A Package in New York. Mussolini Signs. From Ocean to Ocean. Labor's Plan.

(Copyright by King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Greater New York is interesting. From the office where this is written you can see steamers headed for the lower bay and the ocean, new skyscrapers of Brooklyn, the East River, rows of big bridges, scows hauling rocks from tunnels now being excavated and big buildings in Wall Street, where they have finished a day of "highly mixed movements."

To remind you that not everything is cheerful, even in rich New York, a package lies at the edge of the water, in front of the Central Vermont railway pier, No. 29. Under newspapers covering the package lies a man, dead.

Some time this morning, drunk with bootleg liquor, he fell into the river and was taken out at 8:45. Now it is half-past four, and he still waits for somebody to take him to the potter's field. A few weeks ago and other dead men from the river lay all day in the same place.

If that man, freed from civilization, amounts to nothing, EVERYBODY amounts to nothing.

What happened to his soul when the water choked him happens to others that die in soft beds, surrounded by expectant heirs.

At home yesterday, at 11 in the morning, Mussolini entered the Vatican for the first time in his life, and signed papers restoring the pope's temporal power, freeing the pope from self-imposed imprisonment that has lasted 50 years.

After signing, Mussolini "drove away at breakneck speed."

Fifteen years ago, a rampant radical, opponent of the church and organized government, Mussolini little thought that as head of the Italian government he was to sign an accord with the pope and unlock great bronze doors opened yesterday for the first time in 59 years to signalize the pope's personal freedom.

Beginning next week you may go from New York to Los Angeles by railroad and airplane in 60 hours. The New York Central and Pennsylvania railroads, with wide-awake presidents and financially powerful...

PATTY INQUEST SEES TALLMAN AS A SUSPECT

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—(AP)—A suit of oil spotted underwear, which police believed might have belonged to William L. Tallman, missing suspect in the Los Angeles "closet murder" was found washed upon Baker's Beach today near the spot where a life preserver from the steamer Admiral Benson was picked up yesterday.

The finding of garments, together with the discovery of the life preserver and a report that Tallman was seen in the engine room of the steamer as it entered the Golden Gate, inclined police to accept the theory that the radium man escaped arrest by jumping overboard and swimming ashore.

LOS ANGELES, June 8.—(AP)—William L. Tallman, 24 year old radio man, last night was recommended for apprehension and interrogation in the corner's jury verdict, following inquest into the death of pretty Mrs. Virginia Patty, 28, slain wife of a Portland business man, the verdict declared.

"We find the deceased came to her death through being struck on the head with a brick in the hands of a person unknown to us, but we recommend officers apprehend and interrogate William L. Tallman in the case," Tallman, who was placed under arrest aboard the steamer, Admiral Benson, en route to San Francisco, was missing from his stateroom when San Francisco officers boarded the vessel Wednesday night in San Francisco to take him to jail. Since then no clue has been found indicating the wireless operator's present whereabouts.

It was announced that the funeral of Mrs. Patty will take place this afternoon from an undertaking parlor.

STELLAR GOLF DISPLAYED FOR STATE LAURELS

Willing and Moe in Torrid Battle On First 18—Doctor One Up After Wood Wizardry On 16th—Mrs. Eva Leads Champion.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 8.—(AP)—Mrs. B. E. Eva was one up on the champion, Mrs. K. S. Reed, at the end of the first 18 holes of the Oregon women's state golf championship tournament here today. At the turn, Mrs. Eva had a six-hole advantage over the champion.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 8.—(AP)—Don Moe, defending champion, and Dr. O. F. Willing, challenger, staged one of the most terrific golf battles ever seen in Portland during the first 18 holes of the 36-hole Oregon state golf championship match here today. At the end of the morning play Willing stood one up on his young competitor. The medal score was, Dr. Willing 72 and Moe 73.

Dr. Willing started out by making three birdies in the first four holes on the Alderwood course. This was made in his putter and his iron were splitting the pin.

But even with this remarkable golf, Willing was only one up at the end of the first hour.

On the seventh Willing's drive went out of bounds, as did a brassie shot. The seventh ended with Moe conceding the doctor a 12-foot putt for a six, taking a five himself to square the match.

Moe won the ninth and was one up at the turn where the medal score was, Moe 36, Willing 38.

On the second nine Don got into two traps and the doctor squared the match with a par four to Moe's five.

A beautiful birdie two by Willing at the sixteenth got him his lead of one. He accomplished it by using his spoon for the drive and laid the ball within two feet of the hole after the gallery had shaken its head in disapproval.

DEEP THINKING STUDENT DEAD BY OWN HAND

Honor Man Flings Parting Shot at Prohibitionists in Note—Poems Tell of Love That 'Lighted and Then Flickered'

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—(AP)—Whether Bramwell Linn, 21, an honor student at Haverford college, whose body, with a bullet wound through the head, was found in his room on the campus, committed suicide or was slain, remain undetermined today.

