

GLENDALE WILL BE MECCA FOR LOCAL CARAVAN

Medford Crater Club and Chamber of Commerce Sponsor Delegation to Mill Celebration — More Asked to Make Trip.

Glendale will be the scene of a big celebration tomorrow, May 1st in honor of the formal opening of the new Glendale Lumber Co. mill. The town will be crowded with visitors from all parts of southern Oregon to see the new mill in operation and to take in the various events on the day's program.

Roseburg merchants are closing their stores all day in order to attend and the Roseburg schools will also close.

A special train will carry the big delegation which will include the Umpqua post Legion drum corps and the Roseburg concert band.

Grants Pass is planning to send a large representation with over 100 cars in the caravan as well as the Yavemen, Cave Women and the Grants Pass band.

The Crater club of Medford and the chamber of commerce are sponsoring a Medford caravan to attend the celebration and to show the citizens of Glendale that Medford people recognize the importance of the new enterprise.

Several local business men have already signed up to go but if Medford is to make a real showing, there should be at least fifty more in the local delegation.

It is planned to leave the Chamber of Commerce building at 8 a. m. tomorrow morning. All those who participate should secure Medford badges and banners for their cars which will be provided by the chamber of commerce.

The caravan will arrive in plenty of time for the parade and will probably leave Glendale in time to return home for dinner tomorrow evening. Transportation will be provided for those unable to take their own cars.

The following is a program of the day's events:

11:00 a. m. Industrial parade, Glendale to mill.

11:30 a. m. Address of welcome, Dexter Rice. Inspection of mill under supervision of C. A. Thomas, superintendent.

12:30 p. m. Lunch, Band concert, Grants Pass band.

1:30 p. m. Entertainment program, Grants Pass Cave Ladies. Address by George Neuner. Address by representative of S. P. Co. Grants Pass Sunshine Girls. Drill by Roseburg post American Legion.

2:30 p. m. Sports: Log rolling contest, log bucking contest, pole walk, coin grab for boys under 12 years, tug of war.

3:15 p. m. At school grounds: May Pole dance, races, ball game.

5:30 p. m. Street carnival under supervision of Roseburg and Grants Pass Legion posts. Band concert.

8:30 p. m. Grand ball. Picture show at the Auditorium after midnight.

LOCAL MUSICIAN'S COMPOSITION FOR COPCO RADIO HOUR

An attractive program of pipe organ music has been arranged for Miss Betty Brown for the Copco request recital this evening from 8 to 10 p. m. So many requests were received that it will not be possible to give them all in this time, but the remainder will be held over until a later date. Miss Brown will be assisted by Miss Mildred Knight, mezzo-soprano, who will sing two vocal selections, "Trees," by Hasbach and "At Sunset" by La Mar. The last number is of particular local interest as it was composed by Miss Gladys La Mar of this city and the words were written by Miss Betty Brown.

The detailed program follows: "Overture to Robinhood" DeKoven "Souvenir" Drdla "Narcissus" Nevin "Trees" Hasbach "At Sunset" La Mar "Napolitan Nights" Zamecnik "To a Wild Rose" MacDowell "The Palm" Faure "Spring Song" Mendelssohn "Where the shy Little Violets Grow" Kahn "Believe Me If All Those Evening Young Charms" La Mar "At Sunset" La Mar

Serenade from "The Student Prince" "Allah's Holiday" Fritzl March from Tannhauser Wagner

Card of Thanks. We wish to thank our many friends for their kindness and thoughtfulness in our recent bereavement in the death of our beloved husband and father; also for the beautiful floral offerings. Lucy A. Lord, Mrs. W. Lünebeck, Mrs. C. Miller, Mrs. Walter Potts, Mrs. Coza Cribbins, Arthur Lord.

BUSINESS MEN TO DISCUSS AUTO TRAFFIC PLAN

The joint meeting of business men, city officials and members of the planning commission to reach an agreement on details of the new tentative ordinance to regulate traffic in the business district, prepared by the city planning commission after months of study of the question and to be submitted by them to the city council for passage, was attended by twenty of the leading business men of the city at the Chamber of Commerce building last night, and lasted until a late hour.

In general, after a thorough discussion and after hearing about the questionnaire conducted by Bernard Roberts of the planning commission with 13 commercial organizations of as many Pacific coast cities as to the way each handled the traffic question, the proposed new ordinance was approved by the business men here last night, with but a few exceptions.

The local business men present desire the extension of the restricted traffic area to also take in more of the streets in the business district. Sentiment was divided on the double parking question, as to whether the present ordinance which prohibits double parking except when some one remains in the seat, or as to whether double parking should be prohibited altogether.

The business men also desire that the present forbidding of parking cars after 5 p. m. be changed in the new ordinance to on Saturday nights have a parking limit of 9 p. m., and on other days of 8 p. m., instead of 5 p. m. The business men also recommended that additional traffic officers be appointed, and that the present parking limit of one hour be retained, instead of changed as to one-half hour, as the tentative ordinance provided.

