

FEEDER ROAD IS SOUGHT ON SAMS VALLEY HIGHWAY

Residents of the district east of Central Point have requested the county court to build a "feeder" road to connect with the Medford-Sams Valley highway. The territory lies between Central Point and the Sams Valley-Medford highway and produces a heavy tonnage. Miss Marian Hamrick leads the movement for the road, and gave the county court a list of property owners for and against the road. Several offered to donate a 25-foot strip of land for the road. It would eradicate a row of trees on the Paul Scherer place.

The county court promised to send out a surveyor, to "line out" the proposed road. A delegation of beekeepers called upon the county clerk, regarding the enforcement of the bee inspection law. The inspector said that "some of the beekeepers laughed at him," when he told them to clean their hives. He was instructed to report to the district attorney, on such occasions. The court announced its intention of enforcing the law.

The remainder of the county court session was devoted largely to routine matters and approval of bills.

PRIZED AIREDALE RUN IN BY DOG CATCHER

Included in the daily catch of the city dog catcher this forenoon was none other than Jerry, prized Airedale of Mrs. Lyda King, county nurse, who was picked up near his owner's home on Quince street and carted off to the city pound on North Riverside Avenue. However, the dog catcher had hardly arrived at the pound before Mrs. King was there also to retrieve Jerry, but before she arrived, the dog catcher had disappeared, and up until this afternoon she was still searching for him, endeavoring to learn why he had taken the dog practically from within the confines of her yard.

HILL LINE PLANS FOR COAST BASE IN RUMOR GRIST

Reports of Hill line activity, to reach the north coast of California by a line down the Klamath river from Klamath Falls, has brought forth the usual spring rumors of rail activity in southern Oregon, duly chronicled in the Portland Journal of recent date, as such. The article conjectures that the Southern Pacific, as a counter move, might extend its present terminus from Powers, Ore., to Eureka, Cal., to connect with the Northwestern railroad, or, as the article notes, "some say from Grants Pass to Crescent City, then down the coast to Eureka."

The article further says: "The Hill lines, it may be recalled, spent some $2,500,000 some years ago in developments in and around Klamath Falls and Medford in the building of the present Medford & Logging line and other work, it having been the original intention of James J. Hill, it was understood, to build eventually from Bend to Medford and thence to the coast.

With Ralph Budd admittedly stepping along in the Hill boots, it may be, the observers say, that the Southern Pacific is going to make some moves of its own before it is too late. In either event the situation would give the Southern Pacific virtually a second main line south to accommodate new business that might be developed in the large stands of virgin timber and in mineral, horticultural and agricultural resources of vast potentiality in the section between the present Shasta route and the coast. The Southern Pacific has for some time been offering combination rail and motor coach passage from Grants Pass to San Francisco via Crescent City.

LIONS NOMINATE CANDIDATES FOR JUNE ELECTIONS

H. T. Hubbard was nominated president of the Lions club for the ensuing year at today's meeting. M. B. Jarmin was nominated first vice-president; Charles Keames, second vice-president; Verne Shaugle, secretary; Ernest Scott, lion tamer; Earl Davis, tall wister; D. G. Tyree, district counselor; and L. D. Inskeep, R. V. Williams and Emerson Merrick, directors.

The election will take place at the first meeting in June. As there is just one candidate for each office, the election will be but a matter of form at that time unless other candidates are entered during the interim. Miss Melba Williams, supervisor of music at the junior high school, furnished the musical program for the Lions club luncheon, and presented her boys' harmonica quartet in a group of well received selections. They included "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," "Head Dem elis," "There's a Rainbow Round My Shoulder" and "Sweet and Low." Scout Executive W. L. Bricker and J. D. Russell presented their plan for furnishing the boys of the local council unable to purchase their own uniforms a means of earning their own uniforms.

The casket and surrounding tables and stands were banked high with floral tributes sent by friends and local civic and fraternal groups who had known and admired the deceased. Members of the Eagles lodge were chosen as active pallbearers, while the honorary pallbearers included George Watson, Roy Brown, Major M. M. Morris, Frank Edwards, Aubrey Dean and Carl Rhoten. The long funeral procession proceeded to the Jacksonville cemetery, where Father Hamilton read final services of the church.

