CLEVELAND FANS BOMBARD 'UMPS' WHEN MACKS WIN

CLEVELAND, May 11.—(AP)—The Philadelphia-Cleveland baseball game was halted at the start of the ninth inning today when fans disatisfied with the ruling of Umpire Ormsby calling Lew Fonseca out in the eighth inning on a questionable play started a barrage of pop bottles at the umpire. Police came onto the field to protect Umpires Ormsby and Campbell and efforts were made by the arbitrators to quiet the disturbance without avail.

Manager Billy Evans then came onto the field and the crowd became quiet. Umpire Ormsby was hit on the head with a bottle but not seriously injured. Cleveland players assisted by ground keepers swarmed on the field and soon cleared it of bottles and the game proceeded.

AFTER ALL—WHY SHOULD YOU BE IN THE $1000 CLASS

Almost any $1,000 car will give you $1,000 value—BUT (and here's the point) how much will it be costing for repairs and upkeep within a year or two?

A hundred dollars, or so, more on the down-payment—maybe three additional payments—and you can have a Reo Flying Cloud. And a Reo will not only keep you free from serious repair bills well into the third year (saving quickly the added investment) but it will give you exceptional service for four, six, or even more, years. For here is a car that for long life, performance and mechanical dependability is rated with cars listed in the highest price-brackets... and one that will give you a pleasure and satisfaction which only the man who drives one can put a dollar and cents value upon.

Illustrated is the 5-Passenger sport sedan model of the Reo Flying Cloud on the 115-inch chassis.

Get the facts on Reo—performance facts—pocket-book facts—before you buy any car this spring.

Now you can have a Reo Flying Cloud at a lower price than ever before.
