

ROSE FESTIVAL OPENED TODAY IN METROPOLIS

Royal Rosarians Unveil Portrait of Jesse A. Currey, Rose Culture Authority

Portland today paid homage to the rose and topped gay dress reserved exclusively for the annual festival of roses.

Royal Rosarians in regal garb opened the show today by unveiling a portrait of the late Jesse A. Currey, west coast authority on rose culture.

Of the 29 bands to march in the line of parade, six will be from visiting Shrine temples here on their way home from the conclave at Los Angeles.

Cities from Washington, California and Oregon have entered flowers in the floral parade.

Tomorrow night vesper services will be held in Civic stadium, with the voices of a thousand singers raised in hymns.

SEARS ROEBUCK DENY FLIVVER PLANE SALE

CHICAGO, June 8.—(AP)—Published reports that Sears Roebuck and company was marketing a small order "flivver" plane which would cost, knocked down, less than the lowest priced automobile, were denied today by officials of the company.

The report, they said, probably arose from the fact that such a plane has been on exhibition at the Sears Roebuck plant here. The mill order, however, does not contemplate placing the tiny monoplane on sale, and the exhibition was withdrawn today.

TEN THOUSAND ASKED FOR FORBES DEFAULT

CHICAGO, June 8.—(AP)—The Hartford Accident and Indemnity company must pay a $10,000 bond defaulted by Col. Charles D. Forbes, former head of the veterans' bureau, Federal judge James H. Wilkerson ruled yesterday.

Forbes, after serving two years in federal prison, filed a pauper's petition and served 30 extra days in default of a $1,000 fine imposed for fraud in connection with the awarding of contracts for veterans' hospitals.

OHIO SPEEDSTER AID TO VICTORY AT STAGG FIELD

STAGG FIELD, Chicago, June 8.—(AP)—With George Simpson, Ohio State speedster, eclipsing all world's records in winning the 100-yard dash in 9.4 seconds, Ohio State won the national collegiate A. A. track and field championship today with 54 points.

The University of Washington was second with 42, Illinois, the Te outdoor champion, was third with 35 1/2, Southern California fourth with 22, Stanford fifth with 28, Iowa sixth with 24, Michigan seventh with 22, and Pittsburgh eighth with 21.

The meet resulted in the smashing of two world's records and the establishment of two new records for the 200 yd. A. A. races. Price Rasmus, another Ohio State star, accounted for the other world mark by tossing the discus 159 feet 1 7/8 inches. This performance was turned in during the preliminaries yesterday, but stands in the records.

Pilot Falls Out Plane, Passenger "Does Something"

LE BOURGET, France, June 8.—(AP)—Deserted in an airplane, Lieutenant Ivonnet, an observer who knows naught of piloting, is all wrought up about it, but not bungled it. His pilot, Lieutenant Col. de la Haye, fell out while stunting and parachuted to the earth. Ivonnet did something or other to the dual control apparatus that brought the plane down in a creek, smashing it, but he saved himself. Then he said plenty to Collier.

FIVE PITCHERS DECORATE HILL AT SHIBE PARK

St. Louis Clubs Ehmke, Orwoll, Quinn, Rommel and Yerkes in Bat Festival—Yanks Again Victims of Cleveland Indians.

By William J. Chipman, Associated Press Sports Writer

The proceedings at Shibe Park yesterday fell far short of being any part of an Athletic holiday, but the antics of the Browns did enable several of the bench hands among the pitchers to get a few moments in the sun.

Turned back by Cleveland for the second successive afternoon, the Yankees dropped to third place behind the victorious Browns. The Hugmen remained seven and one-half games from the lead as the Browns reduced their own deficit to six and one-half contests.

The Indians defeated the Yanks by the effective process of running up a big early lead and holding it to win by 7 to 3. Washington fans saw a collapse of two pitching stiffs in the same park yesterday, when the Tigers rallied in the last two innings to defeat the Senators by 17 to 11.

The White Sox-Red Sox game at Boston was postponed on account of rain. The Giants continued their spurt at the expense of the Cardinals, winning the final game by 8 to 1 behind Carl Hubbell's fine pitching. This triumph extended the Giant streak to 14 out of 16 and x out of seven in the west.

