annual county typing contest between students in the various schools of Jackson county will be held at the Ashland Junior high gym at 10 a. m. April 20. A short-hand contest will also be held at the same time. Following the county contest, representatives of this county will compete at Corvallis for the state championship. Any student may compete in the state contest, even though not designated as the county's official representative.

Rucker's Taxi, Phone 58, Rates 25c. Prompt service. 11c*
Mr. and Mrs. William Heifrich of Portland left for the north yesterday after spending a few days here on business and pleasure. Mrs. Heifrich met Mr. Heifrich in Medford on her way home from a two months' vacation down in southern California.

Heat your orchard with kindling, blocks and slabs. Tel. 631, Medford Fuel Co. 3241*
Mrs. C. E. McCollister, who teaches school in Medford, has returned to Ashland to reside. She is a daughter of Mrs. Emmet Adams of this city.—Ashland Tidings.

Mealy Klamath Notted Gem potatoes, 100 lbs. for $1.20; 50 lbs. 75c. Delivered any place in city. Johnson's Market, 6th and Grand Sts., Phone 37.

Miss Ethel Wilkinson, stenographer of the Crater National park office in the Federal building, is the sole resident representative of that park since the departure of the Davidsons park construction foreman, yesterday noon, for a visit at Yosemite National park, from which A. E. Moen is expected back today or Monday after a two weeks' visit there. Superintendent E. C. Solinsky departed Thursday for Yosemite park for an absence of two weeks or more while he confers with National Parks Superintendent Albright, on the latter's return from Washington; D. C.

Yosemite C. G. Thomson left for Yosemite recently to assume his duties as superintendent.
A clean dance for clean people is the W. O. W. dance Sat. night, 10*

After having spent the winter with his daughter, Mrs. O. W. Click, of Beall lane, B. E. Roberts left Friday for his home in La Grande.

Bring your invalids and old people to the Ashland Convalescent and Rest Home, 23*
The Ladies' Auxiliary of the First Baptist church will hold its April business meeting at the home of Mrs. Mary Steinfeld, 497 Beatty street, next Tuesday afternoon, April 9.

Special attention given to expectant mothers in our baby department. Sinclair's, 17*
Bruce S. Thorne, representative of the M. J. P. Coffee company, from Portland, arrived in the city yesterday for a few days on business.

Hose mending runners removed, and snags worked back. Handicraft Shop, 2161*
George Creighton, a recent graduate of Medford high, is spending his time in the most extraordinary manner. His chief desire was to see the world, and he has made a good start. By working his way on a ship he has visited South America and England. At the present time he is in New Orleans, but he will be on the sea before long—bound for Europe.—Medford HI Times.

Let me write your fire insurance. Carl M. Tengwald, Hotel Holland, Phone 393, 18*
Mrs. W. W. Gabriel, state president of the Parent-Teacher association, will be at Grants Pass Wednesday, April 17, to meet local P. T. A. groups. Mrs. Gabriel will outline the plans for the state convention to be held at Grants Pass in October.

Dressmaking, smocking and buttonholes. The Fashion Shop, 424 Medford Bldg., Phone 118, 18*
Following a visit for some time past with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Combes, Mrs. B. Fairhurst left for her home in Portland last Friday.

Heat your orchard with kindling, blocks and slabs. Tel. 631, Medford Fuel Co. 3241*
"I had to fight hard to win last night," said Frankie Wrencke, the well known boxer of Portland, who was in Medford yesterday afternoon while en route from Klamath Falls to his upstate headquarters. "He was a hard hitter, that man Dally, and I guess the fans enjoyed the fight. They tried to get me to fight here in Medford, but on April 15 I'll be fighting over in Lakewood." Wrencke will be remembered by local fans as the boxer who fought a draw with Terry Kileen at the armory several weeks ago.

There's a lot in Knowing How
We believe that two generations of experience in the baking business qualifies our saying that Fluhrer's Milk Bread is made by Bakers who know how.

