The Dawn Drinkers.
Bigger, Better, Prisons.
Airplane Photographs.
For Profit, Stocks, Not Wheat.

New York's speakasies have developed the "dawn dinners," men and women that sit all night drinking, sometimes watching strange sights. "Pop" Gallagher, who runs his little speakasy in West 48th street, and sends the profits to somebody higher up, describes the working of prohibition simply.

Eight dawn drinkers were in the back room at 7:15 a. m., when two men came in with Imogene, ordered "two beers and a Scotch," then drew pistols and held up the place. "Pop" made no fuss; he knows better. Policeman Burns, in civilian clothes, was less wise.

He was shot in the stomach and will probably die. There is nothing important in the story, no real news. New York's 32,000 speakasies are always picturesque and busy.

The interest is "Pop" Gallagher's frankness. Did he run a speakasy? Sure; what else would he run?

Judge Sibley, of the federal court, tells Atlanta reporters that to apply the Jones law to all offenders would be out of the question. Many bigger and better jails would be needed if that were done.

The judge sentences all prohibition offenders to jail. If he thinks they deserve it. "I sentence hundreds of defendants to the government prison each year. If all violators coming under the Jones law were sent there, there would be no place to put them."

It is easier to make laws than to make them work.

Photographs and scientific observations were made of the sun's eclipse from Hoilo Island under good conditions.

The United States naval observatory expedition took photographs from the ground, and from airplanes 5000 and 10,000 feet up.

BRITISHERS HAL HAGEN AS WIZARD

Experts at Loss to Describe Fourth Victory in Open—'Adversity Spurs Him On,' Says Sport Writer—Some Lament British Downfall in View of Ryder Victory.

Average is 296 1/4
Walter Hagen has averaged 296 1/4 strokes on three courses in winning his four British open golf championships. His open golf championships, his victories, his scores and the course where they were won, follow:
1922—Sandwich 301
1924—Hoylake 290
1928—Sandwich 292
1929—Muirfield 292

LONDON, Eng., May 11.—(AP)—Golfing experts found themselves at a loss today for adjectives in describing Walter Hagen's fourth victory in the British open championship.

Although Britons generally had expected after the Ryder cup matches that some home-breed would halt the American invasion in the open, editorial comment was unanimous in accepting Hagen's victory with good grace.

"Hagen, the wizard! There is no other description to apply to this wonder golfer," said Sporting Life. "The man is really unique. Adversity spurs him on and the more difficult his task the greater he plays."

That he showed himself utterly unperturbed by his defeat in the Ryder cup matches was regarded by the writers as a special indication of his greatness.

Most of the Americans were in Edinburgh and St. Andrews today. Tomorrow members of the Ryder cup team go to Glenageary, Monday to Manchester and Tuesday to Leeds for the matches.

FANS THROUGH TO SEE TONY DEFEAT ROUTIS

Monster Arena Filled for Chicago Fight Fiesta—Decision Unpopular—Left Hook Disables DeMave in Second.

By Charles W. Dunkley, Associated Press Sports Writer.
CHICAGO, May 11.—(AP)—Chicagoans gave evidence that Paddy Harmon's big building, the Chicago stadium, will be a success, at least for boxing, last night, when 24,500 spectators filled the monster arena to witness Tony Conzone's former featherweight champion, grab an unpopular decision over Andre Routis, present titleholder.

The crowd was the largest that ever witnessed an indoor boxing show in America. The gate receipts, at regular prices, amounted to around $90,000.

The decision of Referee Eddie Purdy and the two judges, which was unanimous, was greeted with boos and hisses. The spectators believed Routis was entitled to at least a draw.

Armando Santiago knocked out Dick "Honeyboy" Finnegan, the Boston junior lightweight in the sixth round.

Otto Van Porat took a two-round victory over Jack De Mave of Hoboken, N. J. Van Porat sank a left hook into the big Hollander's stomach and De Mave curled up on the canvas temporarily paralyzed by the effects of the punch. It was the first time De Mave ever took a 10 count.

Baker, secretary of the Medford Chamber of Commerce, the comprehensive survey of the proposed Medford dirigible site has been presented to the secretary of the navy, together with a protest against limitation of consideration to the Los Angeles and San Diego area.

