

Coils in the Furnace for hot water are just as Old-fashioned for better complexion for prettier hair for softer hands for greater health for cleaner clothes for easier shaving for less work for economy for more leisure for all emergencies

HOTZONE
Self-Action Gas Water Heater

The modern Hotzone now purchasable with an initial payment of only five dollars, the coil idea is obsolete on two counts: it wastes too much costly coal and it delivers too little hot water at the right time and too much at the wrong time.

Order a Hotzone today and get rid of the costly coils.

THE WAY TO BEAUTIFUL HOMES

There's no more color-guesswork in house painting

Imagine this house painted light cream, trimmed with Carmel blue and its roof in silver gray. You can paint your house just as colorfully and harmoniously with the help of the B-H Exterior Color Harmony Selector which takes all the color guesswork out of painting.

The Selector shows shades of B-H brand Prepared Paint and Succo Coatings arranged according to the laws of color harmony. It will help you solve any exterior color problem, and B-H paints will last for years. Send our name and 10 cents to Bass-Hueter for this helpful Selector and its colorful companion booklet "Harmonious Exterior". Then see us for your paint

TALENT GRANGERS ANNIVERSARY HAS GOOD ATTENDANCE

(By Mrs. Marion Tryer)

TALENT, Ore., May 10.—(Special.) The Talent Grange celebrated its first birthday anniversary last Thursday evening. The Grange when organized a year ago had thirty charter members. It has steadily grown until it now has 169 members, and it has aroused so much interest that as many as twenty-six members have been taken in at one time.

The anniversary was celebrated with a fine birthday cake followed by a cake-walk.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Lowe were selected as alternate delegates to the state grange convention to be held at Marshfield in June.

Floyd Bell was selected to take charge of the grange exhibit at the county fair. George Carter was selected by the grange as a member of the county fair board at the last regular meeting. The first and second degrees were conferred on new members. The next regular meeting of the grange will be held May 17 at which time the third and fourth degrees will be conferred.

Prof. and Mrs. George Briscoe of Ashland spent Saturday afternoon at the Vagell home.

Mrs. Williams of Tillamook who has been visiting relatives in California spent the past couple of weeks with relatives on Wagner creek. Mrs. Williams was the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Robinson, and also spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. John Holson, leaving Sunday for home. She will visit in Roseburg, Yoncalla and Portland before reaching home.

H. H. Goddard returned Sunday morning from a seven weeks visit with relatives and friends in California. Mr. Goddard shortly before returning home sustained an injury to his hand by catching a bass on a hook. On his return he consulted a doctor and found the bone in his hand connecting the little finger had been broken, which the doctor set. He will be compelled to carry his hand in a sling for several weeks.

Wesley Vogeli was a business caller in Medford Saturday morning.

The Senior group of the Crater Lake Camp Fire Girls held their regular weekly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Lowe Monday evening.

H. S. Gleim passed away at his home on Wagner creek Monday morning. Mr. Gleim had been failing since the death of Mrs. Gleim on December 14, 1928. For the past two months he has been ill with pneumonia. Both Mr. and Mrs. Gleim were members of the Episcopal church at Ashland.

Funeral services in charge of the Perl funeral home, were held at the family home at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Interment took place in Stearns cemetery on Wagner creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Hotchkiss, Mr. and Mrs. Loys Hamilton and children, Harry Hamilton, Miss Peggy Hamilton, St. Stockwell of Medford and Earl Hamilton of Roseburg spent Sunday on Little Applegate at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton's daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Saltmarsh. Mr. and Mrs. Saltmarsh who were living with Mr. Saltmarsh's mother, Mrs. Dora Saltmarsh, when her home was burned, lost a good deal of their household goods at the time of the fire.

Mrs. E. E. Cook spent Friday afternoon a guest at the home of Mrs. Wesley Vogeli.

Mrs. Frank Sullinger and Mrs. Marion Tryer spent Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ed Borge.

W. M. Petri and son Elton and daughter Margaret called Sunday afternoon at the Canal ranch on Crater Lake highway.

Community club will meet next Wednesday afternoon. There will be election of officers at this time. A good attendance is requested.

Sir Stockwell, Miss Ada Haekler of Medford and Miss Anna Evans were guests Tuesday afternoon at the home of Miss Peggy Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Louise Brown, and daughter Elizabeth and son Russell were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Manning Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin McGrew spent Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Pellett at Klamath Junction.

Mrs. Archie Edmunson suffered a partial stroke of paralysis Sunday while attending church. She was reported somewhat better Wednesday evening.

WILLIAMS CREEK BOYS GAIN HONOR FOR CLUB LABOR

WILLIAMS CREEK, Ore., May 9.—(Special.) Mr. Howell, county agent, and assistant state club leader visited the Williams school Tuesday. Orest Luman and Stearle Vahrenwald were presented with achievement pins for their club work last year. Stearle also received a scholarship for the O. A. C. summer school. The Williams boys are very much interested in organizing a calf club.

Mrs. E. E. Wood was shopping in Grants Pass Tuesday. Chester Boat left Tuesday for Medford to take charge of the Will Gore ranch. Mrs. Boat and children will join him after school is out. Victor Sparlin is improving rapidly now. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Whisler are