FRONT STREET BITTER BARS HIT BY RAIDS

As the result of a carefully planned dry raid campaign, led by federal officers, nearly 20 arrests have been made in and near Medford since Monday, with the possibility of more this week. The raids began Monday afternoon in the Forest Creek section with the arrest of six local men, three of whom are proprietors of soft drink establishments on Front street.

It is possible the federal government may institute padlock proceedings against the Idle Hour, Estes and Pastime pool halls on grounds of being public nuisances. Rankin Estes, Phil Rinehart, proprietor of the Pastime, W. Taylor, bartender, and Archie Sutherland and Harold Sutherland of the Idle Hour, are accused of selling bitters by the drink and for beverage purposes.

Taylor and Harold Sutherland are in the county jail and the others are at liberty pending preliminary hearings scheduled to be held this afternoon.

The sale of bitters and other medicines containing alcohol in small quantities as stimulants is prohibited by federal law and in the state is prohibited as the result of the recent passage of a law restricting the sale by only licensed drug stores. Mrs. Jane Wolgamott, a woman of 56 years, was arrested on East Main street this forenoon on a warrant alleging sale, and she will have a hearing today or tomorrow. Ray Sargent was arrested in the Griffin Creek section on a warrant alleging sale, and he has been released on his own recognizance, pending hearing. The release was ordered in view of his sick wife demanding his attention at home. Yesterday Dewey Akers was arrested at Phoenix on a warrant sworn on a sales charge. His was the first arrest of the afternoon, and was followed by the arrest of Joe Mayham at Eagle Point on a similar charge. Coming to Medford, Eddie Keeler and Sam McClendon were arrested on charges of sale. The same charge also caused the arrest of A. E. Carpenter at a local auto camp. Carpenter is alleged to have been selling liquor from the same cabin where Ted McCray was arrested last week for selling Officer Talent three pints of gin.

Arrested by the police, Wenton Keeler, brother of Eddie Keeler, and R. E. Burns, were sentenced Monday in justice court on license charges to terms in the county jail. Fred Knox, arrested Saturday for possession of home brew, was fined $50 in justice court.

When they appeared for arraignment yesterday afternoon on charges of possession of moonshine, George Wolf was given until today to plead, as were the three others, E. G. Spohr, Aulo King and George Reed. Wolf's bail was set at $1000, while $750 each was the bail set for his three alleged partners. Officers say they found 40 gallons of alleged moonshine on the Wolf place at Forest Creek, with 15 gallons found under a woodpile and other jars found hidden under bushes. It is possible Wolf may be turned over to federal authorities. Evidence for the warrants was obtained by two federal undercover men who allege they made purchases from the the different defendants.

DRUM CORPS ASKED TO ROSE FESTIVAL

S. C. Pier of Portland arrived in the city today to confer with local civic groups and arouse interest in the annual rose festival at Portland this year. That he has found willing cooperation and enthusiasm over the flower show was a statement made by the Portland man, who is making a tour of southern Oregon on this work. Numerous organizations from the various cities have offered to enter floats in the parade, and wherever possible Mr. Pier has enlisted the support of the American Legion posts to the extent of sending their drum corps to assist in the celebration. Whether or not the Medford corps will enter the Portland show will be a matter to be decided at the next meeting of the group.

Myrna Loy Tells How To Have Lovely Skin

HOLLYWOOD, Calif.—Thirty-nine movie directors say that a girl must have exquisite skin if she is to touch the heart. As Howard Bretherton, director for Warner Brothers, forcefully expresses it: "The most appealing charm of all is a lovely smooth skin. And the perfection we call 'studio skin' is the outstanding factor in screen success today."

Myrna Loy, Warner Brothers' beautiful star, finds Lux Toilet Soap splendid for the smooth skin a screen star must have. "This white, daintily fragrant soap leaves my skin so beautifully smooth!" she says.

Nine out of every ten screen stars are enthusiastic about Lux Toilet Soap. And all the great film studios, following their stars' example, have made it the official soap for dressing rooms.
