HUTCHISON STORE AND HOUSE NEAR FINISH AT TRAIL

TRAIL, Ore., April 12.—(Special)—S. W. Hutchison's new store and house is nearing completion and is a very attractive looking place.

Mrs. E. W. Segersman is on the sick list. Colds are quite the vogue this spring.

A. H. Bills and Wayne Doak of Elk creek, also Mr. and Mrs. S. Ditsworth, were Trail visitors Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Merriman and children were Medford visitors Wednesday evening. They report the snow melting fast around Prospect.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Houston were Sunday callers at Trail, and had lunch at Phil Hart's new lunch room.

Mrs. Chas. Blaess is improving slowly from her illness and is able to resume her household duties again.

E. Segersman has had to discontinue looking for a few days on account of the bad weather.

Wayne Ash and Chas. Cushman have just finished digging a well on Mr. Ash's lower place.

N. C. Vaughn and Wm. Horn left last week to work for the county for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Burke and Mr. and Mrs. Macy Hinthorn have moved to the Vaughn place for the summer months, closer to Mr. Burke's work and to school.

Fred Warner was a Medford caller Wednesday.

E. E. Ash sold the river frontage on his lower place to Mr. Mallard, who will set lots for summer homes.

SCHOOL CARNIVAL FOR EAGLE POINT PLANNED APR. 19

EAGLE POINT, Ore., April 12.—(Special)—The fair and spring carnival, the next big event at Eagle Point, is under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers' association and will be held in the new high school building Friday evening, April 19th. Opportunity will be given to buy lovely hand-painted handkerchiefs and pillows at very reasonable prices.

We feel very fortunate in being able to have the "world's" heavy-weight champion boxer come to Eagle Point. There will be a real boxing match with admission at most reasonable rates.

The intermediate grades, under the direction of Miss Aitken, will stage a marionette show. The young stage director, property man and marionettes are working overtime this week to make their first marionette production a theatrical success. Snowdrift and the Dwarfs is the name of the play they have chosen for the marionettes.

The characters follow: Snow White, Zoella Smith; Queen, Velman Davis; Huntsman, Clyde Riggs; Dwarf, Lyle Smith; Leonard Philbrook, Donald Astorle, Prince Glen Winkle.

In addition to their puppet show these grades will have for display a collection which has never before been exhibited to the public.

The Little Butte Museum may be viewed in full while waiting for the marionettes to begin. Rare findings of many species from a whale backbone to skulls of nearly every best of local habitation are a part of the unique assemblage.

The hubbub in the primary room these days is due to the preparations for the "real" circus to be staged April 19 as a part of the spring festival and fair.

Mrs. Bonham's room will have a real hand to help create a circus atmosphere.

The upper grades are now uproariously noisy with laughter during practice hours, for the "Kids Countown Jubilee." The comical songs and snappy sayings of which only colored folks are capable, is extremely mirth-provoking, even to the participants.

The harmonica band is now getting in trim with the aid of some of the town musicians. They plan to furnish the band music for the grand three-ring circus to be furnished by the primary room.

The camp cooking class, which is organized entirely of boys of the upper and intermediate grades which has been under the direction of Mrs. Bonham since fall, will put on a demonstration that evening. Judges will be present to select the boys doing the most attractive work to be sent to the county fair this fall.

The apron and overall party given by the Grange Monday night was well attended and a good time was had by all. These dances are proving very popular.

Dick Swacker, who is employed on the highway, has laid off for a time to do the assessment work on his mine.

E. R. Carter made a business trip to Weed, Cal., Tuesday.

N. Culy, insurance salesman for the Oregon River, was a visitor at Rogue Tuesday.

Lora Fogarty of Oroville, Cal., and Mrs. E. P. Dealy of Chico, visited a few days with their sister, Mrs. Percy Thomas, and her husband.

Mr. Waldron underwent a major operation at the Sacred Heart hospital in Medford Tuesday.

