

COMMITTEE WILL PICK CONTESTANT FOR EDISON TEST

A committee composed of B. H. Conkle, principal of Medford high school and Principals B. C. For-

Thomas A. Edison in an effort to uncover scientific students of unusual talents is conducting a nation wide search.

All state winners will go to Thomas A. Edison's laboratories at East Orange, New Jersey to take a final test administered personally by Mr. Edison.

The winners will be given scientific scholarships in the nation's leading technical schools, and opportunities in the Edison laboratories.

Mr. Conkle is chairman of the selection committee in southern Oregon.

The following rules govern the selection of the southern Oregon candidate:

- 1. Scholastic standing as summarized on the standard college entrance blanks.
2. Student's participation in school activities.
3. Student's character, stability, resourcefulness, and personality.
4. Student's personal appearance.
5. The interest of student in scientific research, and achievements in this line.

The student selected to represent Medford high school in competition with other schools of southern Oregon is George Wines.

The selection was made on the basis of qualifications to be used in state and national contests and he was the unanimous choice of the principal and members of the science department.

Thank Car Owners For the kind co-operation assistance given by Medford motorists in making the auto valley tour this morning for the visiting I. O. O. F. and Rebekah members a complete success, the general committee in charge is deeply grateful and extends its thanks to each motorist taking part.

PICNIC SO SECRET EVEN SENIORS AT SEA AS TO PLACE

The senior class of the high school held its annual picnic today, and its location was kept a secret. It was so much of a secret that seniors of such sterling athletic worth as Al Stroeh, Bill Morgan and Ernie Hughes did not know where it was.

The seniors kept the location of their picnic secret to keep juniors from raiding the affair and dumping the ice cream in the creek.

This afternoon a report was received that the picnic was being staged "away up the Applegate."

THANK MISS BURTON FOR FROST WARNING

The various orchardists of the valley who smugged this season desire to publicly thank Miss Lena Burton, night operator of the Home Telephone company.

Her courteous treatment and quick service where thousands of dollars worth of fruit crops were involved, is heartily appreciated by all those who smugged.

Floyd Young, the government frost expert, when he heard that the orchardists wanted to publicly thank Miss Burton for her services, begged to be allowed to add his testimonial to the excellence of the efficient and courteous service rendered by Miss Burton.

NEWBERRY STORE HAS SALE OF ALL STOCK BUTTER EXTRAS DOWN ONE CENT

Wall Street Report

NEW YORK, May 22.—(P) Acute weakness developed in today's stock market as a result of the federal reserve council's statement that it favored an increase from 5 to 6 per cent in rediscount rates.

Prices sold off sharply at the opening, rallied before midday under the leadership of oils on the announcement that President Hoover had called a conference of western governors to act on oil conservation plans and then turned weak again in the early afternoon.

Extreme declines of 3 to 13 points were distributed over a broad list of railroad and industrial shares.

Trading slackened and the market showed more stability after the call loan rate was reduced to 6 per cent. Radio mounted to above 95 and Case Thrashing Machine recovered 3 points, while Auburn was down 2, to 25 1/2-4. The closing was weak. Sales approximated 4,300,000 shares.

LION DELEGATES GIVE CONVENTION REPORT AT LUNCH

Reports on the state Lions convention held last week at Tillamook, Ore., were given by members of the local den at their club luncheon today at the Hotel Medford.

Among those who gave interesting reviews were Lions T. J. Rice, Newberry and Scott. Lion President George Winslow of the Tillamook den, who is in the city attending the Odd Fellows convention, responded to the local reports by saying that the Medford delegates were among the best looking and peppiest Lions to attend the convention from any part of the state.

Art Burgess, program chairman for the day, presented Miss Evelyn Wold, accomplished pianist who recently gave her graduation recital at St. Mary's academy. Miss Wold was not only enthusiastically scored, but given a mighty roar by the entire assembly at the conclusion of her presentation. She played "The Juggler" by N. Louise Wright, Chopin's "Valse" and "Japanese Etude" by Poldini.

Among the visitors present were Ralph Burgess, Eric Wold, Jonas Roseburg, Lion George Winslow of Tillamook and Deputy Fire Marshal Clyde Warren of Portland.

LINDBERGH LANDS FIANCEE'S FAMILY AT PORTLAND, ME.

PORTLAND, Maine, May 22.—(P) Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh landed at Portland airport at 2:31 p. m. eastern daylight time today on a flight from North Haven, Maine, bringing four members of the family of Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow, including his fiancée, Anne Morrow.

OMAHA GIRL BEST OF U. S. SPELLERS

WASHINGTON, May 22.—(P) Thirteen-year-old Virginia Hogan of Omaha, Neb., is the spelling champion of the United States.

She gained the honor by spelling "luxuriance" and all the other tongue-twisting words that were put to her last night in the finals of the fifth annual national spelling bee.

After such words as "diaphanous," "obscureous," "aggrandizement" and "apothecosis" had sent the 20 other contestants back to their seats, the dark-haired maid representing the Omaha World-Herald was still on her feet. For standing up so long under the barrage of orthography she was awarded the $1000 prize.

OGDEN OPPOSES RAIL EXTENSION IN OREGON

OGDEN, Utah, May 22.—(P) Resolutions were adopted by the Ogden chamber of commerce today opposing the granting of permits by the Interstate Commerce Commission to the Great Northern and Western Pacific railroads for the proposed extension of their lines in northeastern California and southern Oregon.

BOTH FIGHTERS OVER BANTAMWEIGHT LIMIT

NEW YORK, May 22.—(P) Possibility of the bantamweight title being accorded the winner of tonight's ten round match between Kiki Chocolate and Fotel La Barba at the coliseum vanished when both sealed well over the 118 pound class limit. Choco late weighed 121 and La Barba 120 1/2 this afternoon.

COULD NOT SLEEP NIGHTS

Helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Fairhaven, Mass.—"I am taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound during the Change of Life. When I feel nervous and run-down my husband gets me a bottle right away. It is a great help to me and I think that if other people would only take it when they feel all run-down and take it as the directions say, they would find it a great benefit. My worst symptoms were nervousness and tired feelings. I could not sleep nights and I was so nervous I would cry if anyone looked at me."—Mrs. Ana Hesse, 191 Washington Street, Fairhaven, Mass.

WORKOUTS BEGUN FOR BIG SMOKER

Interest is high in the big 24-round boxing card at the armory next Monday night, under the auspices of the Medford Boxing commission. The principals are all in a hard training program and fans are promised action in every bout.

Red Barronson of Central Point is the favored contender against the local star, who is in New York and New Jersey, who will meet Frankie Monroe of Hood River, in the midst of a hard training program. He has been working out daily with Jackie McCoy, who is to meet Billie Church of Portland. Sorensen and McCoy have spared no effort in making punching bags of each other.

The other two feature bouts will be fought between Steamboat Jackson and Joe Corbett and between Pat Padeloff and Ed Edlmann.
