

SPRING FESTIVAL FOR EAGLE POINT FRIDAY, APRIL 26

EAGLE POINT, Ore., April 16.—(Special).—The regular meeting of the Parent-Teachers association met Friday afternoon with a goodly number of members present. Opening song, "America," by the assembly. The program was given by the high school.

Reading, "So Do I," Myrtle Rigby; vocal duet, "Way Down South," Mary Hannahoff and Marguerite Marshall; reading, "Baseball," Leo Joe Brown; vocal duet, "Sidelwalks of New York," Margaret Brophy and Rudy Weidman.

Mrs. C. F. Davies was presented with a steamer of pure aluminum and Geo. Phillips with a handsome sweater. These gifts were in appreciation of the efforts of both, which made the hot lunch so popular and successful. Mrs. Bonham represented the circle in making the presentation.

The following officers were elected for the year 1929-1930: President, Mrs. Bitterling; vice-president, Mrs. Jack Florey; secretary, Miss Burt; and treasurer, Mrs. Grace Cowden.

The ways and means committee for the month of May are Mrs. Spencer, chairman; Mrs. Weidman, Mrs. Myrtle Smith, Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. Clements and Mr. Davies.

At a motion of the circle, the fair and spring carnival was postponed until April 26th, owing to the prevalence of measles in a mild form at this time.

Among the Eagle Pointers attending the minstrel show at Reese creek Friday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Bonham, Mrs. Myrtle Smith, Marguerite Marshall, John Greb, Alvin Greb, Clarence Greb and Harold Greb. The show was sponsored by the P.-T. A. and was a great success.

Mrs. Myrtle Smith and Harold Greb were shopping in Medford Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Pittman have returned to their home on McNeil creek, after spending the winter in the south. Mr. Pittman is a war veteran and finds this climate in the summer beneficial to his health.

Buddy Greb celebrated his 16th birthday anniversary Sunday, April 14th.

Mrs. Myrtle Smith visited Mrs. George Stowell at the Rogue River sanitarium at Jacksonville, and reports that Mrs. Stowell is much better.

Prof. C. E. Englehardt and son Hugo were in town Saturday evening driving a brand new Ford coach.

REESE CREEK PTA STAGES MINSTREL SHOW AT SCHOOL

REESE CREEK, Ore., April 15.—(Special).—The darky minstrel given last Friday night, April 13, by the P.-T. A. was pronounced a grand success and was attended by one of the largest crowds ever gathered at Reese Creek. The program was as follows:

"Old Black Joe"—Chorus.

An Invitation—Aunt Dinah and Eveline.

Jig—Dick.

Harmonica selection—Little Rubie.

Preacher and De Bear—Trio.

Riders of Dreams.

Madison, loose-jointed and lazy-looking man; Lacey, his wife; Booker, their son; Williams, a neighbor.

Viola solo—Aunt Dinah.

Comedy—Pritchett and Trusty.

Rbeuen, Reuben—Trio.

Black Clouds—Mrs. Cutiele Hieftooten, Mrs. Tacoma Washington.

"Carry Me Back to Old Virginia"—Samba.

Piano selection—Mandy.

Banjo solo—Pritchett.

Hush Money—Soapsuds and Agony.

Duet—Mandy and Snowball.

Some Shadows in Dairying—Rastus and Lavender.

Polly Woolly Doodle—Chorus.

Aunt Jimma was present in her bright colored costume giving out Jimma pancake flour and some little pamphlets of recipes.

Peanuts and homemade candy were sold at five cents a bag, which was greatly enjoyed judging by the way the supply diminished.

H. Ball and son, Willard, made a business trip to Waldo, their old home, April 14.

C. W. Waddell and family were trading with one of the modern country stores in Eagle Point Saturday.

Rev. R. Griffith and evangelistic party, who assisted in the recent revival at Reese Creek, are beginning services in the Mission church at Eagle Point this week.

Rev. Griffith is a member of the Nazarene church and a firm believer in the old-fashioned gospel that saves from sin.

