ASHLAND LEGION WILL GIVE FLAG MEMORIAL PRIZE

ASHLAND, Ore., May 28.—(Sp.) A fine large American flag has been offered to the public school grade that has the largest attendance in the Memorial day parade on Thursday. According to present indications there will be a larger attendance this year than ever before, and the change has been brought about by the American Legion, that has put forth so many efforts to have the day observed in a fitting way.

A group of Ashland teachers and their friends went to Crescent City to enjoy the week end at the beach. Those who joined in the outing were Misses Ellen Waters, Caroline Radde, Frances Tomlinson, Margaret Arnold, Althea Dwyer, Eva Jane Wilson, Irene Clark, Ellen McCormick, Emma Maloney, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Forsythe and two children, Rachel and Jac. Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Crandall and daughter Anne, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lane and Earl Rogers.

Miss Hilma Enander, piano instructor, had the misfortune to fall last week while practicing at the Vining theater, and injured her hand. It is thought that the injury is only a sprain, but Miss Enander will be unable to use her hand for some time.

Mrs. Walter and Mrs. V. V. Caldwell entertained on Thursday evening at the Redford home on Palm avenue, inviting about 50 friends for bridge. The evening passed quickly with the usual number of games, after which the guests were served a dainty midnight supper.

Mrs. C. I. J. Porter was the fortunate winner of high score; Mrs. V. V. Mills held second high score, while Mrs. J. H. McGee was awarded the consolation.

Guests for the evening were Mesdames Don Provost, C. A. Haines, Gerald Wenner, Elwood Hedburg, Louis Dodge, Will Dodge, Henry Galey, Frank Dean, John Fuller, J. M. Wagner, H. J. Carter, J. A. Churchill, C. I. J. Porter, Dewey Sackett, Edwin Dunn, C. A. Malone, B. B. Balla, C. W. Fortmiller, S. A. Peters, Jr., Lo Hanson, D. A. Pederson, C. W. Hanson, P. K. Hammond, J. H. McGee, George Briscoe, W. J. Crandall, Henry Enders, V. Y. Mills, A. E. Kinney, Misses Lillian Nicholson, Edith Bork, Leona Marsters, Helen Anderson, Ruth Yoder, Marguerite Hammon and Betty Hileman.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Stevens of Phoenix, Ariz., have come to Ashland recently to settle permanently.

Superintendent of Schools and Mrs. George A. Briscoe motored to Butte Falls Friday evening, where Mr. Briscoe delivered the commencement address before the graduating class of the Butte Falls high school.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ramsby of Klamath Junction was in Ashland on Friday to attend to business errands and to visit with friends.

Mrs. B. C. Forsythe and her sister Miss Esther Church, who teaches in the Medford public schools, motored to Bend last Tuesday to attend to business affairs, and returned on Thursday evening.

A number of members of the graduating class of the Ashland high school made a trip to Mount Ashland Thursday afternoon and returned to the city late on Friday. They were chaperoned by Misses Ellen Waters, Irene Clark and Ethel McCormick, teachers in the high school.

Grant Helman, the former owner of the Helman baths, and for many years a resident of Ashland, is in Ashland to visit relatives and to renew old acquaintances. Mr. Helman is living at Petaluma, Cal., where he is engaged in the chicken business.

Mrs. Fannie Keller on Sherman street is arranging to have her residence bungalow property repainted.

Mrs. Lloyd Moore of the Bellview district is in Medford for a few days to visit with her daughter, Mrs. Adrian Wolfe.

Miss Mell Carter, a former teacher in the Junior high school, is in Ashland for a visit with friends. Miss Carter has been teaching for the past year at Ontario, Ore., in the high school. She will remain in Ashland and Central Point with friends until time for the summer session at Berkeley, when she will enroll for a summer course at the University of California.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter O'Donoghue and two sons of Crescent Lake are in Ashland for a time at the home of Mrs. O'Donoghue's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Livingston on East Main street while Mrs. Livingston is in Berkeley, Cal., at the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Bachand, who has suffered a stroke of paralysis.

Misses Margaret McCoy and Frances Pracht, who have been teaching in the Talent high school, have moved home to Ashland. They had been keeping house at Talent for the past nine months.

Mr. and Mrs. Addison Helms, Jr., have returned from New York, where they had been spending the winter months while Mr. Helms was engaged in the study of art. They plan to spend the summer here with Mr. Helms' parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Helms, at the Klamath Falls Junction.

Miss Whittingham of New York City, a sister of Mrs. Arthur Tappin of the Bellview district, has arrived in Ashland to make her permanent home.

The Business Girls' club of Ashland was entertained on Thursday evening by Miss Emma Jenkins at the Cliff Jenkins home on Pioneer street.

Miss Jenkins provided a pleasant evening of needlework, conversation and music for her guests and at a late hour served elaborate refreshments. Those who accepted the hospitality of Miss Jenkins were Mrs. Elmer Biegle, Mrs. Dan Kay, Mrs. Clifford Jenkins, Misses Georgia Coffee, Ruth Oamun, Elsie Alexander, Helene Biede, Gertrude Biede, Calla Biegle and Lita Walker.

HERE IS THE TIRE WHICH MILLIONS OF CAR-OWNERS HAVE BEEN WAITING FOR THE U. S. PEERLESS

What is the Peerless?

The PEERLESS is a totally new tire—a first-line quality tire produced by a Major Tire Company at a popular price for the service of thousands of specific customers.

Who are these specific customers for the Peerless?

Every car owner including those who have been buying "Specials," "off-brand," or "second-grade" tires is the logical customer for the PEERLESS. This new tire is designed expressly to meet specific needs of lasting quality, comfort, control and price.

How is the Peerless built especially for these car owners?

This new tire is not a second-grade tire dressed up. It is not an old tire revamped. It is a modern tire for modern driving conditions of Speed, Steering, Braking and Style. Its deep tread blocks assure you of extremely Satisfactory Mileage.

How can such a good tire give me a saving in price?

The PEERLESS is destined to be one of the largest selling tires in America. This means savings in cost of manufacture. We are willing to anticipate these savings, and share them with you in advance.

Where can I get the Peerless?

These United States Tire Dealers are all ready to serve you with the PEERLESS. See one today.
