MUCH LUMBER IS HANDLED IN YARD AT EAGLE POINT

EAGLE POINT, Ore., April 19.—(Special.) Another car load of lumber arrived on the Owen Oregon for our local lumber yard Monday morning. It is a very busy corner these days; there is lumber arriving and leaving continually. There are many new buildings going up around town which helps to keep everybody busy. W. E. Hammett is erecting a new house for his foreman, Frank Carter.

Mr. and Mrs. Frances Greb Miller were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Greb and family Tuesday evening.

There will be a dance at the Kinkaid hall Saturday; the Kinkaid orchestra will furnish the music.

Mr. Wood from the Dahack ranch, William Holman, Alex Vental of Reese creek, and Tom Pullen were in town Tuesday attending to business.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hurst and son Ralph and Miss Josephine were Medford shoppers Monday.

Francis Edward of Medford visited at the home of Miss Mary Hannaford Sunday afternoon.

Next Sunday morning's lesson will be found in Isa. 40:1-11; Comfort for God's people; and the Golden Text is: As one whom his mother comforteth so will I comfort you. Isa. 66:13. Sunday school 10 a. m. Mr. Weidman, superintendent.

Lola Hildreth and her father, Mr. Fendall, who have been staying in Medford and Ashland returned to the Sunnyside hotel to make their home.

Mr. Skinner of Copco, was in Eagle Point Monday attending to business.

Mrs. Gertrude Stanley was in town Saturday. She is having some dental work done in Medford.

Miss Cora Crandall and William Crandall and family spent Sunday at the Sunnyside hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Welsh and daughter Lois of Ashland and Mrs. J. B. Welsh of Medford were visiting Sunday with Mrs. Howlet and Miss Hattie Howlet.

Mrs. George Stowell who has been in the Rogue River Sanitarium at Jacksonvile, returned home Tuesday very much improved.

Ed Hoyt and Artie Nichols of Klamath Falls were in town this week and attending to business, returning to Klamath Falls Tuesday. Artie Nichols took his mother, Mrs. John Nichols, back with him for an extended visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Owen and two children took dinner at the Sunnyside hotel Sunday.

Johnny Miller, one of our local carpenters has been making some tool cabinets for Mr. Meckle, our telephone lineman. The cabinets fit on the pickup body and besides being well made they are very handy. Mr. Meckle has his Ford well stocked with implements and extras and is always ready to take care of any line trouble and is always ready in case of emergency.

Quite a number of our ladies went to Medford Tuesday, some attending to business while others attended the cooking school at the armory. Amongst them were: Mrs. Buster McClelland, Mrs. Lyle Carlton, Mrs. Gus Nichols and Mrs. Lottie Van Scoy.

Mrs. Mary Cingcoada was called to the Sacred Heart hospital Monday to be at the bedside of her brother who was seriously ill.

Mrs. Harry Tungate of Butte Falls, is the house guest of Mrs. Grace Cowden who are sisters. Mrs. Tungate is having some dental work done at Mr. Phipps' of Medford.

School News
A number of the measles victims have returned to school. However there are still several absent from Miss Aitken's and Miss Jamison's classes. Work is still progressing for the P. T. A. Festival which was postponed to April 26th. Everyone is putting out every effort possible to make it a success, knowing that we must depend upon the cooperation of the community. The high school play, "Aunt Julia's Pearls," will be given May 3rd. Some changes were made in the cast because the measles afflicted some of the players. The present cast is:

Mrs. Hunter—Marguerite Marshall
Mr. Hunter—Donald Young
Betty Hunter—Margaret Brophy
Jim Hunter—Rudy Reidman
Claire Nelson—Mary Hannaford (Jim's fiancée)
Marmaduke Waldron
Everett Schafer (Betty's beau)

Aunt Julia—Robert Philbrook
Mr. Somers—Fred Compton
The plot is interesting and there is some mystery. A notorious thief is at work in the neighborhood in which the Hunters live. Aunt Julia visits the family, none of whom she has met. The plot thickens and poor Aunt Julia is accused of being the thief. However, as in all plays, everything finally turns out all right. Wednesday assembly program was as follows:

Reading—Dorothy Schafer.
Reading—Isola Brown.
Music by Dorothy and Elsie Wilhite.
Ernest Humphrey of Central Point, visited friends in town Wednesday.

Sandwiches covered with a cloth wrung out of cold water and kept in a cool place will remain moist for hours.

CAR AVOIDS TEAM IN EDEN PRECINCT RUNAWAY EPISODE

(By Mary O. Carey.)
EDEN PRECINCT, Ore., April 19.—(Special.)—Ed Hamlin moved his tractor out to the Orchard ranch the last of this week and will begin plowing. Ed had a most unusual runaway experience out at the ranch one day last week. The team which was hitched to a wagon ran down the road and only by a miracle missed colliding with Mrs. B. A. Daugherty's car in which she and her children were riding. Only for Mrs. Daugherty's quick thinking did she beat the team to a turnout, thus saving herself and the other occupants of the car.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Adams of Medford were business callers at the Carey plant farm Wednesday afternoon.

The Daffodil club of east Eden met at the home of Mrs. Edmonia Anderson last Wednesday. A delightful covered dish luncheon was partaken of at noon. A program of recitations, singing and games of five hundred passed the time in the afternoon. There were 14 members present.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Shear of Medford were all day guests at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Barneburg last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Carey were guests at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Barneburg last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Carey were the guests of James Allen and Mrs. Jack Allen last Sunday and the party attended church in Medford in the morning.