The city council street committee and city attorney will embody the recommendations into the new ordinance, and probably pass it a week from tonight.

APPEAL OF NORMA SHOWN AT RIALTO

It has been many months since a Norma Talmadge film story has been in Medford, but this popular and beautiful star has lost none of her great appeal and none of her screen dramatic powers is well attested by her long and successful career. Her latest performance in the very interesting silent screen drama, "The Woman Disputed," which opened last night and which will be shown again tonight and tomorrow afternoon and night.

The fact that one of the most laughable "Our Gang" comedies ever seen preceded the heart-throbbing, sensational drama made the appearance of long absent Norma and her excellent acting all the more welcome and appreciated by her many local fans.

Never were her appeal and emotionalism seen to better advantage than in "The Woman Disputed." The big love story, in its sordid, continental settings, fairly thrills the audience with its novelty, tenderness, sacrifice and tragedy—men as well as women fans.

The fair Norma is such an excellent actress that she forsakes her usual type of playing the aristocratic good woman, and in this unusual story takes the role of a young, young and penniless woman of the streets, who is redeemed through the kindness of two young Austrian and Russian army officers. Intimate friends who save her from being framed on a murder charge by the Austrian police, with the ultimate result that both the officers fall in love with her. Then the world war breaks out and the rival lovers are called to duty on opposite sides. More tragic events follow fast to cloud the life of the young woman, who, although engaged to the Austrian officer, in the name of sacrificial patriotism, falls the prey to the brutality of the immoral Russian officer. Then comes the big unexpected climax.

It is a great screen drama, full of sadness, thrills and at times relieving, enjoyable comedy. A splendid company supports Miss Talmadge.—(R. A. K.)

PREPARE FOR TAX RUSH THIS WEEK

With several hundred thousand dollars yet to be received for payment for the first half of the 1928 taxes, the sheriff's office has completed preparations for the big rush expected this week before taxes become delinquent May 5. To escape the penalty for delinquent payments, taxes must be paid over the counter at the tax department in the sheriff's office or be in the mail before midnight Sunday. The office will not stay open after hours to accommodate the late comers and beginning Monday the usual penalty will be enforced.

LUMBER MERCURY FOR BUSINESS IS VIEW OF EXPERT

The lack of prosperity in the lumber industry has a damaging effect on every other line of business throughout the entire northwest, according to George Pierson of Bend, Oregon, principal speaker at the Rotary club luncheon today, who has a 32 year record of experience in the lumber business; his credit, and who spent the past 12 or 15 years pursuing intensive investigation work in the interest of this industry.

Mr. Pierson showed how in the 10 year period from 1916 to 1926, there was a seven percent loss in lumber consumption, in spite of the fact that there had been a tremendous increase in both population and in building. He attributed the fact largely to the use of substitutes for lumber, as in the case of the manufacture of boxes. That these substitutes were always inferior, and resulted in damages and losses running far into the millions of dollars per year, were facts pointed out by Mr. Pierson and a group of workers in Bend, who advocated the return to the use of wooden boxes to the merchants association and other groups around Bend.

In less than two years, they were successful in getting the enthusiastic support of these bodies, until now, 80 per cent of all the goods shipped into Bend arrived in wooden boxes. This has resulted in added support to the large northwestern industry, and has reflected prosperity in all the other lines of business.

The Rotary club boy scouts, troop 9, were introduced to the organization this noon by W. L. Bricker, scout executive, who told something of their activities and aims. Lavonne Dunford, Eagle scout of the troop, was given special credit for his faithfulness to duty and his skill in the more advanced tasks of scouting. Others in the troop include: Bolly Barnum, Harold Williams, Herbert Harper, Marion Littrell, Stanley Hansen, William Walker and George Oliver.

The boys were extended a cordial greeting by Attorney Frank Newman, who assured them the support and interest of their sponsoring organization.

Gladys LaMar contributed the musical portion of the program, with a group of clever blues songs. Each selection was more enthusiastically received than the one preceding, and the local singer ended his final encore amidst prolonged applause. George Hunt was in charge of the program for today.

S. O. S. MOVES IN NEW OFFICE ON PLANT SITE

The Southern Oregon Sales, Inc., moved into their new offices today at the site of their new packing and pre-cooling plant at Stewart avenue and Pacific highway, now under construction. All business of the firm will be conducted in the future at the new quarters.

The new office gives more room for the large office force.

Work on the packing plant is progressing rapidly and it will be completed and ready for operations by July 1.

TRY PREACHER AGAIN FOR LABELING K. OF C.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 30.—(AP)—The second trial of the Rev. R. P. Shuler on charges of libeling the Knights of Columbus by publishing a false oath of the order, was opened in municipal court. Shuler's first trial ended in a disagreement.

