

OPEN RESORT STORE
SUNSET-ON-THE-ROGUE

A new store building in the last stages of completion at the Sunset-on-the-Rogue resort on the Crater Lake highway above Trail, according to Mrs. S. W. Hutchinson of the resort, who was in Medford this week. The new store will be open for business tomorrow and a house warming is scheduled to take place there this evening.

The building was constructed for Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson by John Riddle of Trail, and is up to date in every way. Fred Brandt of this city was in charge of the stucco work, and the plumbing was in charge of A. Penwell, while the wiring was done under the direction of Keva Hutchinson. Work of this city in constructing two large fireplaces in the building.

The United Daughters of the Confederacy have established a scholarship at the University of Chicago for descendants of Confederate veterans.

Notice to Creditors to Present Claims. I am hereby given that I have been appointed by the County Court of Jackson County, Oregon, Administrator of the Estate of Daniel Weststone, deceased, and have qualified. All persons having claims against said estate are hereby notified to present them, with proper vouchers and duly verified, to me at Room 419, Medford Building, Medford, Oregon, within six months from the date of this notice. Dated and first published May 15th, 1929.

J. HARRY C. SKYRMAN, Administrator.
