Superior performance of Dodge Trucks day after day, year after year, writes profits on the books of Dodge Truck owners.

This performance is the sum of power, speed, ruggedness, safety and dependability. It has been proved superior under all conditions of road and load—in all lines of business—among fleet operators and single truck owners . . . . . And Dodge Truck operating and maintenance costs are always low.

Come in and inspect our complete line—critically. Make comparisons. Drive the one that fits your needs. Or let us drive it with a load of your goods. You'll see quickly why the owners of hundreds of thousands of Dodge Trucks call them money makers.

Formerly Graham Brothers Trucks
The complete line of Trucks, Buses and Motor Coaches manufactured by Graham Brothers (subsidiary of Dodge Brothers) now take the name of Dodge Brothers. These Trucks, Buses and Motor Coaches, powered by Dodge Brothers engines and manufactured according to Dodge Brothers standards, are sold, as they always have been sold, by Dodge Brothers Dealers everywhere.

BELLVIEW, Ore., April 24—(Special)—At the meeting of the Jackson County P.-T. A. council held at the Lighthouse Hotel Saturday, April 20, Mrs. Norma Reeder, primary teacher of the Bellview school, was elected to head the organization. Mrs. W. W. Gabriel, state president of the P. T. A., was the main speaker during the morning session. At 12:30 o'clock luncheon was served in the hotel dining room. Some of the ladies of Bellview who attended the meeting were Mrs. Oscar Martin, president of the Bellview organization; Mrs. W. L. Welch, Mrs. A. V. Hood, Mrs. S. K. Barnes, Mrs. W. G. Tucker, Mrs. Norma Reeder, Mrs. David McKinney and Mrs. Edwin Dunn. Miss Ruth Newby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Newby, took part in the stunt put on by the Camp Fire Girls at the high school gymnasium on Friday evening, April 19. The money derived from this year's stunt show will go towards the expenses of the summer camp at Lake of the Woods.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Parker of Klamath county are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Butler Walker for a few days. Mrs. Parker is a sister of Mr. Walker. Mr. and Mrs. Rousseau Applegate just recently had a new radio installed in their home on the east main road.

Barnard Joy, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Joy of Bellview, has been appointed on the entertainment committee for the state extemporaneous speaking and interpretation contest, which will be held on the campus of the Oregon state college on April 25 and 26. The general subject for use of the contestants is "Oregon Future." A number of cities in the state will be represented in the contest.

Mrs. Jackson Gyger of the Neil creek district attended the card party given by the Women's league of the Southern Oregon Normal school at the Civic club house on Friday evening. Mrs. Gyger carried off one of the prizes for holding high score.

Miss Frances Collis of Fairfield, Idaho, arrived at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. McCause, the last of the week, and entered the seventh grade of the Bellview school on Monday. She will make her home with her grandparents for a length of time.

The youngsters of the Bellview school observed Friday, which was Arbor day, and devoted the entire day to cleaning up and beautifying their school grounds as well as making a house cleaning indoors.

Mrs. Ed Gowland of Klamath Falls, who spent some time at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Miller, caring for her father, who is ill, returned to her home on Sunday.

T. Tepper of Bellview left the first of the week for northern California, where he has employment during the summer months.

The brickyard which is located in the Bellview district and operated by a corporation, with C. E. Bandish as manager, is preparing to place on the market some of the products manufactured at their plant. Lou Blachman and Mr. Carl of Los Angeles have moved to this vicinity recently and are associated with Mr. Bandish in the industry.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Burns, who have been visiting the Charles Burns family in Bellview district, left Friday for their home in San Francisco. Cecil Burns is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Burns.

Mrs. Frank Pendleton, resident of the Dead Indian district, returned Thursday from Santa Monica and other California points, where she made an extended visit with friends and relatives.

Harold Gilmore, Edwin Bandish and Everett Newby of Bellview attended the birthday party at the home of Clyde Dunham on Oak street Monday evening. The evening was spent with games and stunts. At the close the boys were served with delicious refreshments by Mrs. Dunham and their Sunday school teacher, Miss Corabel Morsehouse.

Mrs. J. H. Moore, mother of Homer Moore of Bellview, arrived last week to make a visit with her son and family.

Mrs. Wade Wallis spent the week-end at the home of her son, Lee Wallis, of Helman street.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sellers and daughter, Lucile, of Central Point, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark True on Sunday.

SOCIAL MEETING PLAN OF GRANGE IN JACKSONVILLE

JACKSONVILLE, Ore., April 24—(Special)—Next Friday evening, April 26th, there will be another one of the Grange social meetings, which are becoming very popular. Something entirely different will be offered to patrons and friends. Mrs. Mabel Sims will present in a piano recital, Patsy Smith, Claude Hoover and Robert Skinner. These young musicians are appearing in public for the first time and an appreciative audience is expected. Mrs. Sims will be assisted by Mrs. Catherine Wendt, who will give a number of vocal selections.

Arrangements for a speaker are being made by the lecturer, C. D. Tompson.

Part of the program the ladies of the ways and means committee will have a candy booth where home made candy will be for sale.

Every effort is being put forth to make this social one of the most entertaining and successful of the year's program. The public is cordially invited.

Every granger should remember that there will be a Pomona Grange meeting held in Jacksonville Saturday, April 27. An all-day meeting is planned, including an evening session, at which time the Pomona drill team will put on the work of the fifth degree.

All Jacksonville patrons should attend this meeting to welcome the neighboring Grangers, who will be our guests for that day. There will be a big basket dinner, to which everyone is asked to bring a well-filled basket. A good time and a happy fellowship is assured.

