BOY-SCOUT MEET WON BY TROOP 3

Boy Scout troop three of Medford won the Boy Scout annual field and track meet at the fairgrounds yesterday by a landslide score of 65 points, with troop 8 second with 22 points, and troop 9 14 points. Only one outside entrant took part and that was troop 23 of Talent, fourth. A silver loving cup was awarded to the winning troop, which will hold it for one year, but must win it three times to hold it permanently. Pennants will be awarded to the next two winners, as well as the champions.

First place for inspection, including condition of troop, appearance and general set-up, was taken by troop 3. Troops 9 and 23 took the next two places, respectively.

Results of the meet were as follows:
