

Everybody avoided Bill...until he overcame "B.O."

Bill was no mind-reader. But he could see that Joan wasn't enjoying this trip into town.

Why is she edging away? he wondered. Then he saw the newspaper headline—"Hotter weather here—lookout for 'B. O.'"

Body odor—was that his trouble? Read Bill's own answer.

Keeps perspiration odorless
"Tricky 'B. O.' It fooled me all right."

"Yes, I perspired. But in a healthy, normal way. I didn't notice any unpleasantness."

"Now I realize that we become insensitive to ever-present odors; that pores constantly give off odor-causing waste—as much as a quart a day, and the hotter the weather the more we offend.

"So it's Lifebuoy for me always—and no 'B. O.' worries. Its purifying lather keeps the body fresher. Even removes cigarette odors from the fingers."

"We all think Lifebuoy's a fine skin soap, too—and a real safeguard against disease germs. Lifebuoy's pleasant, extra-clean scent that vanishes as you rinse, tells you it purifies."

CRAGADOUR IS FAVORITE FOR DERBY

British Crowd Epsom Downs for Historic Turf Event—Millions Wagered—Track Too Hard—May Scratch Several Entries—Hunter's Moon and Mr. Jinks Well Played.

EPSOM DOWNS, Eng., June 4. (P) — The Epsom derby, ancient classic of the English turf, rules all Britons tomorrow.

Thirty-one of England's choicest three-year-olds have been selected to battle for the honor and glory awarded the winner of the world's most celebrated horse race. Five million people have wagered hundreds of thousands of pounds in the gigantic London stock exchange and Calcutta sweepstakes and other similar pools throughout the United Kingdom. The Calcutta and Stock Exchange sweeps alone involve about $5,000,000 each, holders of tickets on the winning horse to receive in the neighborhood of $625,000.

From city, farm and hamlet the multitudes began pouring into this quaint little English village today. For in England everyone goes to the derby. It is a national pilgrimage in which all classes participate, from king to commoner, from landed lord to wandering gypsy. Londoners turned their backs on their shops and offices and joined the early arrivals by train, tram, omnibus, automobile, taxicab, carriage, cart, bicycle and on foot.

The influx of England's population is expected to exceed the quarter-million mark this year. The huge grandstand, built in the bowl-like setting of the downs course and adjacent standing room furnishes some kind of an accommodation for nearly 300,000 people.

Condition of the track, which has become hard because of lack of rain, may further cut the field before post time. Because he did not desire to risk injuring his horse, Lord Dewar scratched Mac-Nab yesterday, while Lord Wallington's Walter Gay and the Duke of Portland's Leonard are considered doubtful starters.

Betting today failed to dislodge Viscount Astor's Cragadour from the position of the favorite, although Lord Derby's Hunter's Moon and Major McAlmon's Mr. Jinks were strongly played. Future betting quotations have made Cragadour the popular choice at 6 to 1, with Hunter's Moon at 7 to 1 and Mr. Jinks at 17 to 2.

Syncopation Is Pleasing Crowds at Hunt's Craterian

"Syncopation," now playing at Hunt's Craterian, whirls tunelessly about the careers of the team of Darrel and Sloane, a pair of Broadway hoofs. Their vari-colored careers take them from the small time haunts to the cabarets and musical comedy atmosphere of New York, with all the temptations, heart-breaks, jealousies, fears and bursting glories of the world of make-believe, with Barbara Bennett and Bobby Watson playing these leading roles.

The big honors go to Fred Ward's Pennsylvania who, in nine convincing jazz numbers, literally riot the show.

Morton Downey's singing of three new song hits figures among the outstanding features of the show. There is a song by Dorothy Lee which exercised its delightful spell and another by Gania Zielenska, distinguished soprano soloist. Two numbers by a string orchestra and dancing by Barbara Bennett, daughter of the famed Richard Bennett.

The song hit of the piece is perhaps the theme song, "I'll Always be in Love With You." Other vocal selections include "Jericho," "Do Something," etc.

A new Solo Endurance Record

FLYING a Wright motored, stock Lockheed cabin monoplane, using Richfield Aviation Gasoline and Richlube Motor Oil, Herbert J. Fahy, chief test pilot of the Lockheed Aircraft Company, set a new solo endurance record without refueling—remaining in the air 36 hours, 56 minutes, 36 seconds.

Fahy took off from Metropolitan Airport at 4:43:05 a.m. Tuesday, May 28, and landed at 5:39:41 p.m. Wednesday—exceeding the record of Martin Jensen by 1 hour and 23 minutes.

Once again Richfield has played an impressive part in an aerial achievement—just as it did in the flight of the Question Mark army plane, in Captain Wilkins' hop over the North Pole, in numerous record breaking transcontinental flights and endurance records.

Use Richfield in your own car for the same reason it is selected by leading pilots and flyers—power, speed, unfailing dependability. And Richlube pure Pennsylvania Motor Oil—it means longer life to your motor.

Thrill Plentiful at Rialto Tonight

"The Lone Wolf's Daughter," at the Rialto theater, proves why Bert Lytell has won such tremendous popularity in the role of Michael Lanyard and why film lovers are pleased with "Lone Wolf" productions.

This film relates the adventures and love affair of the "Lone Wolf" after he has adopted a daughter. He is anxious to see her married to a wealthy youth and this endeavor makes him the prey of a pair of international crooks.

Thrills are plentiful and on nearly every occasion they end with a surprise entirely unexpected.

Gertrude Olmstead, Charles Gerard, Lilyan Tashman, Donald Keith, Florence Allen, Robert Elliott and Ruth Cherrington support Lytell in the prominent roles.

Let me write your fire insurance.

BENSON DANCE PUPILS ENTERTAIN IN ASHLAND

ASHLAND, Ore., June 4.—(Special)—The Benson dancing school of Medford put on an exhibition at the Vining theater between shows on Friday night. There was a good sized audience that showed particular delight as number after number brought surprises. The work of the pupils, from the tiniest tots to those who have had years of training, was outstanding in excellence, and the appropriate costumes added to the charm of each number.

One of the loveliest conceits was the "Sprite of the Rose" dance, a solo number by Miss Marjorie McNair. A huge rose that hid the sprite, unfolded slowly as sweet voices sang "Roses of Yesterday," then the sprite came forth and danced the loveliest figures. Among the pupils were two Ashland girls, Misses Blanche McChlain and Thekla Good.

Ashland public schools closed Friday afternoon, when report cards were handed out in the different grades.
