

JAMES ORMANDY OF S. P. HERE FOR SHRINE CEREMONY

A welcome visitor in Medford to attend the Shrine doling, and also to look over affairs of the city and valley in general is James A. Ormandy of Portland, assistant general passenger traffic manager of the Southern Pacific company.

Mr. Ormandy in discussing the outlook for summer and fall travel to California and Oregon, to and thru Medford, said that all indications are that this travel from the east and other parts of the United States will be record breaking.

Oregon in its wake. Other indications are the large number of conventions booked for Portland.

PHOENIX SENIORS PLAY MAY THIRD

"Ted Drops In," a three-act comedy of laughs and thrills, by Eugene Hafer, will be presented in the Phoenix auditorium Friday, May 3.

The green city lads, Ted Laning and his chum, Lonnie Cramer, drop in on a Maple Point farm, disguised as farmers.

Other members of the cast are: Judy, the colored cook; Joe Kane, the black-headed villain; Winnie Carlton, Betty's sister; Sally Bai-ten, a coy neighbor girl, and Charley Crowder, a neighbor boy.

ASHLAND TO SEE 'THE DOVER ROAD'

The Studio Players, who presented their first production last Thursday and Friday nights at the local theatre to capacity houses, have been invited to take their play to Ashland.

A number of local organizations have asked to sponsor the little theatre group, since seeing the splendid work they did in "The Dover Road," but no definite arrangements have been agreed upon as yet.
