HEAVY HITTING HELPS YANKS HOLD THE LEAD

Ruth Pummels Pill for Circuit With Two On—Bob Meusel Also Helps Cross Up Alvin Crowder—Pen-nock Looks Poor.

By William J. Chipman, Associated Press Sports Writer.
The Yankees are back home again, but only by the skin of their teeth the champions regained their old stamping grounds with just half a game to spare late yesterday as they shaded the Browns, 4 to 2, at Sportsman's park, while the White Sox were tumbling the Athletics, 4 to 2, in a surprising battle on the Chicago front. This combination of events left the Macks and the Browns in a virtual tie, but for second place rather than first.

The Rupert rifles fired a dozen volleys at young Alvin Crowder. The hardest was Babe Ruth's home run with two aboard in the fourth, but the most effective was Bob Meusel's pinch double in the ninth after the Babe had walked and Gehrig had singled.

Ruth's homer was his fifth, which placed him only one behind his pal, Gehrig. Bill Dickey also combed Mr. Crowder for all the bases in the fifth.

The other side of the picture, from a Yankee point of view, was Herbert Penneck's third failure in the box this season. The noted fox farmer cracked up in the sixth when four Brownie blows netted three runs and brought Wilky Moore to the rescue.

No team ever gained anything by losing a left arm like Penneck's, but the Yankees will remain at or near the top so long as they continue the fierce campaigning which has marked their last five games.

Benton noosed out Cleveland by 5 to 4 and Detroit shaded Washington by 3 to 2 in minor rashes along the American league front.

The Giants once more had to hit for four bases to score, and as a consequence the Pirates rushed off with the decision by 3 to 2 in their first engagement of the season at the Polo grounds. The Dues tied in the eighth and won in the tenth when Lloyd Waner doubled and Pie Traynor singled.

Larry Benton was the victim. Ray Schalk, managing the Giants in the absence of John Morhaw, permitted Benton to bat for himself with two out and the bases filled in the ninth, with the result that the sorrel-top raised a foul to Sheely. Still, some other pitcher might have given the Pirates half a dozen runs in the extra inning.

Young Larry French, the Portland Ore. southpaw, made his first big league start, and showed no timidity what ever in the face of Giant bats.

The Braves remained at the top by shacking the Cardinals, 8 to 5, in an eighth-inning rally.

The Cubs had no trouble with the Robins, winning by 9 to 4 and holding on within striking distance of Judge Fuchs' amazing team. Charlie Grimm lacked up Art Nehf's fine pitching with two home runs, and Riggs Stephenson hit one.

Frank O'Doul, the reformed pitcher, hit his fifth home run at Philadelphia, enabling the home team to defeat the Reds by 6 to 4.

WHERE LINDBERGH AND ANNE MAY WED

The Morrow summer home at North Haven, Me., one of the places mentioned as a possible choice for the wedding of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh and Anne Morrow.

ENGLEWOOD, N. J., May 8.—Prospects that the Morrow home here would be the scene of the marriage of Anne Morrow, daughter of the American ambassador to Mexico, and Charles A. Lindbergh, faded today with the announcement that the family would leave shortly for Maine, where the Morrow summer home is located.

KAYO IS FEATURE PORTLAND FIGHTS FOUR KISS FLOOR

PORTLAND, Ore., May 8.—Four out of the five bouts on last night's boxing program at the city auditorium ended in knockouts. In the main event, Willie Feldman, Brooklyn, N. Y., astonished the spectators by outfighting Homer Sheridan, Hollywood, to take a well-earned 10-round decision. In the second round a succession of rights to Sheridan's jaw almost had him on the floor, but the veteran battler weathered the round against his nimble youthful opponent. Sheridan weighed 139 1/2, Feldman 153 1/2.

Gene Hatch, Hood River, quit in the first round of the curtain raiser.

IDAHO TURNS ON OREGON STATERS

CORVALLIS, Ore., May 8.—Idaho evened the count with Oregon State in its two-game baseball series here yesterday, coming back to win, 8 to 5. Born Hafent led a rally for the Staters in the eighth with his second homer in two days, but ended with two runs.

EUGENE, Ore., May 8.—Washington State repeated here yesterday, taking its second Coast conference baseball game from the University of Oregon, 6 to 4. Oregon had the bases loaded three times during the game.

MAX SCHEMLING

NEW YORK.—Another dull season in heavyweight circles was avoided when the way was cleared for the long-sought bout between Max Schmeling and Paulino Uzcudun.

The fight is scheduled for the Yankee stadium the night of June 27 with 50 per cent of the profits going to the New York milk fund.

It is considered likely that the winner will be matched with Jack Sharkey in a title bout in New York in September.

BOBBY JONES TO HANG UP SHINGLE

ATLANTA, May 8.—Robert Tyre Jones, Jr., better known to golf fans as "Bobby" Jones, three times winner of the national amateur championship and twice holder of the national open title, was admitted to the bar in United States district court yesterday.

Bobby, who recently finished his law course at Emory university here, was introduced to Judge Samuel H. Sibley by a member of the law firm of his father, Robert P. Jones.

The youthful attorney is expected to lay aside his practice to compete in the national open championship and to defend his amateur laurels this summer.

Backache Bother You?

Too Often This Warns of Sluggish Kidneys.

DOES every day find you lame and aching—suffering nagging backache, headache and dizzy spells?

Are kidney excretions too frequent, scanty or burning in passage? These are often signs of sluggish kidneys and shouldn't be neglected.

To promote normal kidney action and assist your kidneys in cleansing your blood of poisonous wastes, use Doan's Pills. Recommended the world over. Ask your neighbor!

50,000 Users Endorse Doan's:

Mrs. Frances Wittman, 653 Miami Ave., Kansas City, Kan., says: "After a severe cold my kidneys acted irregularly. It often was necessary to get up at night, I urinated early and a dull ache across my back bothered me a lot. Doan's Pills had helped my mother so I began using them and now I feel as well as ever."