From a visit of a week with his parents at Oregon City, Norman C. White of the Crater National forest staff, returned home Friday.
Call 1180-W for California Perfumes, Creams and Exfoliants. 16*
The next meeting of the class in adolescent psychology at the senior high school, will be held April 15 at 7:30 p. m. instead of Monday, April 8. Dr. R. W. Steeter will deliver a lecture on "The Physical Side of Adolescence."
Dry pine slabs, $5 load. Tel. 631, Medford Fuel Co. 3241*
J. J. Deakin of Ashland sold 160 acres of his ranch land in the Applegate district last week to Nick Rose of Ashland. Mr. Rose plans to bring the land under cultivation. Old-time dance at Nat. Thursday and Saturday. 18*
Because of not having received notice in time to make arrangements to attend, the agricultural class of the Medford high school was not represented at the first sectional sectional contest held at the high school at Roseburg yesterday. The schools entered individual students in the contest, instead of teams. Fifteen members of the Grants Pass high school agricultural class, with E. J. Edwards, the class vocational instructor, were present from the Rogue River valley.
Factory blocks, $6 load. Tel. 631, Medford Fuel Co. 3241*
Mrs. Della Dodge and daughter, Mrs. Julia Dow, left a week ago for southern California to make their home, after having sold their residential property in this city. Competent and experienced bookkeeper and office man desires position. References, Box 25, Tribune, 19*
The annual summer convention of the Oregon Editorial association will be held Friday and Saturday, June 20, in Albany, and Sunday, June 21, in Newport. A golf tournament will be held Friday or Saturday, it is planned. The meeting will adjourn to Newport Saturday afternoon, and the Newport Commercial club will entertain at a sea food dinner.
Heat your orchard with kindling, blocks and slabs. Tel. 631, Medford Fuel Co. 3241*
Charles W. McMillan of the Oregon Insurance Rating Bureau of Portland, Ore., arrived in the city yesterday to spend a few days here on business.
The your dollar to the earth and be really secure. Let us place your money on first real estate mortgage security; 8% semi-annual interest. Jack Waksfield and Clarence Pierce, room 4, Palm block, phone 17, 517-L or 249-L, 16*
The California Press association, headed by a former Crater newspaperman, Richardson, will start on a loop trip through the northern part of the state and southern Oregon on May 3. The party will visit Klamath Falls, Medford, Grants Pass, turning off here to the Redwood highway, traversing the highway to Eureka, where the association members will finish their trip by rail. Grants Pass will probably be asked to entertain the party when it reaches this city.—Grants Pass Courier.
Gladias hubs and bulbs, wholesale and retail, I will let them out in shares. S. J. Taylor, 33 Hawthorne, Grants Pass, Ore.
Mr. and Mrs. H. D. McCasky returned yesterday from San Francisco, where they were called by the illness and death of Mrs. McCasky's brother, Colonel J. W. Fuller, who died following sickness contracted while en route to the United States from Honolulu. Colonel Fuller was well known in the steel industry and was the holder of a patent to a fuel feeding device in use practically in all eastern steel foundries, and was only 56 years of age. Two days before he died, E. A. Salsbery, Jr., of Central Point, wrote at his bedside.
Window glass, all sizes; also plate glass. Trowbridge Cabinet Wks., 12*
John Gribble was among the local residents in Corvallis over the week-end in connection with the state high school band concert. Mr. Gribble's son is a member of the high school band.
Get those tenders and auto bodies straightened at Brill's Sheet Metal Works, opposite Lewis Super Service Station. Phone 418. 14*
A giant female cougar with kittens in some nearby, undiscovered retreat, was killed late in March by Fred Arzner, predatory animal hunter employed by the state game commission to clean up the Cow creek refuge near Hildreth, Ore., of its population of cougars, lynx and bobcats. This cougar dressed down her kills so cleverly that when Arzner first ran onto signs of her operations he thought that some person had been in the refuge hunting and killing deer, according to his report to Harold Clifford, state game warden.
Highest grade Utah coal, any size, anywhere, any amount. Hansen Coal Co., Phone 232. 11*
A minor auto collision took place yesterday at the intersection of Riverside and Main, when cars driven respectively by Charles Simmons and Cecil Schocke collided. Little damage resulted from the crash, according to a report filed at the police station.
Sinclair's have a complete baby's department. Special attention given to baby layettes, stamped baby pieces and novelty goods for parties. Sinclair's, 17*
Friends of W. T. "Bill" Lee, county assessor, will be glad to learn he is recovering from a serious attack of illness and is now able to be about again. Mr. Lee is in Jacksonville, Ore., where he is receiving medical attention. Yesterday several friends of Mr. Lee called upon him while in the valley and found him very much improved in health.—Klamath News.
Cheap lumber and cedar posts. Medford Lumber Co. 2371*
That good coal—low in ash. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 235. 11*
The Novelty Hat company of Portland is exhibiting a line of hats here at the Hutchinson mercantile store, once a week, through its local representative, Mrs. W. C. Kindred. This merchandise has been on display at the Medford store for the past two Saturdays.
The W. O. W. old-time Sat. night dances are drawing good crowds. 14*

