

EVANGELIST WILL CONDUCT SERVICE IN JACKSONVILLE

JACKSONVILLE, Ore., May 1.—(Special)—Mrs. Kirkpatrick, evangelist, recently from Albuquerque, N. M., is visiting in Jacksonville. She is the pastor of the Union church in Lincoln, Oregon. Mrs. Kirkpatrick is thinking of holding a protracted meeting here and is working on the same. She hopes for the support of Jacksonville people. She expects to give the exact date soon.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick is better known as the cow-girl preacher, having spent most of her life on a New Mexico cattle ranch. She is well known and loved by many, both in Ashland and Lincoln, Oregon. Although Mrs. Kirkpatrick is young she is said to be a good speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. John Perroll and son, Junior, of Applegate, were callers at Miss Leslie McCully's home Sunday afternoon.

J. J. Vial of Phoenix is spending the week at the home of his daughter, Mrs. G. O. Sanden.

Mrs. George Maxwell received a message Monday of her father, M. P. Scholl's serious illness at his home in West Newton, Penn. Mr. Scholl spent several weeks here and will be remembered by his many friends.

George Maxwell transacted business in Medford Tuesday afternoon.

The worthy matron of Adaral chapter No. 2, O. E. S., and the past matrons were guests of Alpha Chapter No. 1, of Ashland Tuesday evening.

The Jacksonville Bridge club was delightfully entertained Monday night at the home of Mrs. E. S. Wilson. Three tables of bridge were in play. Mrs. Harold Crump received the prize for high score and Mrs. Y. T. Wilson the consolation prize. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. John R. Knight.

Mrs. John Norris, who has been ill at her home for a few days, is much improved.

Marion Smith and Roland Merfield motored to Grants Pass Monday evening.

Jacksonville school won 4th place in the track meet Saturday. A number of parents attended, assisting to take the school children over. The school has also taken a load of children.

Fred Fick and Emil Britt attended the Shriner's ceremonial held at Medford Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Wilson started for their home in Spokane, Wn., after a week's stay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wilson.

Mrs. Mattie Wilson, who has been suffering from an attack of "quinsy" for the past week, was able to return to her work Tuesday.

Mrs. Arthur Lewis entertained the R. N. A. Sewing club Wednesday afternoon at her home.

Mrs. Williams, who has been staying with Mrs. Gallupe, returned to her home in Medford at the end of the week. Mrs. W. H. Bell is assisting Mrs. Gallupe, until her further recovery.

Mrs. Frank Tou Velle was called to Ohio recently by the illness of her brother. Mr. Tou Velle heard from her Monday saying he was much improved.

Reviews of the SCREEN

At Hunt's Criterion Texas Guinan's celebrated New York night club will be shown in the all-talking picture "Queen of the Night Clubs," in which the famous hostess is starred at Hunt's Criterion theatre today.

Constructed along the same plan as the Guinan's cabaret, the scenes in this sensational production are startlingly realistic. A large dance orchestra, many notable scores of pretty girls dancing, and Texas Guinan, herself as the fascinating hostess in charge of all activities.

Texas Guinan, who was the original two-part of the movie, makes the change from night club gaiety to the gayer talkies with characteristic abandon. "It's a new field for the girl friend" she says, "and she needs a big hand!"

At the Hiatio "Blue Skies" is the attraction which opens tomorrow at the Hiatio theatre. It is a delightful drama. Twelveteens, an actress of unusual ability, and Frank Albertson, a talented juvenile, are featured and their support includes two child players, Freddie Frederick and Carmelita Johnson.

Besides these, 100 or more extras, kiddies of all sizes, appear. Life in an orphanage furnishes the background. A splendid cast supports the principals, including Ethel Wales, whose portrayal of the severe, but well-meaning matron is outstanding.

At the Isis Tonight The civil war in the home for the use of the family car (which is waged nightly in most American homes) offers some lively moments in "Walking Back" at the Isis theatre. The "Thatchers," a one-car family, are portrayed by Richard Walling, as the son; Robert Edson, the father and Jane Keckley, the mother.

Others in the cast are Sue Carol, Ivan Lebedeff, James Bradbury, Sr., Florence Turner and Arthur Rankin.