The defeat dropped the Cardinals to third place, as the Cubs continued to feast upon the Robins, winning the third and last of the series, 11 to 2. Charlie Root pitched in an fine form as he has displayed this season.

The Pirates prevented the McGraw men from cutting down the margin between first place and fourth, winning again from the Braves, 6 to 2.

Donald Hirst hit his tenth home run at Cincinnati, but his wild throw in the 11th with a double play in sight, permitted Ford to score from second, and the Redlegs eased home in front.

ACCIDENT HANDS KRUSE UNEARNED FALL AND MATCH

A hold which appeared likely to end in his defeat, instead brought victory for Bob Kruse in his match last night here with Moose Norbeck, Canadian wrestler, at the Armory. The two wrestlers put up one of the roughest struggles seen here in months and were evenly matched.

Norbeck was ready to throw Kruse for the deciding fall with an airplane spin, but Norbeck could not complete the maneuver because Kruse had a tight grip on the ropes. Moose attempted to jerk him loose, but his foot caught in a loose portion of the mat, and he fell flat on his back with Kruse stretched on top. The climax came only a few minutes after wrestling for the third fall had begun.

Kruse, as usual, displayed dirty tactics, but this time his opponent demonstrated that two could play that game, and at times the men were chasing each other about the ring attempting to land kicks. Now and then a kick found its mark, and once Norbeck, as a result of a hard kick in the stomach, found himself on the other side of the ring. Such treatment aroused his ire, and immediately Moose started a barrage of kicks in the general direction of Kruse, who would always be a few feet ahead.

The Portland man took the first fall in 21 minutes, with a double wristlock and pin-hold, aided by choice kicking in the stomach while Norbeck was down. The kicking is believed to have been nearly as important as the hold in winning the fall.

Norbeck came back for the second fall a determined man, and placed many holds on Kruse, but found them reverse headlock the best used. With this hold, he won the fall in 12 minutes. Before winning he threw Kruse to the mat several times with clever head flipping.

Kruse came back for the third fall with a dangerous glut in his eye, but despite his determination, found himself unable to handle Norbeck, who had things coming his own way until he lost the match on a fluke.

Norbeck was determined to win as a matter of revenge for a match he lost to Kruse at Astoria, where the two men had engaged in a fat fight. Kruse was determined not to lose, as he had already lost two matches in succession in Portland, and a third defeat would lower him in the estimation of Portland and Oregon wrestling circles.

Appearances are still good that Kruse will appear here against Ira Dorn of Salt Lake City, who defeated the Portland man Wednesday evening. Kruse claims he believes he can throw Dorn and that the latter won the match on a fluke. If Dorn can not take part, Jack Romano, Los Angeles wrestler, will meet Kruse, probably in a week or so.

In the preliminaries, Joe Corbett of Roseburg defeated Curly Woods in 15 minutes. Corbett appeared in better condition, while Curly, though displaying good ability, did not have the endurance. In the first preliminary, Dummy Powell and Bill Davis wrestled a draw.

The Belgian government has decided to set up a special radio commission.

WISCONSIN DRIES FRAME NEW LAW

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 8.—(AP)—A new prohibition law, even more stringent than the repealed Severson law, will be submitted to the next legislature, officers of the Wisconsin Anti-Saloon League declared today.

F. Scott McBride, national superintendent, met with state officers yesterday to discuss Wisconsin's prohibition status. A campaign would be launched immediately to elect a dry legislature at the next election, the Rev. Warren Jones, state superintendent, said. After electing dry legislators, Mr. Jones continued, a new prohibition enforcement act will be framed and submitted.

"We elected a dry legislature in Wisconsin in 1920," he said, "and we're going to do it again in 1929."

MONTANANS DIE IN CLOUDBURST

WIBAUX, Mont., June 8.—(AP)—Four persons were dead, several missing and 500 homeless today after a cloudburst had sent a 15-foot wall of water roaring through the center of this town Thursday night. Property damage was estimated at $800,000.

A number of farmers living north and south of the town and in the path of the flood, have not been accounted for, and it was feared the names might be added to the casualty toll when wire communication is restored and complete reports received.