Mr. and Mrs. I. P. Littrell and daughter left last week for Fall Creek in northern California, after having visited Mrs. E. A. Littrell of this city. They arrived in Medford Friday, X. M., preparatory to the acceptance of duties by Mr. Littrell with the California Oregon Power company.
Cheap lumber and cedar posts. Medford Lumber Co. 2371*
Included among the temporary auto licenses issued at the county clerk's office yesterday were the following to Jesse Tucker, Tom Moss, Garland Cox and H. F. McLaughler of Medford.
Fresh shipments of smelt arriving daily. Free delivery any place in city. Johnson's Market, Phone 37.
Bootleggers are running to cover in Portland and they are harder to find than in other times, all afraid of the new Jones law, providing five years in prison for prohibition law offenders, according to Federal Agent Terry Talent, who recently returned from that city, after having made several arrests there under that act. Officer Talent made the first arrest in Oregon under the new law.
Oil-time dance at Nat. Thursday and Saturday. 16*
One hundred and four automobiles were stopped by Lieutenant O. G. Nichols and Walter Foster, state traffic officers, in Klamath Falls last Tuesday night, and their lights and licenses carefully checked.
Cheap dry lumber at Medford Lumber Co. 2371*
Southern California newspapers are again carrying news stories about the Rogue River Chinook salmon. Last year great publicity was given to the fishing here, and the Los Angeles Times last Sunday carried similar stories as were printed last spring. Pictures of the river were also printed.—Grants Pass Courier.
Money loaned to worthy people to pay their honest debts. Thompson Realty Co., Rm. 13, Palm Bk., Cor. Main and Front, upstairs. 19*
Fred Hopkins, Jr., former well known Medford resident, will leave by motor tomorrow for his home in Los Angeles, where he has been located since leaving Medford several months ago. He is the distributing agent in Hollywood for the De Soto automobile, and has one of the choice garage locations in the city. Fred Hopkins, Sr., who also formerly made his headquarters in Medford, is making his home in Portland.
Factory blocks, $6 load. Tel. 631, Medford Fuel Co. 3241*
C. B. McMath of Portland, who recently assumed duties as accountant for Simon, Shuttlerworth & French company, moved his family last week from Portland to 708 West Second street.
Ladies' and children's hair-cutting. Nash Barber Shop, 34*
A marriage license was issued yesterday afternoon to John Moulton, 22, of Medford, and Josephine Cata, 17, of Moscow, Idaho.
That good coal—low in ash. Hansen Coal Co., Phone 232.
Dr. Noble Wiley Jones, well known Portland specialist, will be in Medford as soon as the fishing season opens, to prepare for a fishing trip to the Rogue river; according to a letter received from him by Dr. E. R. Elliott of this city.
Dry fir slabs, $6 load. Tel. 631, Medford Fuel Co. 3241*
Mrs. Otto Caster and daughter, Sybil, spent yesterday in the city shopping and transacting business.
Best Utah coal—hot and clean. Tel. 631, Medford Fuel Co. 3241*
A number of local Eastern Star members, including Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Culy, Mrs. Glen Fabrick, Mrs. Frank Isaacs, Miss Gertrude Weeks and Mrs. W. H. McGowan, motored to Yreka Friday to attend the meeting held in that city in honor of the California worthy grand matron, there on her annual official visit. The local people returned to Medford at an early hour yesterday morning.
Hot, clean coal. Tel. 631, Medford Fuel Co. 3241*
Mrs. Elroy Anderson has returned to her home in Klamath Falls, after spending some time in Medford, receiving medical attention.
Upholstering—Call Jacksonville 292. 386
Bounty warrants were issued at the county clerk's office yesterday to John Warner of Trail, one bobcat, and to W. E. Edmondson of Trail, one coyote and one bobcat.
T. H. Cucksey, general foreman from the Seattle Postal Telegraph office, and R. A. Obley, division engineer for the company, are in the city for the purpose of overseeing the removal of the Medford office to another location next door to its present quarters.
To engage in business at Los Angeles, their former home, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dickson and family of the Berrydale district, will leave soon.
F. Konas, Crescent City, Calif., lumber man, has been spending a short time in Medford and surrounding country attending to business matters, accompanied by George Gerontos, George Panas and John Kallios, also Crescent City lumbermen.
The new tennis courts at the high school will soon be ready for use, and last week were in the last stages of completion. Plans have been made for a busy tennis season at the school and several players have already been in active practice. Games are planned with Ashland, Grants Pass, Klamath Falls, Roseburg and possibly Seaside and Eugene.
Miss Juanita Stone of Medford will be employed at the Woods and beauty parlors over the Citizen's bank—Ashland Tidings.
Mrs. Virginia Rose of Medford is spending a short time with relatives in Yreka.
B. F. Texton and Condon Texton of Chicago were visiting in Medford last week with George Laidler, well known Medford lumber interests in this section.
For a visit here with his brothers, H. H. and J. O. Banister of this city, Kenneth Banister of Roseburg, who is local manager there of the Montgomery Ward & Co. store, will arrive today.