SINCLAIR MUST CEASE TIPPING

Superintendent Warns Oil Magnate Against Gifts—Take Big Roll Away From Prisoner—Candy Money Only Is Retained.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—(AP)—Maj. William L. Peak, superintendent of the Washington jail, today said he had advised his wealthy prisoner, Harry F. Sinclair, that tipping of jail attendants was not permitted and that from now on the "no tipping" rule would be enforced.

Peak took this action after his attention had been called to the generosity of the oil man to his fellow prisoners and jail employees. As a result, all of Sinclair's money except "five or six dollars" had been taken away from him and placed in the office safe. The money left in his possession is to enable Sinclair to purchase sweets and other delicate morsels at the jail store.

Peak said Sinclair brought "about two or three hundred dollars" to jail with him and a large part of this amount was placed in the safe upon his arrival.

An investigation of the oil man's tipping was started after a report leaked out that he had given an attendant five dollars for performing an errand. Peak said he believed this report exaggerated, but he took Sinclair's money away nevertheless.

HOOVERS SPEND DAY IN COUNTRY OUTING

WASHINGTON, May 11.—(AP)—President and Mrs. Hoover left the White House at 11:30 a. m. today for their usual Saturday's outing in the country.

Longfellow Opus Just Dirty Laugh in Chicago Feud
CHICAGO, May 11.—(AP)—Minnehaha may be poetry to Miss Pearl Baker, but it is just a dirty laugh to her neighbor, Mrs. Minnie Le Barge.

Mrs. Baker is a school teacher, which may account for her love of poetry. Mrs. Minnie Le Barge, however, did not regard it as very nice of Miss Baker to select the lines about Minnehaha—especially when recited some thing like this: "Minnie? Ha! Ha!"

ENTIRE FACULTY ASKED TO QUIT

Students Stage March On Administration Buildings—Teachers Had Been Quizzed On Fundamental Views By Board.

DES MOINES, Iowa, May 11.—(AP)—Dr. T. T. Shields, president of the board of trustees of Des Moines university, announced today that the "entire faculty of the university" had been dismissed.

When the marchers reached the building, Dr. Harry Wayman, president of the university, went before them and asked them to disband. Dr. Shields called police headquarters about the same time requesting that a detail of officers be sent to the campus. Three officers were sent.

Des Moines university was made a Baptist fundamentalist institution when it was taken over by the Baptist Bible Union of North America. Following the appointment of Dr. Shields, who also is president of the Bible union, as president of the board of trustees, all members of the faculty were called before the board and quizzed as to their fundamentalist views. A number of resignations resulted.

PRIMITIVE KRUS HAD PROVERBS

Sayings of Early Liberians Told Savants—'Ugly Woman's Pepper Ground Fine'—Old Men Who Fear to Die 'Broken Pots By Fireside' Were Bits of Wisdom

CHICAGO, May 11.—(AP)—Proverbs from the primitive Kru people of Liberia were read at a meeting of the central section of the American Anthropological association last night by Dr. M. J. Herskovits, of Northwestern university, to show that even among these early people traditional belief has much to do with guiding individual lives.

Among the proverbs read were: "Two clever women do not plant rice in the same field." "Look at that which is offered before you set your price." (In Liberia this refers to taking a wife unseen.)

"The ugly woman's pepper is ground fine." "He who boasts is not always rich." "The sound of the snapping trap which has caught me remains in my ears."

The Kru people, Dr. Herskovits said, believe that the first born child is always less capable than the others, although he inherits the property. They also do not cling to life, believing that an old man who finds the world hard to leave is like a "broken pot by the fireside."

DRY FORESTS OF CANADA IN PATH OF FIRE DEMON

Huge Stands Destroyed By Breeze-Fanned Blaze in Manitoba and Saskatchewan—Roar of Flame Heard for Miles.

WINNIPEG, Man., May 11.—(AP)—A score of fires roared through the parched forests of northern Manitoba and Saskatchewan today, destroying huge stands of valuable timber and threatening settlements.

A stiff breeze and lack of rainfall aided the progress of the flames and thwarted efforts of forest rangers and settlers to check the fires.

One fire was cutting a blackened swath five miles wide northward from Elm Flon mines in northern Manitoba and a dozen smaller fires were consuming more valuable property to the east of the mines.

Of ten fires reported in Saskatchewan the most serious were raging thru the Basque and Porcupine forest reserves, 10 miles east of Prince Albert.

Operation Sues Bride of Tuan v

Mrs. Gene Tunney
FRONZI, Italy, May 11.—(AP)—Mrs. Gene Tunney, the former Polly Lauder, has undergone an operation for the removal of an old undischarged appendix abscess. She was reported to be doing well this afternoon.

