

Girls and Horses at Barnes' Circus

Everybody loves a horse, and when the horse is ridden by a pretty girl, smartly garbed, it's a dull eye, indeed, that doesn't sparkle at the sight.

HUNGARIAN WILL WRITE OF YEARS IN SOVIET CELLS

BUDAPEST, Hungary.—(AP)—Hundreds of Hungarians languish in Soviet prisons, says Adolf Sandor, who was made a prisoner of war on the Poland front in 1914 and has returned home after 15 years' detention.

The Hungarians are held, he claims, to expiate the hundreds of communists who were put to death in Hungary after the collapse of the Bela Kun government.

Sandor relates that he spent ten years on the icebound island of Solovetski at the mouth of the Gulf of Onega, an arm of the White sea. He says that for seven months of each year no one from the outside world comes to the island. There are 6000 prisoners there of every known nationality, about one-third of them women.

When first captured in 1914 Sandor was marched with others to Siberia. In 1917 when Russia made its separate peace with the central powers, he was released and trudged through snow for six months, finally reaching Moscow. There he was arrested as a Hungarian spy and sentenced to Solovetski.

The sun seldom shines on the island and disease is rife. Typhus rages in the summer. "The prisoners are divided into three classes," Sandor explains. "The most favored receive one kilogram (2.2 pounds) of brown bread daily. The second class receives about four-fifths as much, but the third gets only a half more than half that amount. Tea, cooked by boiling roots, and fish soup which few can stomach, complete the fare.

"Each prisoner must cut down 12 trees a day. Failure to accomplish the task is severely punished and once when I failed I was thrown naked into the icy sea. But this was a blessing in disguise, for I developed pneumonia and had to be sent to a hospital at Koen."

"Prisoners find life so intolerable on the island that many of them court serious hurts in order to be sent to the hospital."

"Unique in design, strikingly individual and fleet in appearance, a new Chrysler Imperial roadster is now being shown by us," says Mr. Henry of the Medford Motors, local dealers. "Particularly timely in its introduction, inasmuch as spring and summer are the open car seasons for motoring, this new roadster will not only be well received, but will create unusual interest wherever it is seen."

"This new Imperial roadster is powered by the famous Chrysler silver dome engine. It is equipped with such features as rear view mirror, chrome plated cowl band and cowl lamps, folding type windshield with chrome plated standards and frame, non-shatterable glass in both forward and tonneau windshields, bumpers in front and rear, top boot, flush type ventilators in each side of cowl, radiator shutter and automatic windshield cleaner. This roadster we have made an outstanding example of Chrysler craftsmanship not only in mechanical excellence but in design, appearance, beauty and genuine value."

CHEVROLET QUOTA CALLS FOR 1,350,000 CARS THIS YEAR

Information was received this week by the Pierce-Allen Motor company, local Chevrolet dealer, that the entire manufacturing facilities of the Chevrolet Motor company, numbering 16 great plants, are rapidly approaching the volume of output necessary to meet this year's revised annual quota, which calls for the production of 1,350,000 passenger cars and truck units, an increase of 100,000 units over the original estimate.

"This was significant," said Mr. Allen, "when W. S. Knudsen, president of the company, announced that March production reached 147,274 units—an amazing output when it is considered that active production of the new six-cylinder cars has been under way less than three months.

"February production, according to Mr. Knudsen, amounted to 121,249 units. With only 22 working days in the month, daily production was more than 5500 cars and trucks. These figures challenge any question that in changing over last fall from four to six-cylinder production, with an interim of only six weeks to affect necessary alterations, the Chevrolet Motor company deserves credit for an astounding achievement.

"Upon his return to Detroit from a six weeks' trip, which took him across the northern part of the country, through the Pacific northwest and south through California, R. H. Grant, vice president in charge of sales, spoke with marked optimism of the prevalent demand for the new six-cylinder cars. Nearly everywhere, he asserted, dealers inform him that they had found an increased market for the new lines. Cars are now being delivered to owners as fast as they can be distributed."

"Billy Possum" Is Hcover Guest in Cage of Rebecca

WASHINGTON, May 11.—(AP)—The spacious cage of the south grounds of the White House, which once housed Rebecca, President Coolidge's pet raccoon, now has a new occupant, an opossum.

The animal strayed into the White House grounds several nights ago and was captured by B. B. Snodgrass, who placed it in a cage. It has been named "Billy Possum," and for the present is to be retained in Rebecca's cage.

Rebecca, who had a habit of escaping from the pen at frequent intervals, was sent to the national zoological park here a short time before the end of the Coolidge administration and from that time until Billy Possum arrived the cage was vacant.

Coming to Rialto Theatre

Emil Jannings and Ruth Chatterton in the Picture "Sins of the Fathers"

Emil Jannings scores another tremendous triumph in "Sins of the Fathers," which comes to the Rialto theater tomorrow.

Voice at City at Hunt's Craterian

"The Voice of the City," Willard Mack's first all-talking picture, is now playing at Hunt's Craterian theater.

It is a fast-moving melodrama of a boy's break from Sing Sing, the search for him by a ruthless detective, and the clearance of the charge.

Its setting is the underworld of a great city, and shows in vivid fashion the life of those people who live in fear of the law. Through the plot of shadows there runs a shining thread of romance.

Two Important Items of U. S. Radio News

SEATTLE, Wash., May 10.—Two of the most important radio announcements of the month came from the Majestic Distributing company through word released today by Wm. J. Walsh, assistant manager.

stantial price reductions in the history of radio became effective with the announcement of new spring models in the Majestic all-electric line. The word received by the distributors from the Grigsby Grunow Co., manufacturers of the set. Further word from the distributor is a special summer merchandising drive among the Majestic dealers, establishing a trade-in plan which will enable the owners of obsolete sets to procure their full value on a trade deal for the new Majestic all-electric sets.

Two High Speeds in Traffic

[Four Speeds Forward—Standard Gear Shift]

Owners say they particularly enjoy the Graham-Paige four speed transmission (standard gear shift) when driving in traffic. They speak of the rapid acceleration of third, a quiet internal gear—the silent, smooth swiftness of fourth—the few times they find it necessary to shift gears—and the ease with which the car handles. You are invited to experience this new thrill in motoring.