The student was a son of Judge William B. Linn of the Pennsylvania superior court. He was to have been graduated today and was to have received a special prize for improvement in scholarship.

A note which Linn left, read: "The soggy old prohibitionists will get a great kick out of this. They'll say it was booze. But it was not. They'll say I was insane, but I'm not. I'm both sane and sober. I want to pass out of this life as unknown as I came into it."

Several poems were found on the floor beside Linn's body. Some of them told of love that had "lighted and then flickered."

TRAFFIC ASS'N TO RAISE FUNDS FOR RATE FIGHT

GRANTS PASS, Ore., June 8.—(AP)—The Western Oregon Traffic association will continue its fight to obtain lower freight rates for interior cities of this section of the state. Representatives of western Oregon cities from Eugene to Klamath Falls attended the meeting.

The association began its fight at Medford several months ago, and will now raise funds to prepare a brief to be presented at Washington.

PULCHRITUDE WILL PARADE AT GALVESTON

Mile Long Grandstand for Pageant of World Beauty—Foreign Girls Attract Attention—Name Winner Tuesday Night.

GALVESTON, Texas, June 8.—(AP)—A mile long grandstand before the Galveston seawall was in readiness for the opening this afternoon of the international pageant of pulchritude in which 44 beautiful girls from this country and abroad will vie for honors.

The beauties from foreign lands attracted much attention as they calmly awaited the contest, in which each hopes to be named "Miss Universe," but the American girls lacked only the exotic in their appeal to the fast swelling crowd of visitors.

A long round of pre-parade entertainment for the pretty candidates ends with a luncheon at noon today. Last night they appeared at a midnight show at a Galveston theater.

The sports clothes parade, the initial pageant attraction, starts at 8 o'clock this afternoon. Several other features will precede the choosing of "Miss Universe" Tuesday night.

Miss Kentucky, Katherine Arnold, the only girl ever to be given an officer's commission on the staff of the governor of Kentucky, arrived last night. Miss Arnold, whose home is in Danville, recently was named colonel on the staff of Governor Egan D. Simpson.

GROWTH OF PARTY TOLD IN PAGEANT

Republicans Celebrate Diamond Jubilee in Historic Little Wisconsin Town—Three Mile Parade Feature—Secretary Good Says Party to Continue Advance Welfare.

By Allen Dabrympic, Associated Press Staff Writer.

WISCONSIN, Wis., June 8.—(AP)—A 75-year-old echo was picked up in this historic little town today and amplified to gigantic proportions by the thousands who came to attend the Republican diamond jubilee celebration.

Its genesis was a meeting in 1854 of a handful of political-conscious pioneers who, moved by the crush-defeat of the Whig party and the threat of slavery to gain a foothold in the north, were determined on drastic action.

The same building that sheltered the leaders of this then remote hamlet, nestled in the green wooded hills of the new state of Wisconsin, was the center of today's ceremonies commemorating the birth of the Republican party three-quarters of a century ago.

Highly lodged with a visiting list four or five times greater than the total number of inhabitants. Approximately 20,000 persons were here for the celebration.

Fourteen bands, cavalry, military escorts, Ripon College R. O. T. C. unit, drum corps, historical floats and a two-ton elephant, symbol of the G. O. P., featured the three-mile parade which was to precede a pageant picturing the growth of the party.

Commemorating the 75th anniversary of the founding of the republican party, Secretary of War James W. Good declared that through Republican leadership the country reached its present state of prosperity, contentment and well being.

"The Republican party, born of people who brushed aside the pettiness of partisanship and the selfishness of personal ambitions, will continue to advance human welfare so that the comfort and joys of American life may become the common enjoyment of all," Secretary Good said.

SENATE HOPES TO PASS FARM RELIEF TODAY

Debtore Group May Not Be Able to Prevent Acceptance of Bill, Sans Export Provision—McNary Subjected to Grill.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—(AP)—Final disposition of farm relief legislation was undertaken in the senate today with doubt prevailing whether the export debenture group would be able to prevent acceptance of the farm bill agreed upon by the conference committee which eliminated that proposition.

The house approved the conference agreement yesterday. If the senate does likewise, the measure will go to President Hoover at once.

Asking approval of the conference bill, Senator McNary, of Oregon, in charge of the measure, declared he and other senate conferees had exhausted every argument to have the house vote on the debenture plan and failing to obtain it, had decided to recede from their support of the proposal.

Friends of the export debenture plan subjected McNary to a severe grilling in questioning him as to why the senate conferees had agreed to eliminate the plan. The senator, however, insisted that the senate conferees had done their best, but were forced to admit defeat.