Although she does not feel ill or weak, Mrs. Lyda King, county nurse, has the prospect of staying in bed for three or more weeks, as the result of being quarantined for scarlet fever. She has been receiving callers and the sympathy of her friends by the long distance route. They stay outside her home on Quince street but find consolation in the fact they are able to talk at a distance through the window. It is not only a hardship on Mrs. King, but the quarantine is also being monotonous to "Jerry," her well known Alameda, who now can not take his long rides as he did when his mistress made calls in the rural sections for the health unit.
Views of southern Oregon, including pictures of pear orchards and of Crater lake, are included in a recent booklet issued by the Southern Pacific railroad and given distribution throughout the United States.
The surplus of labor is still large in Medford, and a good sized number of applicants are turned away daily at the local branch of the United States free employment service. The number includes girls, young married women and elderly women, as well as men of all types. The majority, in response to the question, "What can you do?" respond, "Oh, I can do anything," and that usually means they can not do one thing well, according to Chris Gottlieb, manager of the branch.
Miss Eloria Krause of the Applegate section was among the visitors in Medford yesterday afternoon.
R. S. Bailley, well known Port Klamath merchant, is building a modern tourist camp on his property in Port Klamath, and plans to operate the camp this summer.
The city fire department will be located in its new hall May 1, according to expectations held by Fire Chief Roy Elliott. The major construction work has been completed, and laborers are now completing the details, such as installation of windows and the completion of interior furnishings and fixtures.
Mr. and Mrs. George Kimsey, who went to Medford before the holidays in connection with the bus line started there, are now in Sacramento, Calif. The Kimseys are visiting friends in Sacramento and looking over that section of California, but are contemplating a return to Medford in time this spring.—Corvallis Gazette Times.
The Royal Russian choir, which appeared at the auditorium in Medford last Sunday afternoon, gave a concert in the public auditorium at Portland last evening.
May day is the day when parents should take stock of the health of their children to see that every child has "the complete birthright of a sound mind in a sound body." Dr. Frederick D. Stricker, secretary of the state board of health, points out in his weekly bulletin. He called attention to the fact that 50 per cent of the children have physical defects that may be remedied if taken in time.
Mr. and Mrs. Allison Moulton and son, Mosdiant, returned last week from Medford where they had spent the Easter holidays with Mr. Moulton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moulton, who celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary with a big family reunion dinner on Easter Sunday.

