Miracle Baby Artists At 15th June 8th.
All who are concerned with the development of special gifts in young children will be interested in the concert Monday evening, June 8th at 8:00 at the Isis Theatre by Joan and Jeanne Halami, called "The Miracle Baby Artists," of Hollywood, Calif. Miss Joan is a violinist and plays an instrument that belongs to her grandfather and which she allows no one else to touch. Her command of the technical resources of the instrument, octaves, double stopping, glissando, trills and vibrato are said to be remarkable while her tone is full and vibrant. Her sister, Miss Jeanne has one of those phenomenal voices which cannot be explained, except by saying it is a gift of God.

Local members of the Lions club who heard the youthful artists in a brief program Wednesday noon are enthusiastic in their expression of enjoyment of the concert.

Besides the joint feature of the program, by Joan and Jeanne, the Isis theatre will run the comedy and Pathé News. Mrs. Lillian, a dancing teacher will present a group of children in color and two of Mrs. Gore's ambitious young piano pupils will also be heard. Much interest has been expressed in the concert and a delightful evening's entertainment is promised.
