PILOTS HOPE TO HOP OFF SUNDAY

OLD BUCHARD, Md. June 7.—(AP)—One had storm after about the ocean contra the monoplane Green Flash and Yellow Bird proposed to follow to Europe today murred the best weather map the American and French fliers have received in nearly three weeks of waiting. They hope to get away tomorrow.

Plans for a take-off today were called when Dr. James H. Kimball of the New York weather bureau advised Lewis A. Yonney and Roger Q. Williams of the Green Flash that rain and winds of gale force were prevalent 1200 miles off the coast.

VESUVIUS SHOWS NEW LIFE SIGNS

NAPLES, June 7.—(AP)—Re-newed spasms deep within the crater of Vesuvius today disquieted residents of the villages about its base. The villagers late yesterday returned to their homes and erected Thanksgiving tabernacles for their patron saints on street corners.

The Vesuvius observatory had reported the lava flow stopped and the pools of white hot rock rapidly congealing when the new subterranean tumult was felt. The explosion which in the volcano shaking the ground so that dogs and windows miles away rattled.

ENGLISH LIBERAL DEMITS TO LABOR

LONDON, Eng., June 7.—(AP)—An official labor party announcement today said that W. A. JOWITT, a distinguished member of the bar who was elected to the new parliament by the Erection division as a liberal, had joined the labor party.

It was generally understood that it would be appointed attorney general in the cabinet being formed by Ramsay MacDonald.

The labor recruit has been a king's counsel since 1922. He was a member of parliament as a laborite from the Hartlepool division in 1922-24.

HEFLIN CHALLENGES SUPPORT FOR SMITH

WASHINGTON, June 7.—(AP)—Senator Heflin of Alabama today challenged "any southern Democrat" to stand up in the senate and say he favored the nomination of Alfred E. Smith for president in 1932.

No senator responded.

The senator made his challenge during one of his attacks upon what he described "the Roman Catholic political machine." Only a few democratic senators were present when he made his statement.

The Alabamian declared that the purpose of the forthcoming Democratic dinner in Washington was "to boost Raskob" and to continue him as chairman of the Democratic national committee.

TURKISH UNREST NEARING REVOLT

LONDON, June 7.—(AP)—A dispatch from Jerusalem to the Jewish telegraph agency today said that grave political unrest throughout the eastern districts of Turkey was reported by anti-kemalist arriving from Angora, via Beirut. It stated that Klazim Karabekir Pasha was leading the agitation which was assuming the proportions of a widespread revolt.

The dispatch said the Mustafa Kemal Pasha, head of the Turkish republic, had suddenly left Angora for Constantinople. This was interpreted in the dispatch as strengthening the report of open revolt.

EVANSTON, Ill., June 7.—(AP)—The Junior prom, chief social event of the Evanston township high school's commencement season, was threatened today because of a difference of opinion as to whether 15 negro students should be permitted to attend.
