

TICKETS ON SALE FOR SENIOR PLAY CRATERIAN, MAY 6

Tickets for the annual Medford high school senior class play were placed on sale yesterday through the students of the senior class, who plan to reach a goal of 900. The presentation of "Bab," a play surrounding the experiences of a sub-debutante, will be given at Hunt's Craterian May 6, and has promises of easily equalling and possibly surpassing previous high school dramatic efforts.

A block of 400 tickets has been reserved for students of the school and the remaining 500 are to be sold to parents, and to the citizens of Medford as a whole.

The sale of the 400 tickets to students will be encouraged by the appointments of 17 speakers and 17 salesmen in the 17 roll rooms, where students report when school begins session at 9 o'clock each morning and at 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

The entire ticket sale is under the management of Gordon Warner, class member, and Ralph Bailey, faculty member.

Every seat in the theater with the exception of 50 will be reserved except the last two rows on the lower floor, and a portion of the balcony. Tickets sold by the students will permit holders to exchange same for reserved seats at the Craterian box office, where they will be placed on sale May 3, three days before the presentation of the play.

The cast, including several unusually well talented members, has been rehearsing diligently under the direction of Miss Isabel Willis, head of the high school dramatic department.

The play has an interesting plot and players are assured of an evening's entertainment hardly expected of a high school amateur production. As the result of a careful selection of characters, Miss Willis is believed to have a perfect cast, each person said to be especially suited for the character to be depicted on the stage.

JUNIOR PROM AT HIGH SCHOOL TO BE HELD MAY 10

That annual big high school social event, gathering of students at the most colorful affair of the season, the seniors' farewell, the Junior Prom will be held at the Medford high school auditorium May 10. An imposing list of committee members has been announced and all indications are that it will live up to its reputation as the outstanding event of the high school social season.

Admission will be given only to students having student body tickets faculty members and members of the alumni, and possibly a few especially invited guests. The "prom" is the big night, especially for the girls, some of whom plan for weeks in what dress they would appear to the best advantage and often they are assured of escort to the dance long before the date is announced. Of course, it is of special interest to the boys, but hardly to such an extent.

The committee members are as follows:

Decorations: Charles Barnes, Thomas Konkle, Charles Thomas, Denton Clark, Marjorie Hon, Ruth Hooker, Marguerite McAllister, Roan Green, Sybil Harrell, Helen Wilson and Jean Swartz.

Refreshments: Margaret Hibbard, Jean Ferguson, Cora Judge, Olive Lantis, Doris Bundy and Dorothy Walter.

Invitations: Wilma Ranney, Ruth Bossum, Audrey McDonald, William Dougherty and Norris Porter.

Dance and program: Doris Jones, Ed Reames, Robert Mason, Tom Emmens, Roberta Stearns and James Edmiston.

Clean-up: Gilbert Roberson, Edwin Peters, Donald Neilson, Martin Webb, Charles Thomas, John Sprague, Eleanor Boyd, Genevieve Brown, Pauline McNeill and Virginia Preston.

The first named in each classification is recognized as chairman and in complete charge of the committee.

STUDENT POLITICS BREWING IN FIGHT FOR HIGH OFFICES

Student politics are brewing at the senior high school, where the annual election for student body officers will be held within the next two weeks. Nominations for the 10 offices to be filled were made Monday by the student council, composed of class officers and officers of all student organizations, and were limited to two names for each nomination.

However, nominations are not restricted to the council, as the provision has been made for nominating candidates by petition, needing signatures of 10 per cent of the school enrollment to be valid. One petition has already been received and several others are expected before the election is held.

The race for student body president is attracting the main interest of the school and has three candidates. Two nominations, those of Charles Thomas and Oswald Newland, were returned by the council, while the third, that of Ed Reames, was brought in by petition signed by over 100 students. Reports around the high school have it that the petition was signed in less than 15 minutes.