So serious was Mrs. Tunney's condition that it is felt that her life was saved only by the prompt intervention of two Berlin specialists, Drs. A. W. and Fritz Meyer, who operated upon her.

AIRPLANE AIDES IN BEATING OFF CHINESE SHIPS

Canton Forces Suppress Four Rebel Gunboats—Shameen Concession in Panic During Attack—City Under Armed Guard.

CANTON, China, May 11.—(AP)—Delegated Canton today successfully suppressed the first fighting to grow out of the invasion of Kwangtung province by the Kwangsi military faction, silencing and forcing surrender of four gunboats in the harbor, which rebelled.

A combined attack of a lone, but effective airplane and of the land armies of Macao and Honam Islands caused the warships to flee to positions between American and British warships in the harbor. They were eventually boarded and disarmed.

The attack occurred off the borders of the shamesen foreign concession and caused consternation there, both foreigners and Chinese being panic stricken. There possibly were some casualties in the concession, several shells having fallen there.

Meanwhile the entire city was under martial law and in a generally unstable condition with predictions being freely made that its fall to the advancing Kwangsi armies could be expected within a day and a half. There was only the most scanty information regarding military developments, however, due to the rigid censorship imposed by the Cantonese authorities.

A lone note of optimism was heard in the statement of Admiral Chan Chat, commander-in-chief of the Cantonese navy, who said he believed the tide was turning in Kwangtung's favor.

MRS. COREY AND PRINCE BETROTHED

Chorus Girl Widow of Steel Magnate Announces Engagement to Prince Luis of Spain—Former California Beauty Changes Faith to Please Infanta Eulalia.

PARIS, May 11.—(AP)—Love's young dream, awakened 22 years ago in the breast of Prince Luis Ferdinand d'Orleans de Bourbon of Spain when he first saw Mrs. Mabelle Gilman Corey is about to be realized, but only after the almondo-tainted beauty has become a middle-aged little man.

Mrs. Corey, former musical comedy star and divorced wife of William Ellis Corey, steel magnate, herself announced yesterday at a social gathering in a Paris hotel that she and the prince would be married at San Remo, Italy, on June 1.

To make the marriage possible she has embraced the Catholic faith, an obstacle which remained in the way of union between them for a long time, since the Infanta Eulalia, the prince's mother, refused to permit her son to wed one not of the faith.

The marriage will lift to royal circles a woman who began a stage career as chorus girl, attaining musical comedy stardom in 1902 when she first met William Ellis Corey, then president of the United States Steel corporation. Three years later the steel leader's wife, Mrs. Laura Cook Corey, obtained a divorce from him at Reno, Nevada, and in 1907 the actress, then Mabelle Gilman, became Mrs. Corey at New York.

She obtained a divorce in Paris in November, 1924.

The prince, who is now about 40 years old, first met Mrs. Corey in 1917, while she was still an actress, and immediately fell in love. The feeling persisted and when Mrs. Corey became free again in 1924 he felt free to press his suit.

Mrs. Corey maintained a chateau outside of Paris and of recent years has attained increasing social prominence.

She was born in San Luis Obispo, California, and christened Mabelle Lavona Curtis. Her greatest success was as the star in the operetta "Dolly Varden." Her religion has always been the subject of varied reports. Her marriage to Corey was performed by a Congregationalist minister.

Limited Decried
LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 10.—(AP)—The baggage car and six Pullmans of the westbound Los Angeles limited, No. 7, were derailed in the desert near Kelso, Cal., today. It was announced by the Union Pacific. The deraiment occurred seven and a half miles west of Kelso, the cars remaining upright and no persons injured.

Will Rogers Says:
PHILADELPHIA, May 11.—Just flew down to Philadelphia, Md., to see the great "Breakneck" race. Bucked a head wind but not as strong as one as the horse I bet on. Bucked forty thousand people there, counting senators and congressmen. Farmers got no relief today, but the mutual betting machines cleaned up, handling over million and a half one race. Lucky for me I run into Doc Admiral Grayson. Through his medical influence he got me in the inclosure where the Republicans were, otherwise I would have had to stay in the center field with the Democrats. Governor Ritchie was mighty nice to us. Vice-President Curtis enjoyed it. It was one place where the Democrats couldn't join with the loose-moraled Republicans and put over anything.
