

Local and Personal

A. B. Cornell, the Grants Pass insurance man, who is well known in Medford, is quite sick at his home in that city, concerning which the Grants Pass Courier says: "A. B. Cornell is quite ill at his home in this city. He was stricken with a sudden heart attack on Sunday and was seriously ill during the day. His condition was reported much improved Monday."

Rucker's Taxi, Phone 68. Rates 25c. Prompt service.

Wednesday will be ladies' day at the Elks temple from 12 to 5 p. m.

Dynges' old-time novelty dance, Nat. Thursday and Saturday.

Following a visit of a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Livingston on the Old Stage road, Misses Florence and Franklin Smith left this forenoon by train for New York City, en route to their home at Rye, England. They had spent the winter in southern California. Both are United States citizens, but have been making their home for sometime in England.

Guests from a distance registered at Medford hotels include F. C. Archer of Chicago, Mrs. W. H. Miller, W. D. and N. H. Miller and Miss Marjorie Miller of Kewanee, Ill.

Dance, four-bits. Walker's Wednesday.

Edwin W. Lovejoy, United States supervisor of radio for the seventh radio district, will conduct examinations for those seeking radio operator licenses, April 10, in room 203 of the postoffice building at Portland. Examinations for commercial classes of licenses will begin at 8:30 a. m., April 10 for amateur licenses at 1:20 that afternoon.

Heat your orchard with kindling, blocks and slabs. Tel. 631, Medford Fuel Co.

Mrs. Fred Guy, daughter, Elene and son Raynor, of Gold Hill were house guests at the Clifford Jenkins home at Ashland Sunday. Mrs. Guy is musical instructor in the Gold Hill and Toque River schools.

You have the babies. We have the announcement cards. Swen's.

Marriage licenses were issued this forenoon at the county clerk's office to Raymond McGovern, 21, and Mae Lucy Ferrar, 21, both of Redding, Cal.; Joseph Arant and Juanita Arens, both of Redding; Alvin Trent Anderson and Gertrude Williams, both of Red Bluff, Cal.; Mealy Klamath Nettle Gem potatoes, 100 lbs. for $1.20; 50 lbs. 75c. Delivered any place in city. Johnson's Market, 6th and Grape St. Phone 97.

The quarterly meeting of the Southern Oregon Businessmen's association was scheduled to be held in the federal building of this city this afternoon. H. D. Newell, director of the Klamath reclamation district, is the president of the association.

Every day cards, birthday, wedding, sympathy, gift. Save time and express the thought perfectly. Medford Book Store.

Among the Oregonians registered at Medford hotels are J. E. Reeves of Hillsboro, W. F. Chisholm of Lakeview, H. H. Lotz of Riddle, A. M. Swarley, E. Mills and E. Stambou of Corvallis.

Bring your invalids and old people to the Ashland Convalescent and Rest Home.

With the authorization of its organization recently given by the county court, an election is to be held May 4 to determine whether a water district will be formed in the Oak Grove district, between Medford and Jacksonville. The district would purchase its water from Medford through a master meter and the cost of the construction of the system is estimated to be approximately $15,000.

Dynges' old-time novelty dance, Nat. Thursday and Saturday.

John Doe was fined $10 in the city court this morning for being intoxicated on the street the other day. John Doe is said to be a well known citizen of Medford.

Hose mending runners removed, and snags worked back. Handicraft Shop.

Complete reorganization of the monthly alumni magazine of the Oregon State college, formerly known as "The O. A. C. Alumni," into a monthly publication combining student, faculty and alumni interests, has been announced by the alumni association. The new publication will be issued under the name of "The Oregon State Monthly," and will eventually combine in this one periodical a number of past and present separate campus magazines.

Dance, four-bits. Walker's Wednesday.

F. S. Richardson was among the Klamath Falls people spending yesterday in Medford. Let me write your fire insurance. Carl Y. Tengwald, Hotel Holland, Phone 392.