Shirley Tuttle, who underwent an operation for mastoid abscess in a Portland hospital last week, well withstood the ordeal, and his condition is favorable, but he still suffers much pain. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Tuttle, are at his bedside most of the time.

PHONE 474
CITY CLEANING & DYEING CO.

TODAY ONLY RIALTO The Pick of the Big Silent Pictures
Continuous Shows 12:30 to 11 P. M.
A TWO-GUN EPIC OF THE BAD LANDS
REX BELL
TAKING A CHANCE
GOOD ADDED SHORT FEATURES
ROTHERMEL'S MUSIC
YOU GET MORE ENTERTAINMENT FOR LESS MONEY
Kiddies 10c Any Time
MATHINEE 15c
EVENINGS 25c

STARTS TOMORROW
A THROEBING GARBO ROMANCE IN THE TROPICAL JUNGLE.
GARBO
Wild Orchids
WOMEN ADMIRER
Women do so admire good clothes—appearances are noticed wherever they go. Many an old dress has appeared at a party to attract the admiration and envy of every woman present. Such are the miracles of our cleaning and dyeing service. Let us give your wardrobe new life with little cost.

America's most distinguished Brides
select this
SMART NEW PATTERN
This exquisite new pattern of Gorham sterling silver—the Dolly Madison—is being chosen by important brides everywhere—in Philadelphia, Louisville, New York, Baltimore!
In its lovely lines and delicate mouldings there is all the simple charm of early American pieces, fused with a modern sophistication.
For nearly a century past distinguished brides have chosen the designs of Gorham artists-in-silver, the most remarkable group of designers in the world.
Come in and see the beautiful new Dolly Madison pattern. Also other sets of Gorham flat silver and hollow ware, in many patterns to match—all at surprisingly low cost.

Lawrence, the Jeweler
Watches, Diamonds and Jewelry of QUALITY
Main and Fir St. Established 1908

WOMEN ADMIRER
Women do so admire good clothes—appearances are noticed wherever they go. Many an old dress has appeared at a party to attract the admiration and envy of every woman present. Such are the miracles of our cleaning and dyeing service. Let us give your wardrobe new life with little cost.

City Cleaning & Dyeing Works
We're Not Satisfied Unless You Are
624 N. Riverside Phone 674

Lumber Bargains
We recently made a good buy on a large quantity of lumber at a sheriff's sale. We are going to sell it at bargain prices.
No. 1 com. $20 per M.
No. 2 com. 17 per M.
No. 3 and 4 com. 10 per M.
These prices include long dimension up to 32 foot and small timber.
Let us save you money on your next job.
Woods Lumber Co.
"Back to the Woods"
East Main and Genesee Phone 108

3 DAYS, STARTS
TODAY HUNTS GRATERIAN Another Big Smashing
CENTRAL Just off MAIN
TALKING PICTURE
The Girl on the Barge
STARRING
Jean Hersholt AND Sally O'Neil
—A Rupert Hughes Cosmopolitan Magazine story with all the added dramatic value that the talking screen can bring to a story already crowded with excitement and the thrill of life on an Erie Canal barge where poverty and death mingle with love and laughter.
Admission Matinee Till 5 P. M. Children 10 Adults 35 Evenings 25 and 50
ALSO
TWO BIG ACTS OF TALKIES
DAVE DREYER Famous Song Writer
EARL BURNETT'S Orchestra
THE TALKING NEWS
Continuous Shows Today