

MOTHERS GUESTS BUSINESS WOMEN AT CHURCH MEET

The Business and Professional Women's club played hostess to the mothers of its local members last night, when nearly 60 mothers and daughters gathered at the Presbyterian church parlors at 8 o'clock, to enjoy a meeting and program.

Greetings to the mothers were extended by Carlisle Elliott, president, assisted by a group of other members who read appropriate Mother's day selections. A response was given by Mrs. H. N. Butler.

Other entertainment features were two vocal solos, "Little Mother of Mine" and "The Doe Skin Blanket," sung by Florence Hazelrigg McElhose, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. H. E. Marsh. A reading from "Polly of the Circus" was given by Miss E. A. Nichols.

Election of officers for the ensuing year developed the following results: President, Mrs. Maude Chapman; vice-president, Suzanne Himes Carter; treasurer, Jacques Lennox; corresponding secretary, Margaret Morrison and auditor, Jane McQuat. Carlisle Elliott, retiring president, and Mildred Knight, were elected directors.

Announcements concerning the health unit program, were made by Mrs. R. E. Green and Miss Elizabeth Burr, who urged a 100 per cent membership in the Jackson County Health association by the Business and Professional Women's club.

The state convention of the B. and P. Women's club will be held at Eugene May 25. Those expecting to attend are asked to notify Adrienne Steward, chairman of the convention committee.

BIBLE SCHOOL TO OPEN MAY 20TH AT REESE CREEK

RESE CREEK, Ore., May 8.—(Special)—It was voted to hold a daily vacation Bible school for two weeks beginning May 20 and closing June 1. These sessions begin each day at 9 o'clock and close at noon, giving plenty of time for study in the Word of God. The work is non-sectarian, giving a general knowledge of the Bible so essential to a child's future, and free to all. There will be two teachers in charge of the work. Prizes will be given for regular attendance and points gained.

Mrs. James Merritt, called on Mrs. Charles L. Cummins last Saturday. The Merritts are former members of the Reese Creek Sunday school.

There will be a P.-T. A. meeting at the school house today.

A program will be given Friday night, May 10, at the school house by the pupils. The public is welcome.

Miss Cora Crandall expects to leave this week for Los Angeles, Cal. She bid her many friends in class at Sunday school good bye last Sunday, where she has attended regularly for a long time. She will be greatly missed, and while she is undecided as to where she will make her future home, it is hoped she will choose to return here.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Seaman's children, Patsy and Russell, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Hallick Hall.

A lovely rain was greatly appreciated in this section last Saturday, the 4th. There were many out to Sunday school last Sunday to learn what Hilkiah found in the temple, which proved to be the Word of God. Come and let us get better acquainted with the old book our mother loved so well. Next Sunday is Mother's day and we will be thinking of her. It will please her if we go to church. If your mother is living near a red flower, if not a white one, in honor of your best friend. The lesson for this Sunday, May 12, is on the call ministry of Jeremiah. "We ought to obey God rather than men" is the golden text.

W. C. T. U. MOTHERS PROGRAM THURSDAY

The W. C. T. U. will observe Mother's Day with an interesting program at the Y. W. C. A. Thursday at 2:30. Mesdames C. H. Paske, R. Doran and A. E. Laganon will be heard in duets and solos. Mrs. Garmen E. Mell is to speak on "Present Day Mothers."

Readings and talks on topics appropriate to "Mother's Day" will be given by members of the union. Mother's creed and prayer, Mrs. J. E. McDonald, program leader; Mrs. C. Woods. Reception hostess, Mrs. Raymond Doran. Refreshment committee, Mrs. John Hlass, Mrs. Roy Sipes. A silver offering will be received to aid the work of the union. All are welcome.

Rescue Japanese Boy SALEM, Ore., May 8.—(Special)—An unidentified Japanese boy about eight years old was rescued from drowning in the Salem mill race by two Willamette university baseball players late yesterday. The boy had fallen into the race and was about to float under a bridge when the two students, Carlton Roth and Ray Suing, ran into the stream and pulled him out.

"True Heaven" Rialto Thursday

"True Heaven," which comes to the Rialto theater tomorrow, is a story of the late conflict of nations, however there is no scene in the picture which brings the character of the play nor the evolution of the story to the battle front.

It shows that teeming drama came out of the war, real human drama, as embodied in this story of a young British officer and a mysterious young girl, known only as "Judith."

Miles from the fighting front this youth and girl meet, under strange circumstances, the youth falls in love with her, only to discover that she is an enemy spy and that his life is in her hands. Torn between love and patriotism, the girl has to make a hurried decision—and she does.

George O'Brien and Lois Moran are co-featured in this human drama.

Comedy, Pathos at Isis Tonight

ported by Louis Wolheim. The picture deals with a derelict father who sacrifices his life for the son, from whom he is compelled to hide his identity. Instilled in the boy is the memory of a father whom he believed to have been a great hero and an ambition to emulate him as a soldier. How the father protects this boy and helps him toward his goal results in a picture that reaches the highest dramatic heights and offers ample opportunity for comedy touches, bringing many laughs.