Spider Fields, who appeared in Medford last year in several boxing matches, has returned from Los Angeles, following an absence of over a year, and has plans of taking part in a local smelter in the next month. Fields fought in southern California several times with success.

These dogs don't need a license—"Poehle Pets," at Swen's.

Among Californians registered at Medford hotels are Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Madison of Piedmont, L. Niles of Sacramento, Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Smith of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crofton and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Scott of San Diego, and the following from San Francisco: H. A. Babt, C. Corwin, W. Hart Palmer, Loyal Himes, C. W. Thomas and C. W. Ricketts.

Dressmaking, smoking and hat-making. The Fashion Shop, 424 Medford Bldg. Phone 1181.

J. W. Whipple and family of Grants Pass spent the week end in Medford and Jacksonville visiting relatives.

Glitter wax, a modeling wax for children, bright colors, non-sticky. Medford Book Store.

An inquiry received today by the Chamber of Commerce from the Hoover of Roseburg sought information concerning Medford's form of city government and if it was successful. She is thought to be a student engrossed in the study of high school civics.

Heat your orchard with kindling, blocks and slabs. Tel. 631, Medford Fuel Co.

A bounty warrant was issued yesterday at the county clerk's office yesterday to V. Lamini for one coyote and two bobcats.

Dance, four-bits. Walker's Wednesday.

Preparations are being made for enlistments for the 1929 citizens' military training camps, according to information received from the war department. The Portland center for such activity is at Vancouver barracks, where young men are given a course of training in military fundamentals and physical training. The camps will be in operation in July and August of last year.

Dry pine slabs, $5 load. Tel. 631, Medford Fuel Co.

Miss Aznes Hedberg of Ashland spent yesterday in Medford at the Southern Oregon Gas office.

Birthday cards at Swen's.

Miss Helen Norris, Medford writer of radio plays, is given prominent mention in the latest Christian Science Monitor to be received in Medford. Her name is mentioned in connection with an article written about Mrs. Wilda Wilson Church, pioneer in the presentation of radio plays over station KGO at Oakland, Cal. A paragraph in devoted to Miss Norris.

Factory blocks, $5 load. Tel. 631, Medford Fuel Co.

T. C. Gaines of Trail was a caller at the Crater national forest offices here this forenoon.

The new two-tone twist candles, 2c and 25c per pair. Medford Book Store.

The payment of one dog license this forenoon at the county clerk's office was made under protest, when G. F. Smith, local rancher, protested the present dog license law as a means of double taxation. He declared the dogs on his ranch are assessed for general taxes and the purchase of licenses is nothing else than the payment of double taxes. Nearly 50 licenses were issued yesterday, bringing the total close to 500, and leaving nearly 5000 unlicensed dogs yet in the county. An added two dollar penalty will go into effect April 15.

Competent and experienced bookkeeper and office man desires position. References, Box 25, Tribune.

Attorney Allison Moulton is spending this week in Grants Pass attending the April term of circuit court there.

Take your films to Swen's for master photo finishing.

Guests from Portland at Medford hotels include Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Keller, W. E. Redhead, F. R. Emery, A. Stern, Mr. and Mrs. Hal A. Webster, Louise Patterson and mother, L. C. Strosser, W. E. Sox, H. A. Cook, G. A. Pirie, L. W. Scott, H. Dunn, R. W. Wiley, M. H. Nichols, E. S. Medford, James Fleming, D. Hyman, H. G. Maxwell, D. O. Miller, E. G. Hartman and E. E. Wilson.

Cheap dry lumber at Medford Lumber Co.

Highest grade Utah coal, any size, anywhere, any amount. Hanson Coal Co. Phone 239.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

EMERGENCY—We have a customer who must have an orchard, not a pretext, but a real orchard. Pears, of course, but some apples might be worked in. Give full details, including acreage and amount of spring work already done. See HOLMES for HOMES, Nash Hotel corner.

FOR RENT OR SALE—Nice East side home; 5 rooms, basement and lawn in First Ins. Agency, 30 N. Central Ave. Phone 302.

