BEST CONVENTION OF ODD FELLOWS, ASSERT VISITORS

With most of the visiting members and delegates to the I. O. O. F. and Rebekah state sessions here this week leaving last evening for their respective homes, Medford was settling back to normalcy today. It was the consensus of the visitors that Medford excelled as a convention city in the way of hospitality and entertainment, in addition to the amount of work accomplished by the various lodge sessions.

The I. O. O. F. Grand Lodge officers reported the best session in regard to attendance and purposes accomplished.

Grand Lodge officers were elected yesterday forenoon and installed yesterday afternoon by Fred Meindl of Portland, outgoing grand master. The following officers were appointed: William Linklater, Portland, grand marshal; Geo. P. Winslow, Tillamook, grand conductor; E. E. Wilson, Medford, grand chaplain; D. H. Nelson, Pendleton, grand guardian; Oscar Larson Bend, grand herald.

GLEASON TO RACE CALIFORNIA MEET

Marvin (Sonny) Gleason of Central Point, well known southern Oregon racing driver, will leave next Thursday for San Jose, Cal., to take part in the big annual auto races there June 2, and expects to be gone indefinitely on a racing tour that may include the entire middle west. Mr. Gleason has taken part in several races at the county fair grounds when auto speedsters were regular happenings. He is known to local race fans for his extraordinary driving and has supplied them with many thrills.

He is regarded as one of the newest young drivers in the racing game and he expects to set a new record on the San Jose dirt track, driving a special Howard racer. The present record is 26 seconds for five-eighths mile track, and he has plans of cutting the record to 25 seconds. Following the coast race meet he may take part in races in the east in addition to touring the middle west.