FLAPPER AGENTS USE PERSISTENCE FOR SUBSCRIBERS

With the arrival of spring comes the usual appearance of young college girls on a tour of the west, gathering magazine subscriptions to a trip around the world, or a "course in the Roman academy of art in Rome," and yesterday was their day in Medford, with five, under the guidance of a married couple, soliciting in the business section.

One bright-eyed young woman, who claimed she was from Atlanta, Georgia, and had the characteristic southern drawl to back up her claim, called at the Mail Tribune and spent most of the afternoon in a vain effort to sell her wares. Her sales talk may have passed a standard test, but her technique was terrible. She would have won a prize for persistence and insistence and would have won grand prize for inconsistency.

She backed prospective subscribers into corners, filled out orders and then demanded the money, first in a businesslike tone, followed by a coaxing voice and then by pleading. She declared if she did not obtain a sufficient number of subscriptions the manager of the crew would send her back to Atlanta—she couldn't go back for she had no money and feared to travel alone. She used every argument that could be supplied in a college salesmanship course, and when she failed, she invariably told the prospect she was a "cheap sport who probably could not read anyway."

The party only stayed here yesterday afternoon and today is probably in Grants Pass or other points north.

STEVENS RETURNS FOR FEW WEEKS VACATION

James Stevens, popular local singer, who left Medford last year to accept an engagement in summer opera in Portland, and has since that time maintained a vocal studio in the northern city, arrived in Medford by stage last night for a few weeks' rest and recuperation. Mr. Stevens, who is just recovering from the flu, has also undergone a trying piece of dental surgery, which has temporarily impaired his health.

The singer was met by a large party of local friends last night and taken to the home of Mrs. Stevens' mother, Mrs. William Andrews, 115 North Oakdale, where he will remain for the next few weeks.

RAPLH HAND WILL MEET JACK WOOD HERE NEXT MONTH

Another big I. O. O. F. grand lodge committee benefit wrestling smoker next month at the armory will mark the return of a former well known southern Oregon wrestler to Medford when Ralph Hand of Yakima, Wash., will meet the local pride, Sailor Jack Wood in a finish match. Neither of these two men have met for sometime and in their last match, held at Gold Hill, Hand was defeated when an attempted airplane spin reversed on him, with Wood pinning his shoulders to the mat.

Hand had been wrestling more or less in Washington and is in good trim for Wood, who is also in good training.

Efforts are being made to include a good boxing number on the same card, probably a bout between Jackie McCly of Seattle, who showed up so well with Austin Rosander at the armory last night, and Red Sorenson of Central Point, who made short work of Eddie Welch in a four round preliminary.

In Sorenson, Sailor Jack believes he has found one of the best fighters in southern Oregon for sometime, and a good match for McCly. When Red fought Welch last night, he was not in the best condition, but despite that fact had no trouble in giving the local man the knockout blow.

As is generally known, the Central Point man is an ex-army champion of New York state and New Jersey, having defeated dozens of would be army champs. This was Sorenson's first fight since leaving the army.

EDMISTON BEATS STOEHR ON COURT

Jim Edmiston, Jr., defeated Al Stoehr in straight sets Monday afternoon for the high school tennis championship at the high school tennis courts. The score was 6-4, 6-4, 6-2. Silver cups donated by the C. & E. Fruit company and Lampert's will be presented to the winner and runner-up.

Edmiston played heavy tennis and his style and speed gave him a decided edge. He had a baffling low lob.

The Medford high players are now ranked as follows: No. 1, Jimmy Edmiston; No. 2, Al Stoehr; No. 3, Bill Bowerman; No. 4, Benie Conrad; No. 5, Harry Gardfield; No. 6, Allan Carle; No. 7, John Moras.

Under the direction of Coach Al Tolofson the local high players will start drill this afternoon for the annual spring games with Ashland, Grants Pass, Albany, Salem and the two Eugene high schools.

Has Nail in Lung
OMAHA, Neb., April 30.—(AP)—John Lambert will always remember the dynamite explosion at Scribner, Neb., in which six men were killed, for all the rest of his life he will carry a nail imbedded in his left lung just over the heart. Doctors after studying his case two weeks have decided not to remove the nail.

Spring Salad Suggestion No. 5

Little Yellow Tomatoes (skinned), chopped Dates, Cream, cheese balls, Crisp dry lettuce . . . and, of course, French Dressing made with Wesson Oil.

The smartest and most piquant French Dressings are those which you create yourself, out of your own imagination.

Two parts Wesson Oil, one part lemon juice or vinegar, salt and pepper—then whatever your fancy dictates: for instance, tomato ketchup, a little strained honey, chopped pimientos and a dash of Worcestershire. Paprika, of course, for color. You can get as much variety as you please.

There's a Wesson Oil recipe book which contains eighteen different varieties of French Dressing. If you would like us to send you a copy, just address the Wesson Oil and Snowdrift People, 112 Market St., San Francisco, California.