FOR RENT—3-room furnished house, 110 W. Jackson. Inquire 312 So. Ivy.

WANTED—An experienced shoe man for few days. J. H. McGee, Ashland, Ore.

FOR SALE—Substantial discount on 1929 Ford Tudor sedan, car just broken in. Write Box 8, P. O. 30.

FOR SALE—Bred to lay White Leghorns, baby chicks, cheap if taken within few days. J. J. McCay, Medford, Rt. 2, Box 67, Phone 344-3-4.

FOR SALE—Brand new bargain, 4 rooms, bath, breakfast room, built-in basement and garage, situated on 1 acre. Fine garden soil. $2400; $200 cash, balance easy terms. Exclusive. WARDEN & SHELLEY, 44 North Riverside Ave., Phone 1262.

FOR SALE—Newtown apples, Growers' Exchange, 9th and 7th Sts.

Two couples of California young people were united in marriage by Judge Glenn O. Taylor in his office in the federal building yesterday afternoon, as follows: Marie Louise Smith and Harvey E. Zisk of Siskiyou county, with Richard J. Calder and George W. Wood as witnesses, and Mae Lucy Ferrar and Raymond Edward McGovern of Shasta county, with Steve Ferrar and George W. Wood as witnesses. Dance, four-bits. Walker's Wednesday.

The intersection of South Oakdale avenue and Tenth street is undergoing improvements of benches to all motorists in the cutting off of two corners of the intersection, making it possible to drive onto Tenth from Oakdale without making excessively sharp turns.

Heat your orchard with kindling, blocks and slabs. Tel. 631, Medford Fuel Co.

While he was scheduled to have been given a preliminary hearing in justice court yesterday, George Wolf, arrested Saturday, for the possession of an illegal moonshine still in the Forest creek section, will not be given a hearing until Friday. He is at liberty on bonds of $1500 and plans to fight the charge against him to a finish.

Officers allege he owned a complete distilling outfit which they seized near his home.

Wedding anniversary cards at Swen's.

V. E. Hardman of Malad City, Utah, was among the motorists from a distance who registered today at the local branch of the out of state auto registration bureau.

Window glass, all sizes; also plate glass. Trowbridge Cabinet Wks. etc.

Two more players were eliminated last night from the city three-cushion billiard tournament, when Pestmaid Fifee defeated Ray Watkins and Dr. W. E. Iantze defeated Patton, leaving Fifer, Lantis, Pull and Martin Barrick in the running for championship honors. Barrick and Pull are tied for first place, while Fifer and Lantis are not far behind.

Jasper Hanna, Trail rancher, who received serious injuries when struck by his car which he was cranking last week near the Mutual Mill and Seed company mill on Jackson street, was reported today to be somewhat improved at the Sacred Heart hospital. For a time it was feared he would lose the use of both legs as the result of a spine injury, but this condition is reported to have changed. Dance, four-bits. Walker's Wednesday.

May 3 and 4, have been set as the time for the first annual music festival to be sponsored by the Southern Oregon Normal school. Miss Leona Marsters has arranged the festival so that both grade schools and high schools may take part. There will be voice, orchestra and band concerts. Many schools of southern Oregon have enrolled in the event and indications are that there will be nearly 500 children taking part.

Get those tenders and auto bodies straightened at Brill's Sheet Metal Works, opposite Lewis Super Service Station. Phone 418.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rober are among the victors in Medford from the state of Washington.

Cheap lumber and cedar posts. Medford Lumber Co.

Temporary auto licenses were issued at the sheriff's office yesterday to Emil Anderson, Frank Koyse, Lewis Super Service Station, T. W. Scott and V. D. Sanders of Medford, W. L. Withrow and Charles Thompson of Ashland, Frank Burnham of Trail and Paul Walker of Central Point.

Cheer up the person who is ill with a "get well" card from Swen's.

Tom and Harvey Grinsby of Ashland spent Sunday visiting relatives in Medford and Gold Hill districts.

That good coal—low in ash. Hanson Coal Co. Phone 239.