Frank Crampton and Mr. Willert were Medford visitors Tuesday evening.

D. S. Clemons and Floyd Smith, sawmill men from Scappoose, Ore., are stopping at the Waldorf hotel while looking over the timber in this section.

Mrs. Jones, mother of Leslie Jones, passed away Tuesday night at her home here, after a long illness.

Rev. Wilson left Wednesday for Roseburg, where he will attend the Presbytery.

Fred O'Kelly and J. M. Whipple interviewed the people whose land the proposed new road crosses, and found all ready to give a right of way at very reasonable rates. This road will eliminate the two railroad crossings between Rogue River and Grants Pass on the old road.

ANTIOCH SUNDAY SCHOOL SOCIETY PLAN PIE SOCIAL

BEAGLE, Ore., April 12.—(Special)—The Young Peoples society of Antioch Sunday school will give a pie social Friday evening, April 19. The pies will be sold at auction to the highest bidder. The proceeds are to be used to buy new song books for the Sunday school and Young Peoples meeting. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

The Jones farm has been sub-let by Mr. Flick to the West brothers from over on the Crater Lake highway. The Wests have taken possession and are farming the same.

Mrs. Ruby Mayfield was a Medford and Central Point visitor Monday afternoon.

The Antioch P.-T. A. held their regular meeting Friday evening, April 5. After the business meeting, a splendid program prepared by Miss Hunsong was enjoyed by all. The meeting was ended by serving light refreshments.

Mr. Zueck was a Medford visitor the first of the week.

Joe Mayfield is spending a few days on Dry creek plowing and putting in the crop on his ranch over there.

The people of this community are very sorry to hear of Jasper Hannah's accident and hope that it will not prove serious and that he will be home in a few days. Mr. Hannah has a host of friends here and is well known all over the valley.

The nursery men have been canvassing our community the last few days.

The Young Peoples meeting was led by Jack Sims last Sunday evening. The subject was "Using the Bible as a Daily Guide." Three special songs were rendered, one by the junior boys, one by the junior girls and one by the senior members. Miss Swanson led the prayer meeting, the subject being "The Christian's Hope."

Mrs. Ruby Mayfield returned from Klamath Falls the last of the week, where she was called on account of the illness of her mother, Mrs. Russell. She found her mother in a very weak condition, due mostly to old age. Her many friends here wish for her recovery to health again.

Chas. Sanderson delivered a couple of veal to the Medford market Tuesday.

The three younger children of the Sanderson family have the chickenpox this week.

School Notes
Cleo Sims is back in school again after being ill with the flu.

Miss Elizabeth Burr, county rural supervisor, visited our school on Tuesday, April 9.

The children are writing compositions in language class telling why we should treat our animal friends kindly. The best ones are to be sent to the fair in September.

Last week the best looking and neatest arithmetic papers were chosen to add to our fair collection.

McGee to Retire From Business
J. H. McGee, who has operated a ready-to-wear store in Ashland for 19 years and has been active in business, civic and patriotic circles in the county, as well as in Ashland, is announcing his retirement from business, is conducting a closing out sale and will leave the new store building he erected two or three years ago.

GOOD MUSIC WEEK IS URGED BY GOVERNOR

SALEM, Ore., April 12.—(Special)—In a letter to Mrs. Walter A. Denton of Salem, Governor Patterson recommends to the people of Oregon "the enthusiastic observation of good music week from May 5 to 12." Mrs. Denton is state chairman for the week.

The letter points to the importance of more thorough education in good music because of the development of the radio.

QUAKES CONTINUE IN ITALIAN TOWN

BOLOGNA, Italy, April 12.—(Special)—For the third successive morning residents of this city were awakened and brought outdoors into streets and public squares at earth tremors. A fairly strong shock was felt at 1:36 a. m. The squares today were filled with crowds of frightened people, many of whom, nervous from the tremors, stayed up all night.

A second shock was felt at 6:20 a. m., today. Thus far little property damage has been reported, with no casualties.