In the nominations returned for property manager, Roan Green has withdrawn, leaving Bert Lowry, Jr., the only candidate. The property manager has the responsibility of taking care of high school equipment, such as football suits, basketball outfits and marking the football field for games and preparing the Army for basketball games. His office carries with it probably the most work of any in the school.

The campaign has been opened and is being carried on in the spirit of friendly rivalry, and unlike similar elections in other schools, is unmarked by feeling of bitterness sometimes engendered by over enthusiasm of candidates and supporters in their bid for election honors. In some cases the campaigns will be well organized and well planned, the presentation of speeches to help the cause of respective candidates.

ROTARIANS PLAN ATTEND PACIFIC COAST CONCLAVE

A number of local Rotary club members are planning to attend the annual Pacific coast conference to be held this year at Vancouver, B. C. An interesting program has been prepared and copies of it were distributed at yesterday's club luncheon.

The conference delegates are expected to begin arriving Sunday and the opening session will convene Monday, May 6, at the Capital theatre, followed by a well balanced program for the remainder of the day. With a business session in the early part of the day, Tuesday's program will be concluded with a Governor's ball in the three ball rooms of the Hotel Vancouver. The last business sessions will be held Tuesday afternoon.

Wednesday has been set aside as a golf tournament for the visiting Rotarians, with good prizes awarded to winners. The tournament will be played on the Jericho course.

Special entertainment has also been arranged for visiting ladies, including a tea party in the Georgian tea room of the Hudson Bay company on Monday afternoon. A special surprise is slated for them Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday, the ladies may play golf in the morning and they will be entertained at a bridge tea at the Vancouver Yacht club in the afternoon.

Seven Medford Rotarians so far have made reservations, but this number is expected to be greatly increased by the time the conference opens.

MOSCOW — (AP) — Newspapers publish figures showing that 194 books have been written about Lenin. These have been published in 32 languages and $17,000 copies have been printed.

DOUGHERTY READY FOR FINAL STATE ORATORICAL TEST

Prepared for his final effort as far as state honors are concerned, William Dougherty, Medford high school student and winner of district honors in an elimination contest held a short time ago at Roseburg, will leave this evening for Portland to take part Friday in the state finals of the national constitutional oratorical contest. He will be accompanied by his coach, Ralph Bailey, of the high school faculty.

The local boy, a junior in school, will represent Jackson, Josephine, Douglas, Cook and Curry counties, and his 12-minute oration of approximately 1200 words will be based on the subject, "Our Task is William Dougherty.

Not Yet Done." The subject matter involves the question of crime, legislation and other matters of "national interest, which he not only describes, but also suggests a remedy. Dougherty, under the patient instruction of his coach, has spent weeks in preparation and as a result has gained perfect delivery and remarkable enunciation. He has a strong voice, easily understood and convincing in its tone. In practice and in presenting it before local service clubs, as well as at the elimination contest at Roseburg, he had no indication of self-consciousness and displayed confidence in every word. In view of this, the entire high school student body is expecting good results of Dougherty's visit to Portland.

Eight districts will be represented in the Portland auditorium Friday evening, with the first two districts included in the city of Portland itself. These will be represented by Robert Busse of the Lincoln high school and Henry Philburt of the Jefferson high. The third district includes Multnomah county outside the city of Portland and will be represented by Julie Metcalf of St. Helens.

The remaining districts will be represented as follows: No. 4, James Brooke, Eugene; No. 5, William Dougherty, Medford; No. 6, March Gadow, Pendleton; No. 7, Mable Moore, Klamath Falls; No. 8, Hazel Moore, Ontario.

The winner of the state finals will represent Oregon in the coast contest at Los Angeles and will receive an award of a $100 gold watch and $125 in cash. The winner of the coast finals will compete for national honors at Washington, D. C. The judges at Portland will be chosen by the Portland members of the Oregon Bar association.

that may be passed on to the purchaser. The Eakin Motor company and Medford Motors are showing a line of Plymouths which include the coupe, the roadster with rumble seat, the two-door sedan, touring deluxe coupe with rumble seat and four door sedan. A dealer says: "The attendance is much larger than anticipated and I am very optimistic concerning Plymouth sales for this territory. I was particularly pleased with the number of questions asked by visitors concerning the Plymouth cars and feel that we showed to many persons that in its field the Plymouth is the outstanding purchase, from the viewpoint of performance as well as style. Those who took the road test found the truth in the old adage, 'the proof of the pudding is in its eating,' for they returned to the show rooms convinced that in every respect the promise of Plymouth performance had been lived up to in its actual road operation."

