Mrs. Bandisch returned home to find a large group of friends waiting her. Music, games and singing were the diversions of the evening. Misses Kathryn and Janice Bailey furnished two vocal duets with Mrs. Bailey at the piano. Joe Gregory gave a saxophone solo, with Miss Jones at the piano. Hugh Gilmore delighted with a vocal solo.

Following the program refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. With a few well chosen words, Rev. C. A. Dunham presented Mrs. Bandisch with a large box filled with gifts from her friends.

Those who enjoyed this happy event were Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Dunham, Mr. and Mrs. V. O. N. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Peters, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Peters, Mrs. Jennie Gregory, Mrs. V. D. A number of neighborhood young folks as well as some from Ashland have received invitations.

The Upper Valley Community club ladies are busy making arrangements for their dinner on Friday evening, May 3, when the Kiwanis club members and their ladies are having the club ladies' social with a chicken dinner at 6:30 in the club house.

The Kiwanians have provided their own program and amusement for the evening. The money derived from this dinner will be applied toward buying new chairs for the club rooms. Of course the proceeds from this affair will only supply a small amount toward the number of chairs which will be needed to seat a hundred persons. A number of times dinners and other entertainments have been postponed on account of the lack of seats, available in the club rooms.

The ladies are looking forward to a number of social events in the near future that will help swell the club funds, so that other furnishings may be secured.
