FANS EXPECT BIG NIGHT AT ARMORY

Wrestling fans will have their big night next Friday at the Armory when Bob Kruse of Oswego and Moose Norbeck of Portland will be the principals in a finish heavyweight wrestling match. Norbeck will outweigh Kruse by 10 or 15 pounds and weigh in around 220 pounds. But this weight is not expected to be any great handicap to the Oswego man, who has an idea he will be the next world's heavy weight champion.

Both men have wrestled in Medford before, but have never met each other in this city. Norbeck defeated Chief Evans here last winter and Kruse had just Hassan Muhammed, Taso Misko and others, defeating them all.

In the way of preliminaries, Curly Woods will wrestle Joe Corbett of Roseburg and Young Gatch, promising Gold Hill mat artist, will wrestle Larry Conly.

TALENT DEFEATED BY MEDFORD NINE

As the result of a hard fought game yesterday afternoon the Mail Tribune Appleknockers defeated the Talent town team by a score of 6 to 4 before a good sized crowd of spectators. The Appleknockers were in good form, but at that nearly found defeat at the hands of the Talent hurlers, including some of the best baseball ability in that section.

In view of winning two games in two weeks, the local team is anxious to meet all comers and is willing to play at any time convenient. In yesterday's game 17 batters were fanned, with 13 fanned by the local batteries.