Goes to Hospital

WILLIAM H. TAFT

WASHINGTON, June 8.—(AP)—Over-exertion on a recent trip to Cincinnati and all-day travel from there have sent Chief Justice Taft to Garfield hospital here for rest and observation. Hospital authorities say he is in no danger. Drs. Francis K. Hagner and Thomas A. Clayton, his personal physicians, believe a complete rest for several days will enable him to recuperate.

The chief justice had a brief visit to relatives at Cincinnati on the close Monday of the arduous winter sessions of the supreme court. He returned yesterday en route to his summer home in Canada, and disatisfied with his physical condition, he stopped for an examination and rest.

My colleagues and I were highly delighted to find the king looking so well and to see how magnificently he was able to go through the ceremony without any suggestion of strain," said Mr. MacDonald afterward. "Everything went off smoothly."

The king received the members of the cabinet one by one. Lord Parmour, lord president of the council, was the first to receive his seal, followed by the lord chancellor, Sir John Sankey, who was given the great seal of England. Mr. MacDonald was next and then came the other ministers in the order of their precedence.

LONDON, June 8.—(AP)—Miss Margaret Bondfield, minister of labor in the government of Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald and Great Britain's first woman cabinet officer, has earned her place as one of the staunchest and most able of her political faith.

Lady Astor, rock-ribbed conservative, said of her in 1924: "Maggie Bondfield is worth twice some of the men in the cabinet."

Lady Astor charged Mr. MacDonald's failure to appoint her then to anything more than parliamentary secretary to the labor ministry—not of cabinet rank—to "sublimely prejudice" against women on the part of all parties.

At a special meeting last night the city council passed an ordinance to sell the $120,000 new airport bond issue, also an ordinance to become effective immediately to curb the establishment of more used car lots in the inner fire limits of the city, and discussed at some length informally the proposed furnishing of water from the city's supply to adjoining districts and municipalities.

According to the ordinance passed, bids for the entire airport bond issue will be received and opened on June 25. These bonds are to be sold "to obtain the necessary funds to purchase an aviation field, level and otherwise improve same, and to build hangars and make other improvements in connection therewith."

The bonds will be in denominations of $1000 each, numbered 1 to 120, inclusive, to be dated July 1, 1929, to mature serially in numerical order at the rate of $12,000 per annum on the first day of July in each of the years 1931 to 1940, inclusive, the bonds to bear interest at the rate of five per cent per annum payable semi-annually on the first days of January and July of each year.

The ordinance prohibiting the location of any further used car lots in the inner fire limits without the consent of the council, provides a penalty of $100 for violation, and was passed as an emergency measure, which means that it goes into effect at once.

The preamble to the ordinance sets forth that whereas the increased use of vacant lots or premises in the inner fire limits is an unsightly and interferes with parking space and constitutes a serious fire hazard and will make it difficult if not impossible in many cases for the fire department to get access to adjoining buildings in the inner fire limits in case of fire.

Features of the ordinance provide that after its taking effect, it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to use any lot or premises within the inner fire limits of the city for a used car lot without first having obtained permission therefor from the city council. The ordinance shall not be construed to affect premises now used for used car lots, provided, however, that when any of said premises now used for a used car lot cease to be used for said purpose, the premises cannot be again used for a used car lot without obtaining permission from the council.

The ordinance further says that the increase in number of used car lots in the inner fire limits is creating a bad fire hazard, which hazard should be done away with as quickly as possible, and it is necessary for the peace, health and safety of the inhabitants of the city of Medford that immediate steps be taken to abate said fire hazard.

LABORITES GET SEALS OF OFFICE

MacDonald Cabinet Calls Upon King and Receives Symbols of Office—Monarch Stands Ceremony Well—First Woman Cabinet Member Praised by Lady Astor.

LONDON, June 8.—(AP)—The new labor cabinet of Ramsay MacDonald was in full office today.

Members of the cabinet journeyed to Windsor castle this morning, paid their respects to King George and returned to London bearing the seals of their office which the retiring conservative government members surrendered to his majesty yesterday.

My colleagues and I were highly delighted to find the king looking so well and to see how magnificently he was able to go through the ceremony without any suggestion of strain," said Mr. MacDonald afterward. "Everything went off smoothly."

Will Rogers Says: BEVERLY HILLS, Cal.

June 8.—Congress passed a bill Thursday to redistribute some new congressmen. The United Cigar Stores have just done away with giving out coupons and now the government has taken it up and is giving out congressmen instead. If you remember, this session of congress was called "just to relieve the farmer" so if you are a destitute farmer and can get enough other poor farmers to go in with you and sign the census rolls, why they will relieve your stranded condition by giving you another congressman. The only relief I can see out of it is send a fat one so they can eat him. Yours, WILL ROGERS.