Mrs. Bright, who spent this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hamlin, returned to her home in Medford Saturday evening.

Jack Rohlfson, wire chief for the Home Telephone company, was out putting several of the out of town phones in better order last Tuesday.

James Allen, who suffered a stroke some two months ago, was able to be out to church at Medford last Sunday.

Quite a number of the ladies of the Bible class of the Phoenix church attended the meeting held at the home of Mrs. Otto Caster at Eagle Point last Wednesday. They report a most enjoyable time.

The card party given by the neighbors of Woodcraft at Phoenix last Friday evening was a very enjoyable affair. One candidate, Mr. Oliver, was initiated. The winners of the first prize at bridge were Ed Hamlin and Mrs. George Drake. The prizes were a beautiful pair of flowered vases.

Delegated to the convention from the Woodcraft at Phoenix are Mrs. Louis Colver, Mrs. Carl Colleigh, Mrs. Hunt and Mrs. Dave Watt. The convention will be held at Seaside, Ore., in June.

The hymn, "The Way of Faith," will be broadcast from KOIL, of Council Bluffs, Iowa, in a few days.

Miss Elva Caster and Miss Irene Standley left Thursday for Salem, where Miss Caster is a delegate of the Crater Lake union and Miss Standley is a delegate for the Christian Endeavor. Both are representing the work from Phoenix.

Miss Arleta Messenger returned last Sunday from a two weeks visit to the home of her aunt at Riverside, Cal. Miss Messenger returned to her work in the office of Attorney Frank Farrell.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Evans, accompanied by Mrs. Fenton, left for the home of Mrs. Evans last Saturday. Mrs. Fenton will go by motor station to her home at Tenino, Wash., from Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Froman, who have been living at King highway for the past year or more, are moving this week to a ranch near Central Point.

MILLER NAMED ON OPTOMETRY BOARD

SALEM, Ore., April 19.—(Special.)—Governor Patterson has appointed Dr. A. R. Miller of McMinnville as a member of the state board of optometry examiners to succeed Dr. Henry E. Morris of Salem, whose term has expired. The appointment is for three years.

Messenger call boxes installed in Klamath Falls business offices by Postal Telegraph company.

BODY POISONS MENACE HEALTH

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Will Rid Your System of Them

By neglecting constipation, body poisons get in their deadly work. Headaches, listlessness, cloudy complexion, which are the first signs, soon are followed by factors that wreck health, ruin ambitions and steal beauty.

You can guard against constipation with a simple remedy—Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. It is a delicious cereal—100% bran—that brings sure, natural relief from this widespread evil. Doctors recommend ALL-BRAN because it is a bulk food. It sweeps the intestines clean of poisonous wastes and stimulates normal action.

Results are guaranteed. Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily—chronic cases with every meal. Serve it with milk or cream, fruit or honey added. Sprinkle it over other cereals. Use it in cooking—recipes are on the package.

Don't neglect constipation. Begin eating ALL-BRAN today. Sold by all grocers. Served in hotels, dining-rooms and restaurants. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

DELEGATES FROM COMMUNITY CLUB IN TALENT NAMED

(By Mrs. Marion Tryer.)
TALENT, Ore., April 18.—(Special.)—The Community club held their regular meeting Wednesday afternoon and elected their delegates to the woman's congress, which will be held next Friday and Saturday at Ashland. Those receiving the honors were Mrs. Chase Gardner and Mrs. Long. Mrs. Guy Randle of Ashland was a guest at the club.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brandt and two daughters of Medford called at the Tryer home Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Bullen and Charley Harris of Ashland were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Estes Sunday evening.

The county grader has been busy a couple of days this week grading the roads in town, which now are in good condition.

Elder Banton was called to Los Angeles last Friday. He is expected to return this week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Patrick, residents of Zanoville, Ohio, but who have spent the past two years at Grand Pass, called on Mr. and Mrs. McMahon the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Patrick are en route to California, where they hope Mr. Patrick will regain his usual health. On their return to Oregon they expect to spend a week with Mr. and Mrs. McMahon, who are old friends.

Rev. Audley Brown, scoutmaster of troop 27 of Talent, attended the luncheon given in honor of the scoutmasters at Hotel Holland in Medford last Saturday afternoon. Representatives from Eugene, Roseburg and Klamath Falls were present. The main subject discussed at this meeting was the establishment of a camp at Lake of the Woods for the different troops of southern Oregon. Rev. Brown has a troop of 15 members and is assisted in the work by Lee Vanauale. Several of the boys were wearing new scout suits last Sunday, those receiving their suits being Clarence Campbell, Craig Perry, Bob Bullen and Earl Perry.

FLOWER SHOW AT MEDFORD MONDAY

The Medford Garden club opens its wild flower and bulb show at the Hotel Medford Monday, April 22. Entries are to be made between 8 and 11 that morning and the show opens formally at noon, where members of the Greater Medford club and members of the Kiwanis club will be special guests. Owing to the unusual conditions prevailing this spring and the scarcity of flowers everywhere, every member of the club and all flower lovers are urged to make at least one exhibit.

Those in charge are: General chairman, Jane Sneider; entry clerk, Mrs. Leland Mentzer; table decorations of cut flowers, Mrs. Lewis Ulrich and Mrs. H. D. McCaskey; baskets of cut flowers, Mrs. Wm. Shepherd; bulbs, Mrs. A. L. Hill; wild flowers, Mrs. L. Bundy; all other kinds of cut garden flowers, Mrs. J. N. Biden.

One especially interesting feature will be the small tables arranged with flowers for dinner table decoration.
