BELGRADE—(AP)—The sweeping way of fetters to trade and economic progress imposed by age-old customs and outworn sentiment is one of the most radical reforms being undertaken by the new dictatorship government set up by King Alexander.

As an example to the business world at large, the habit of endless coffee drinking has been forbidden in government offices, the working day of civil servants has been lengthened and finally they are to lose many of the holidays, they have been enjoying by the unification of the Julian and Gregorian calendars.

Serbia alone of European states has retained the Julian calendar. This has handicapped business not only with foreign countries, but also with other parts of Yugoslavia where the Gregorian calendar is used.

The effect has been especially marked each year in December and January and again around Easter. In the winter there are two sets of festivities at intervals of 15 days. Thus there are two St. Nicholas days, two Christmases, two New Years and two sets of saint days of which about 19 occur in January. Similar conditions prevail with the coming of spring, Holy Week and Easter.

The ministry of religion has held several conferences with the astronomical staff of Belgrade university and has been assured that there should be no great difficulty in unifying the two methods of reckoning the passing of the years.

Signs Aid Diners in Lunch Stands and Protect Till

The humorous warning and advertising signs seen in some of the hot dog and light lunch stands and smaller restaurants of that character, not only are great aids to digestion, but advise the diner that he must not ask for credit. In fact the "we do not cash checks" signs are the most numerous in Medford.

The following are some of the signs seen in these dining places:

"Two Best Places to Eat Here and at Home."

"Banks Don't Serve Soup. We Don't Cash Checks."

"We Try to Do the Impossible—Please Everyone."

"If Your Wife Can't Cook, Keep Her for a Pet and Eat Here."

"We Don't Know Where Mom Is, But We Have Pop on Ice."

"Please Do Not Ask Us to Cash Checks."

CHARGE PROPAGANDA IN TARIFF CAMPAIGN

WASHINGTON, April 22.—(AP)—A declaration that propaganda was being circulated in an attempt to make the public believe that proposed tariff increases must be borne by the consumer was made in a statement today by Representative Timberlake, Republican of Colorado, a member of the ways and means committee now framing the new tariff revision bill.

He said an example of what he meant was the "attempt underway to defeat the higher duties asked by the American sugar beet and sugar cane farmer." Timberlake is an advocate of placing a limit of 500,000 tons on the annual importations of duty free sugar from the Philippine Islands.

GREEKS FIND HAVEN IN AFRICAN CLIMES

ATHENS—(AP)—The Greek population abroad, having since 1922 been greatly decreased in Asia Minor, is expanding widely throughout Africa.

During the cutting of the Suez canal a Greek established the Egyptian cigar industry. Many Egyptian doctors are of Greek origin. Alexandria has several Greek schools and philanthropic institutions. Years ago, Lord Cromer wrote that the Greeks were "the pioneers of progress in the Sudan."

There are Greek churches in Tunisia, Libya, Erythraea and Somaliland. Abyssinia possesses a considerable Greek colony and Tarriff, the Sultan, has visited Athens. In South Africa there are Hellenic communities in the Transvaal, Rhodesia and at the Cape. They exist also in Morocco and the Congo Free State.

In all Africa there are 72 Greek communities with 77 churches, eight bishoprics, 100 schools, and 10 Masonic lodges with more than 5000 members.

LAW RESPECT FADING

all incapable and negligent officials, no matter what their status, by encouragement, protection and recognition for those who do their duty; and by the most rigid scrutiny of all persons suggested for appointment to official posts in our law enforcement machinery.

"Every student of our law enforcement mechanism knows full well that it is in need of vigorous reorganization; that its procedure unduly favored the criminal; that our judiciary needs to be strengthened; that the method of assembling our juries needs revision; that justice must be more swift and sure."

Press Could Aid.
 Addressing himself directly to the publishers and editors whom he faced, the president said the press could play a dominant part in resolving the basic question of the understanding, the ideals, the relationship of the individual citizen to the law itself.

"If (the press) is almost final in its potency to arouse the interest and conscience of our people," he declared, "it can destroy their finer sensibilities or it can invigorate them. I am well aware that the great majority of our important journals day by day give support to these high ideals.

"I wonder sometimes, however, if perhaps a little more support to our laws could not be given in one direction. If instead of the glamor of romance and heroism, which our American imaginative minds too frequently throw around those who break the law, we would invest with a little romance and heroism those thousands of our officers who are endeavoring to enforce the law, it would decrease crime.

Perhaps a little better proportioned balance of news concerning those criminals who are convicted and punished would serve to instill the fear of the law.

"Finally, I wish to again reiterate that the problem of law enforcement is not alone the function or business of government. If law can be upheld only by enforcement officers, then our scheme of government is at an end."

LOCATE ANDERSON RESCUE AIRPLANE IN TANIMI DESERT

SYDNEY, N. S. W., April 22.—(AP)—Six airplanes were headed today toward the fastness of the Tanimi desert, Northern Territory, where the plane Kookaburra of Lieutenant Keith Anderson was seen yesterday with a body beneath one of its wings.

The planes, carrying food and medical supplies, sought to learn the fate of Lieutenant Anderson and Robert Hitchcock, who 13 days ago started in search of the then lost Southern Cross, only to come to grief themselves.

The Kookaburra was sighted yesterday by a searching plane, the Atlanta, in charge of a pilot named Brain. Brain was on his way to Wave Hill to join the party searching for the fliers when smoke attracted his attention.