W. C. T. U. OPEN MEET TO BE HELD THURSDAY

The W. C. T. U. are holding an open meeting Thursday at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. W. T. Berry, Crater Lake avenue. The program will be in charge of the flower mission and relief committee, featuring readings by Mrs. T. G. Heine, Mrs. W. T. Berry and others.

There will be several musical numbers, including a duet by Mrs. Lyman and Mrs. Moran. Refreshment hostesses, Mrs. G. H. Prescott and Mrs. Williams.

Those who can take others in their cars are asked to phone Mrs. J. E. McDonald.

KINGAID ORCHESTRA WALKER'S PAVILION

To be heard in Medford for the first time in months, Kingaid's musical orchestra, for the past several seasons appearing at the Gold Hill and Eagle Point pavilions will play tonight as an added attraction at Walker's dance pavilion on East Main street. The orchestra has a large following and tonight's party is expected to be one of the largest mid-week dances held here for some time.

The popularity contest carried on by the pavilion is attracting considerable interest and three leaders are separated by only a few points. Results will be published later.

"Runaway Girls" at Rialto Tomorrow

A story of sensational scenes, thrills and exciting adventures comes to the Rialto theatre tomorrow, called "Runaway Girls." It deals with the motives that cause so many girls to be reported missing from home each year.

Sue Hartley, a role assumed by Shirley Mason, is the girl selected as an example. Arthur Rankin has the leading masculine role. He portrays a youth who is struggling to become a famous journalist. Evenings he picks up some extra money by playing a saxophone in a famous night club.

Hedda Hopper gives an excellent performance as the mother, whose life is made up of jazz and wild parties. Alice Lake wins admirers as the slinky manicurist, George Irving is pleasing as the father, Edward Earle gives an interesting characterization of a notorious rouser.

DeMille Production at Isis Tonight

One of the surprises of "Chicago" was the murder which occurs less than a minute after the curtain rises in the first act. This same surprise is present in the screen version of the play, a De Mille production. This role is played by Eugene Pallette. "Chicago" is at the Isis theatre.

The cast includes Phyllis Haver, Victor Varconi, Virginia Bradford, T. Roy Barnes, Robert Edeson, Julia Payne and May Robson.

THIS IS NATIONAL DISPLAY WEEK FOR PLYMOUTH CARS

Plymouth motor car dealers throughout the United States are giving a national display and demonstration this week and the public is invited not only to view these Chrysler-built low-priced cars in the dealers' show rooms but to receive a road demonstration, during which they may experience how smoothly the Plymouth performs and how comfortable are these full sized cars.

One of the local dealers says: "We are showing these beautiful, stylish low priced Plymouth cars in all their spring glory and beauty. There is a wide variety of new, sparkling spring colors and smart color combinations and some very important mechanical improvements. The motor-wise public which during the past few weeks has looked over other cars in the low-priced field, now has the opportunity of viewing a low-priced car which in appearance and performance belies its price tag."

"From the viewpoint of style and beauty, color and comfort, the Plymouth not only surpasses all other cars in its field, but rivals many in the high-priced division of other makes of automobiles. Its performance, power, and acceleration, in easy riding at all speeds, the Plymouth is the outstanding purchase at its price."

"Under the famous Chrysler principle of standardized quality, the Plymouth has embodied in its structural advantages of many of the most expensive Chrysler products. Among these are Chrysler weatherproof, integral expanding hydraulic brakes, silver dome engine and full pressure lubrication. As a Chrysler motor product it enjoys the advantage of group financing, consolidated buying and co-operating research and engineering facilities with resulting economies
