

BRAVES SHADE GIANTS TWICE ON TWIN BILL

Tribe Absorbs Art of Winning One-Run Games—Coast League Heaver, Bruce Cunningham, Wins in Major Debut.

By William J. Chipman, Associated Press Sports Writer

If the Braves stay up there another month, they may begin to believe that they belong in the first four. In any event, Emil Bucher seems to have taught the Tribe the first principle of a team that absorbs to escape from the second division—the gentle art of winning the one-run games instead of losing them. His warriors added to the woes of John McGraw yesterday by shading the Giants, 4 to 3 and 5 to 4, in a back bay double-header.

What is more significant, the Braves twice came from behind to nose out McGraw's ambitious seventh placers, against the inevitable Larry Benton in the opener and against no-hit Carl Hubbell in the tenth round of the nightcap.

Young Bruce Cunningham, the Pacific coast boy sent along by the Cubs as a sort of good measure aftering in the Hornsby deal, made his first major-league start in the opening game, and refused to be dismayed by his illustrious opponent. Art Delaney had charge of the Boston firing in the second clash, and turned in as fine a game as he has shown since his arrival in the majors.

The Cardinals slipped ahead of the idle Cubs into the league lead by outlasting Pittsburgh in a groggy ten-round melee at Forbes field. The champions scored one run in the ninth and another in the 10th to pull out the decision by 10 to 8. Almost everybody except Donie Bush and Bill Southworth pitched, and Jim Bottomley hit two home runs.

The Robins rounded out the national league program in their customary manner, losing their ninth straight to the Phillies, 7 to 6. The only unusual item connected with this statement is that Dazzy Vance was on the fringe for Brooklyn. The Dazzer was outpitched by Claude (wee-wee) Willoughby, who has succeeded in outpitching his opponent this spring.

The Cubs and the Reds were idle yesterday.

While the acknowledged contenders in the American league blazed along the exhibition trail yesterday, the Browns and Tigers improved their standing by turning back western opponents. Alvin Crowder shaded Walter Miller by 1 to 0 in a pitching duel at St. Louis, while Owen Carroll turned in a fine game to defeat Al Thomas and the White Sox by 4 to 3 at Detroit.

This dual triumph for the west-

TURNSEA WILL PLAY JOLLY FOR GUINEAS

MOORTOWN, Eng., May 17.—(AP) An American and British professional will contest on the 36-hole final of the Yorkshire Evening News 1000-guinea golf tournament tomorrow. Joe Turnsea of New York defeated Charles Whitcombe, two up, in the semi-finals today and will meet from H. C. Jolly, who won from W. H. Davies, one up.

Joyce Wins Again

JOYCE WETHERED

ST. ANDREWS, May 17.—(AP) Joyce Wethered won the British women's golf championship today for the fourth time, defeating Glenna Collet, three times American champion, in the final at 36 holes. The American pried up a big lead on the first nine and was two up at the end of the first 18, but could not combat the steady play of her opponent in the afternoon.

The sport program was to open this afternoon with the annual baseball game between the Oregon State teams and the University of Oregon frosh. The sophomore-rook tug of war across the mill race, and water polo meets with the university are other Saturday events.

BIG BOXING CARD AT ARMORY SOON

One of the most elaborate boxing smokers ever attempted in Medford is scheduled for May 27, one week from next Monday, at the Armory when four six-round bouts, all called as main events, will be on the program. The principals are most all well known to local boxing fans and each bout promises to be a hard battle.

Pat Padelford, who defeated Jackie McCoy of Seattle last week, will meet Billy Eldemann of Bend, and in him Padelford will find another worthy contender. Padelford is in the pink of condition and is not worried, although Eldemann has won all of his fights.

While Austin Romander had been scheduled to meet him, Red Sorenson, red-haired fighter, who was champion of the United States army in New York and New Jersey until he was discharged from the army a year ago, will meet Frankie Monroe, hard hitting Hood River boxer instead. Red has been training for some time and this bout is expected to be especially hard fought.

Jackie McCoy of Seattle and Joe Corbett will also fight six round bouts and their opponents will be announced later.

SHELLS FEATURE SPORT EVENT ON STATE SCHEDULE

CORVALLIS, Ore., May 17.—(AP) Three major sport events are on the program for the annual campus week-end opening here at noon today.

Holding the center of interest was the first intercollegiate crew race on the local course this afternoon, with the senior class crew, winner of local races, meeting the University of Washington freshman eight on the Willamette river. Tomorrow Washington and Oregon State will meet in a dual track meet.

DAVIS CUP TEAM CINCHES SERIES

MONTREAL, May 17.—(AP) The United States Davis Cup tennis team clinched its series with Canada today by taking the doubles match after having won both of yesterday's singles.

The American team of John Hennessey and John VanRyn won the doubles match from Dr. Jack Wright and Dr. Arthur Hamm, 6-1, 6-0, 1-6, 6-2, after the Dominion stars rallied to win the third set in sensational fashion.

DIVISION LEAD GOES TO WILLAMETTE NINE

SALEM, Ore., May 17.—(AP) Willamette university baseball team clinched the western division of the northwest conference championship here yesterday by defeating the College of Puget Sound, 15 to 6.

Today the Bearcats play Linfield and leave Monday for Walla Walla to play Whitman, eastern division champions, for the conference title.

WAGNER CREEK AUTO IS DITCHED BY DOG

WAGNER CREEK, Ore., May 17.—(Special)—Last Tuesday evening Miss Dorothy Head and Mrs. T. R. Flury, in returning from Ashland, ran over a large collie which hurled their car into the ditch. They were taken to receive medical attention and returned home later. However, they were not seriously injured, though the car was badly damaged.

Mr. Glenn Abbott is working for Claude Ward at Voorhies, near Medford.

F. W. Combes and D. W. Bradley motored to Medford last Monday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Frye of Medford were picnicking on the creek Sunday and called on Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Lynch on their way home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sawyer of Hill, Calif., were week-end visitors at the Sawyer home.

Miss Dorothy Head, Mrs. T. R. Flury and Mrs. Abbott were Ashland shoppers last Monday evening.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

"When I was a young single girl I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because my mother did and she gave it to me. After I married I took it before my children were born and afterwards, and I have eight living children. I am now a grandmother and still take it and still recommend it when any one is tired and run-down."—Mrs. Alfred Iverson, St. Edwards, Nebraska.
