COMMUNITY CLUB HOUSE PLANS FOR CITY UNDER WAY

Plans for the community clubhouse, which originated with the Greater Medford club, and will now include all the service clubs and the Chamber of Commerce, are being considered in earnest and actual construction of this civic center will begin during the summer, according to Mrs. R. V. Williams, president of the organization.

The first idea of building the clubhouse across from the high school on ground offered by the school board, has been abandoned, and several other locations are now under consideration. It is planned to construct the women's section of the building separately, with their own entrance, according to Mrs. Williams.

Provisions will be made so that several meetings may be in session at the same time, without conflict or disturbance to one another. An attractive auditorium for the benefit of the little theater group recently organized here is also included in the plans; and this will also prived a place for visiting speakers and for programs or concerts sponsored by the organizations using the clubhouse.

The sale of cakes turned over to the Greater Medford club by a recent cooking school held in Medford, netted the organization $200 last Friday evening. This will be used toward the construction of the community clubhouse.

CENTRAL POINT GRANGE HEARS DR. BALCOM ON SUBJECT OF NURSING

(By E. H. Strohmeier)

CENTRAL POINT, Ore., April 22. — (Special.) Central Point Grange opened on lecture hour and County Doctor Bolcom, introduced by Alex Sparrow, gave a short talk for mothers nursing babies, so that the child when ready for the school will be in the best of condition.

It was given as her idea that every adult should have a physical examination, we suppose, to know whether to be or not to be Osler-ized.

Master Anderson thinks one neighbor ought to know what the other neighbor has, especially chickens. The world at large follows that very thought, except in cities where neighbors do not even know each other's names, and everything runs smoothly along.

The Grange was next entertained by Mrs. Eva Smith, who told us that kissing by those who have whiskers is the best.

A. M. Tyrrill gave a reading on how a daisey swam to the Promised Land.

Mrs. Mae Richardson representing a cowboy, gave a very interesting reading of a cowboy making love.

The minstrel show last Friday night was very well attended and the boys hunted up some peculiar looking characters to crack their jokes on.

The Grange being one year old has 190 members, including applications, the growth being very satisfactory.

It was also mentioned that Jackson county Granges will have a radio hour next Thursday night, April 25, 8 p. m. to 9 p. m., over KMED.

CELEBRATE OPENING GLENDALE SAWMILL

A big celebration is planned for Wednesday, May 1st when the official dedication of the new Glendale Lumber Co. mill takes place at Glendale, Oregon. This new mill is a welcome addition to the lumber industries of southern Oregon and will maintain an extensive payroll.

It is said to be thoroughly modern and electrified throughout, power service being furnished by the California Oregon Power company, who have just improved and rebuilt line seven to take care of this important load.

The celebration May 1st will be attended by big delegations from Roseburg, Grants Pass and other communities of this territory. Plans are also now underway to send a large representation from this city.

ANOTHER NETWORK FOR COAST RADIOS

SAN FRANCISCO, April 16.—(AP)—The Bulletin said today that a new chain of radio stations, the Evergreen Network, Inc., will shortly commence broadcasting activities on the Pacific coast.

The system will include six stations, with rumored headquarters at station KOL, Seattle, the paper said, and with stations also located in Spokane and Portland.

The paper also stated it was probable that Hal H. King, sales manager of the Pacific division of the National Broadcasting company, would relinquish his position to become president and general manager of the new company.