Drawing nearer and flying over it, he saw beneath him the Kookaburra, a body stretched out under one of its wings. swooping lower he thought he could make out Lieutenant Anderson.

Misfortune dogged the pilot's heels throughout the day, an early morning attempt being first delayed through an imperfection in the timing apparatus and later postponed when weather conditions became unfavorable.

JEWISH TREK EQUALS HOLY LAND ENTRIES

JERUSALEM—(AP)—The movement of Jewish population into and out of Palestine last year was exactly balanced: immigrants, 2178; emigrants, 2178.

This extraordinary coincidence is by no means pleasing to the leaders of the Jewish national movement, seeing that their aim is to bring the largest possible number of Jews into the homeland, or, at least, sufficiently large numbers of them to form a majority of the population.

The figures for the period since June, 1920, when the civil administration was established, are, however, much more encouraging to the movement. In that period 92,000 Jews were registered as having entered the country, while the round number of 25,000 were emigrants.

During the whole post-war period, therefore, there has been a considerable gain in immigration, but not large enough to realize the ideals of the nationalist movement.

PERMITS ARE NEEDED BY TRUST COMPANIES

SALEM, Ore., April 22.—(AP) All corporations having trust powers that were organized prior to 1913 are required to secure permits from the state corporation department under the blue sky act before offering their stock for sale, says an opinion received by Corporation Commissioner Mark D. McGarrett from Attorney General I. H. Van Winkle. They claimed exemption under the trust act, but the attorney general holds that trust companies are not defined in the trust act the same as they were prior to 1913.

FEDERAL FORCES FARE FORTH FOR FINAL FIGHTING

MEXICO CITY, April 22.—(AP)—Ten thousand federal soldiers under General Plutarco Elias Calles forged northward today across the southern boundary of Sonora for what may be the last big battle of the revolution.

At Masimien and San Antonio, Sonora, 50 miles north of the federal starting point, are the rebel army of between 6000 and 7000 men entrenched.

The positions at Masimien and San Antonio represented a rebel advance toward the federals of 25 miles from their former stronghold of Navajon, and was believed to indicate their desire to oppose definitely the federal armies which almost without a clash forced them out of the state of Sinaloa.

Federal airplanes continued to bomb the rebel positions, reporting some damage. Rebel airplanes exploded two bombs in the federal camp at San Blas prior to the army's departure. Little damage was done.

SANTOS, Brazil.—(AP)—Two Brazilian states are training their youths as fishermen to exploit the country's thousands of miles of coasts and fish-filled rivers.

Fish importations, dried, smoked or salted, cost Brazil $15,000,000 annually while untold millions of fresh finny specimens swim nearby waters.

GANGS OF WAIFS DISAPPEAR FROM RUSSIAN STREETS

MOSCOW—(AP)—Homeless children, who used to infest Russian cities, working in gangs and stealing or robbing pedestrians, are rapidly disappearing. As a consequence one may traverse some of the side streets now at night with reasonable expectation of arriving home without losing one's watch or purse.

In 1928 there were about 30,000 of these waifs in various cities. About 20,000 were picked up by various organizations last year and placed in institutions to be trained in useful work, fed and cared for until they have lost their gang instincts. More than 3200 were rescued from the streets of Moscow alone.

For years the waifs were an unsolved problem. Most of them lost their homes and parents in the civil wars and revolutionary fighting, but some took to the streets by choice, and these proved the most recalcitrant. Attempts by the commission of education to reclaim them by ordinary institutional methods failed because when the youngsters grew tired of routine lives, they merely ran away.

A special committee appointed last year has had success with "communes of work." Four of these centers were opened—in Rostov, Orlo, the Saratov district and Staro-Tehechass. The Orlo commune, for example, owns a factory in which boys are taught to make harvesting machines. In other

MISSOURI PLAN AID IN POULTRY

COLUMBIA, Mo.—(AP)—Twenty-five thousand Missouri farmers learning brooding and feeding methods estimated by the Missouri college of agriculture to have saved $62,000 for 351 chicken raisers in the state last year.

The system is known as the "Missouri plan" and is explained in a series of circular letters printed by the college and circulated by its county and district extension agents.

Benefits of early hatching, in March or April, are emphasized. Farmers are advised to raise chicks on fresh, clean range, using a portable brooder. The letters say a 10x12 brooder that will accommodate from 350 to 450 chicks can be built for not more than $50. Mounted on skids, it can be hauled to fresh range occasionally. The change minimizes the danger from parasites.

Proper rations are discussed in the circulars, along with separation of pullets and cockerels at broiler weight. Feeding from that period has entirely different objectives.

Comparisons show that farmers using the Missouri plan lost slightly less than 12 per cent of their young chicks last year, while the state average in other flocks show 40 per cent loss. The added estimated average of $177.20 to their incomes.

TEXAN'S HENS BRING PROFIT OF $3.20 EACH

DENISON, Texas.—(AP)—Frod Morrison turned from cotton farming to make an annual profit of $3.20 from each of his 886 hens.

He bought a flock of chickens when cotton profits began to dwindle. It has cost him only 48 cents to produce each of his layers and last year the net return on their eggs was $3.155.

Morrison hopes to have 1500 birds by the end of 1929. He also operates a dairy of 50 cows and cultivates 100 acres of land.