JACKSONVILLE GROUP GIVES PROGRAM WITH VALLEY RADIO CHURCH

JACKSONVILLE, Ore., April 24. (Special)—A group from Jacksonville gave their rendition of "The Obligate" over KJED for the Valley Radio church Sunday evening. Mrs. John R. Knight gave the vocal part, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Katherine Wendt at the piano. Rev. Bill Ray, pastor of the church, who has been convalescing the past three weeks following a minor operation, was able to fill the pulpit again and delivered a fine sermon on the subject, "Building on the Rock of Ages."

Mrs. Fred Taylor and daughter, Evelyn, of Central Point, spent Sunday night and Monday as guests at the home of Mrs. Fred Butcher.

The P.-T. A. held a meeting in the school auditorium Friday evening. Two selections were given by the Jacksonville high school. A splendid lecture was given by Irving Vining on the most important period of a child's development. The meeting was closed by two vocal solos sung by Mrs. John R. Knight, accompanied by Mrs. George Wendt at the piano. A candy and pie sale was held following the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Orin Stanwood and son, Carl, were visiting at the home of Mr. Stanwood's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Stanwood, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Vogle and sons, Marion and Clair, were visitors at the Leonard McKee ranch on Big Applegate Sunday.

T. C. Norris and wife and son, W. T. Norris, attended the Christian church in Medford Sunday and were dinner guests at the home of R. H. Caldwell on Beal lane.

Mrs. C. W. Lewis and son, Phelps, and daughters, Thelma and Arleen, of Klamath county, were week-end visitors at the Eric White home.

T. E. Dunnington, wife and son, Tommy, were Medford visitors Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Pick and Mrs. Frank Seaberry attended the county P.-T. A. meeting at Ashland Saturday.

A large crowd attended the dance given by the Jacksonville chamber of commerce Saturday night. A good time was reported. They are giving another dance two weeks from that date. Be sure to come.

Mrs. Fred Pick's many friends were very pleased to learn that she won the prize for the best angel food cake exhibited at the cooking school at the army Friday.

Curley Wilson and wife arrived here by auto from Los Angeles, where Mr. Wilson has had medical treatment. They will rest for a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wilson, then go on to their home in Spokane, Wash.

Ora and Ernest Phillips of Squaw lake left for Klamath Sunday to work in the pine Beetle camp.

Horace Venable was a dinner guest at the E. E. Dunnington home Sunday.

David Gannon left Saturday for Algoma, where he has employment in a mill.

FOOTS CREEK GIRL SCOUTS' MEET IS HELD ROSE HOME

FOOTS CREEK, Ore., April 24. (Special)—Miss Margaret Bates was obliged to be absent from the scout meeting last Saturday afternoon because she sprained her wrist as she slipped off a ladder.

The meeting was held at the Rose home. The girls enjoyed a treat of marshmallows and toasted waffles. The previous meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Bates and Mrs. Bates served the girls a lovely dinner. The next meeting will be held at the school house as usual.

Mrs. Earl Smith, teacher of the Young People's class, was obliged to be absent last Sunday because of illness.

Our old friend Donald Elliot was with us last Sunday. He is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Chas. Wahl. He never fails to meet at Sunday school when he is here. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elliot, his parents, are now in Portland. They are leaving their camp at Yreka for a new location.

The annual school dinner will be held on May 3. A special program will be given before noon. Everyone in the district is expected to come and bring a basket dinner.

Miss Mary Smith spent Monday night with Mrs. Dale Norton. D. H. Perry is now clearing the muddy water thru a pipe clear to the head of the rock piles. As it washes back down thru the rocks most of the mud settles among the rocks. The water then continues on down fairly clear.

John Short traded his Chevrolet coach for a Chevrolet truck this week.

Announcing New Features that create even Higher Standards in PLYMOUTH Performance, Comfort & Quality

CHRYSLER MOTORS PRODUCT
This is Plymouth's National Display and Demonstration Week

PLYMOUTH now shows the public something new and altogether beyond comparison in performance, comfort and quality.

Today's improved Plymouth has a much heavier crankshaft; much larger main bearings and connecting rods; a full-pressure lubricating system of new design—and other Chrysler advancements that have a brilliant new effect on Plymouth performance.

In addition, rubber-insulated engine mountings, silerome exhaust valves, aluminum alloy pistons, body impulse neutralizer and other advanced features contribute toward making Plymouth so delightfully smooth at all speeds

IMPORTANT NEW FEATURES

- Increased Engine Stroke and piston displacement range.
- Heavier Crankshaft.
- Larger Main Bearings and Connecting Rods.
- New Design Full-Pressure Lubricating System.
- Improved Steering Mechanism.
- Greater Economy of operation and upkeep.
- New Self-Conforming seat cushions.
- New Spring Colors—and a number of other highly scientific Chrysler engineering refinements.

Already famous for comfort, the full-size Plymouth is now more comfortable than ever. Its wide, deep seats with self-conforming cushions of a new type give you "easy-chair" repose.

Plymouth radiates the charm of new Springtime colors that enhance its crisp smartness of line.

The obviously greater quality and value of the improved Plymouth are apparent in every phase of its appearance and behavior—in its greater interior roominess and comfort—in its greater economy of operation—and in its greater stamina and long life.

Equally obvious is the greater safety of Plymouth—made certain by full-size

Chrysler weatherproof internal-expanding hydraulic brakes on all four wheels.

This is Plymouth's National Display and Demonstration Week. Make it a point this week to examine and drive the improved Plymouth. It will be well worth your time.
