MRS. GIFFORD PINCHOT RECOVERS FROM DRINK OF MIXTURE FOR HAIR

SAVANNAH, Ga., April 9.—(AP) Mrs. Gifford Pinchot, wife of the former governor of Pennsylvania was on her way to Key West, Fla., today after a short stay here where she was given treatment for possible ill results of a dose of hair tonic which she drank thinking it was medicine.

Mrs. Pinchot drank the tonic while enroute by train to join her husband, who with a party of friends is on a scientific cruise through the South seas. She was expected to arrive in Key West late today or tomorrow morning.

Beautiful Greta at the Rialto

Greta Garbo, tense drama and a background of romance, are the three things which distinguish "Wild Orchids," now playing at the Rialto theater.

Cast as a misunderstood and neglected wife, Miss Garbo proves to be more beautiful in this film than she has ever been before. In one scene, dressed in the revealing costume of a Japanese bride and standing on a moonlit balcony, Miss Garbo appears as an unearthly figure of loveliness. Her splendid acting and the intelligence with which she interprets a difficult role, are features of the picture.

Lewis Stone and Nils Asther both give her splendid support. Asther, in particular, seems to be destined for great honors on the screen. The aspects of the flappers in the Rialto theater last night as Asther made love to Miss Garbo were audible and sincere.

The Dalles.—Negotiations under way for sale of 253,000,000 feet of pine and fir timber in Forest district 25 miles south of here.