Miss Dorothy Reynolds arrived home Saturday night from a visit at Yreka, Cal., with her aunt, Mrs. J. W. Suffecool.

A new citizen for Medford is H. E. Shuman of Tacoma, Wash., mechanic for the Pacific Fruit and Produce company, who is moving here with his family to become permanent residents.

Cheap lumber and cedar posts. Medford Lumber Co.

William Greenbeyer of Ashland and Gordon Skout of Medford were elected by the recent Modern Woodmen county convention as delegate and alternate, respectively, to the state convention of the order next month.

Fresh shipments of smelt arriving daily. Free delivery any place in city. Johnson's Market. Phone 97.

Mrs. T. E. Daniels left last night to spend some time at Los Angeles on a pleasure visit.

NOTICE TO WATER USERS HOPKINS LATERAL

An important meeting of the water users under the Hopkins Lateral is hereby called next Saturday, April 13th, at 2 o'clock p. m. in the basement of the Medford Hotel at which the committee will make an important report on an option recently obtained from the Public Water company, and other matters in which every land owner will be interested. All water users are urged to be present.

VICTOR BURSELL, Chairman. Donald Clark, M. F. Hanley, I. R. Kilne, Frank E. Upton, John H. Carkin, Committee.

Scottish Rite. Stated meeting Siskiyou Lodge of Perfection, 7:30 p. m., April 8th. Refreshments.

L. E. WILLIAMS, Secy.

Regular communication of Heames' Chapter, O. E. S., Wednesday evening, April 10, 8 o'clock.

HATTIE M. ADEN, Secy.

Money loaned to worthy people to pay their honest debts. Thomas Realty Co., Rm. 12, Palm Bldg., cor. Main and Front, upstairs.

Try Our Delicious Coffee Rings 10c each Model Bakery 111 W. Main St.

These Drug Stores Are Open Nights This Week Jarmin & Woods James McNair Pharmacy West Side Pharmacy

STARTS TOMORROW ALL TALKING You Will Thrill to This Startling Mystery of the Jungle H. B. WARNER LOUISE FAZENDA Claude Gillingwater "Stark Mad" Daring Explorers at the Mercy of an Unseen Terror YOU'LL LAUGH! YOU'LL THRILL!

20 Years! Same Business! Same Location! We are Proud of Our Record! No business can continue for 20 years unless founded upon and carrying out the principal of honest service. This agency was founded on April 9, 1909 by R. A. Holmes and today many of our original customers are on our books. Every year has shown an increase over the preceding year. During this 20-year period we have written literally thousands of policies and— We Have Paid In Losses An Aggregate of $226,133.87 When founded, the insurance business in Medford consisted almost entirely of fire, plate glass and life insurance and surety bonds. Today, we have in force some 67 forms of insurance and make a claim that, if there is a form of insurance to cover your needs that is available—

We Can Write It! This Office Represents The Oldest Company in the World The Oldest Company in the United States The Largest Company in the World and Largest Company in America (other than Life) Total Resources of Our Companies $509,348,096.00 Including Only American Assets of Foreign Countries The R. A. Holmes Agency Jackson County Bank Bldg. Phone 444

DR. RICKERT says: What is vision-exhaustion? Tired, strained, weak or inflamed eyes indicate exhaustion and defective vision. Our methods correct all visual defects. Call here without delay. DR. JUD RICKERT OPTOMETRIST 222 E. Main — Medford Ore.

Women's Hose $1.00 Pair Silk from top to toe with pointed heel. The Toggery. 24 YEARS That testify to strength When a bank has served faithfully and dependably for 24 years, always meeting every reasonable demand, always conscientiously safeguarding depositors' funds, always following the soundest of banking policies, it has proved its solidity and stability. A splendid 24-year record testifies to the strength of the First National Bank. First National Bank Medford, Oregon MEMBER FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING GETS RESULTS

Rain or Shine —Your grocer receives Fluhrer's Milk Bread fresh from our ovens twice daily.