Reese Creek enjoyed one of the best rains in many weeks on Sunday, April 14, bearing out the slogan that it rains most on nights and Sundays.

The title of next Sunday's lesson has to do with the comfort of God's people. Is. 40:1-11. "As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you." (Is. 66:13). The above golden text fully explains who our best friend is. Come, let us learn more of him.

Sand.—Contract will be awarded April 22 for construction of bridge across Sandy river approximately two miles north of this town.

SNOW MELTING IN MOUNT PITT AREA

MT. PITT, Camp No. 2, April 16.—(Special).—About four inches of new snow fell April 10th and is melting fast.

Falling and bunching crews are anxiously awaiting good weather conditions so they may resume their work.

Pete Lorentzen, head cake-maker at camp 2, has been in Medford on business for the past two days.

Many deer come near camp 2, apparently looking for salt. They seem to be wintering well.

J. A. Crump and P. J. Gorman motored to town today on business.

Winifred Coming Back. HOLLYWOOD, Cal., April 16.—(AP).—Winifred Westover, divorced wife of William S. (Bill) Hart, announced today through United Artists studio that after nearly nine years' absence from the films, she shortly will re-enter screen work. The studio announced that Miss Westover will play the title role in the screen version of "Lumox," Fannie Hurst novel.

Heir Found Slain. SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., April 16.—(AP).—J. J. Hull, 36, who recently inherited a small fortune, was found dead in his cabin with his head crushed and face slashed.

CHINESE FIRE ON BRITISH GUNBOAT

SHANGHAI, April 16.—(AP).—A telegram from Ichang, Huper province, said three British sailors were wounded when a British gunboat was fired upon from the banks of the Yangtze Kiang, near that city.

The gunboat Tern had gone up the river to the rescue of British ships, in view of a report that shipping was being held up by rifle fire 12 miles from Ichang. Fighting has been going on at this point between nationalist forces and a retreating Wuhan army.

BUTLER 'EXCELLENT' AFTER OPERATION

NEW YORK, April 16.—(AP).—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university, underwent an operation for gallstones at the Presbyterian hospital this morning and his condition was afterwards described as "excellent."

Baker.—Garage will be erected in near future to house four of city's automobiles.

SALEM GAS WAR DECLARED ENDED

SALEM, Ore., April 16.—(AP).—Members of the Salem Gas Dealers' association refused to concede today that the gasoline price war in the city still persists, although one service station was pumping motor fuel to its customers at 20 cents a gallon.

A week ago dealers at a meeting voted to establish a 23-cent price and members of the association declare they are going to maintain this price, regardless of whether or not independent dealers undersell them.

SENATE TO CONSIDER MELLON WEDNESDAY

WASHINGTON, April 15.—(AP).—The senate judiciary committee was summoned today by Chairman Norris to meet Wednesday to consider the inquiry ordered previously into the right of Secretary Mellon to continue in office.

Plans for the investigation will be determined at the meeting. It is the desire of some members that Mr. Mellon be called before the committee to detail his property holdings.

PACIFIC AND RYAN FRUIT IN MERGER

SALEM, Ore., April 16.—(AP).—Merger of the Pacific Fruit & Produce company and the Ryan Fruit company, the two largest fruit companies operating in the Pacific northwest, into the general fruit corporation was announced here today in letters received by the local branches from the headquarters offices in Seattle.

The new corporation is capitalized at $10,000,000 and will control 65 branches of the merged companies in Washington, Oregon, California, Idaho, Montana, Utah, and British Columbia, which do an annual business of over $30,000,000.

GUINAN'S CO-WORKERS RECEIVE HEAVY FINES

NEW YORK, April 16.—(AP).—Ten men who pleaded guilty to maintaining a nuisance at the Salton Royale, Broadway night club where Texas Guinan was hostess before it was raided by prohibition agents, today were fined from $50 to $250 by Federal Judge Edwin S. Thomas.
