

BLIND FOLK GIVEN DOLE IN CHICAGO

Seven Hundred Afflicted Tap Way to County Office for Quarterly Checks—Children Act As Guides—Place No Dependence in Mails—Few Arrive in Automobiles.

CHICAGO, June 11.—(AP)—Blind men, blind women, 700 of them, tapping along with their canes, picking their way carefully up the streets of 1908 West Park street. Pensioners come for their dole.

So many blind people at one time, so many different types of blind people. Some wore the mendicant's sign, "I am blind." These were the beggars who live by the alms of those who can see, and who can sympathize. Many others came led by children; still others in the care of adults. One or two arrived in automobiles.

Out of the 700 who tapped their uncertain way into the county agent's office yesterday, not one was led by a dog. That seemed strange to those who observed and who had read stories of blind men and the dogs that lead them. But all carried canes.

The 700 represented all but a few of the Cook county blind eligible for quarterly checks. It is a psychology of the blind, said Joseph Moore, director of the office, that they collect their checks in person, not even depending upon the mails. Being blind, they seem to want to do for themselves all that they can.

Each check was for $99, $1 a day, paid half by the county and half by the state to every blind person whose annual income is less than $465. Some pensioners have been receiving checks since 1924, though only within the year has it been $30 a quarter. It formerly was $20.

Cook county's pocketbook has been thin for many months, but yesterday it did not neglect to have $53,000 ready for those who walk in darkness.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 11.—(AP)—His airplane blazed, Pilot Chas. A. Rector landed his three-passenger plane safely after a three-mile flight. Rector's hand was scorched and the plane damaged.

RAIN DAMAGE TO EAGLE POINT HAY NOT YET SERIOUS

EAGLE POINT, Ore., June 11. (Special)—The rains of the past week have held up the farmers who had cut the first crop of alfalfa. The hay that is down is not damaged to any extent, so if this present fine weather holds up, there will be a regular rush of farm work.

Mrs. Merritt Brown, who was on the sick list for quite a while, is now able to be around again very greatly improved.

O. T. Morgan is about as usual, very cheerful and improving slowly, and is waiting patiently for the warm weather so that he can be out in the sunshine.

Fred Stanley has resumed his summer work of riding after the cattle for the association.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Payne and daughter, Dorothy, and Miss Iva Dillard of Alturas, Calif., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hammel on the Crater Lake highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Robinson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Damon and son, Robert, and Peter Simon took dinner Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Childers.

Mr. and Mrs. William Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Jacks and son, Merle, and Alex Vestal attended the Grange meeting at Central Point Friday.

Leroy Smith is on the sick list. It is feared he has pneumonia. He is taking treatments at Medford.

Gay Fruit, who has been in the Sacred Heart hospital at Medford, returned home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Coy called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hammel, at which time Mr. Coy delivered a load of farm implements.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruford Simmons and little daughter, Myrna, of Laneview, Waco, were in Eagle Point Monday and enjoyed a pleasant visit with Mrs. Howell.

Mr. and Mrs. Simmons were en route to Los Angeles, Calif., where they will visit with his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Newman. Mr. Simmons, Jr., is the son of Mr. Simmons, Sr., formerly of Eagle Point.

Homer Elwood and Donald Meadows were in Eagle Point Monday. They were returning from the Antelope district, where they had just installed a new Gillfillan radio.

William Miller, graduate of the Eagle Point high school of the class of '28, who has been attending the Agricultural college at Corvallis, arrived home Thursday and will spend his summer vacation on the ranch with his mother, Mrs. Bitterling.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sample and daughter, Miss Nancy, and son, Jimmie, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Vestal and family this week.

Next Sunday, June 16, the Presbyterian Sunday school will meet as usual at 10 o'clock. The lesson for next Sunday is found in XIII Kings 25:1-12, Judah taken captive. Preaching services at 11 o'clock by Mr. Davidson. There will be a special number by the choir. There will not be any Christian Endeavor meeting until further notice.

Roy Stanley took his cattle to the mountains Friday and was assisted by Fred Stanley and Bertland, the youngest buckaroo. They returned Sunday and will commence making hay on their farm in Brownsville as soon as the weather is settled.

The moisture evaporated from a single white oak in a day has been estimated to be 150 gallons of water.

VACATION BIBLE STUDY AT EAGLE POINT OPENS MONDAY MORNING 17

EAGLE POINT, Ore., June 11. (Special)—The daily vacation Bible school will commence at the Presbyterian church on Monday morning, June 17, at 9 o'clock, and all parents are urged to cooperate with the instructors and workers who are planning on giving their time to this work, and send their children to the school, which will be in session during the morning of each week day. Mr. and Mrs. Davidson will have charge of the meetings.

All those who attended the Children's day program at the Presbyterian church enjoyed a real treat Sunday morning. There was an attendance of 92, and the program consisted of songs, recitations and two short plays and a short talk by Mrs. Davidson, which was greatly enjoyed. Rev. Davidson addressed the congregation at the close of the program. A special number was rendered by the church quartet with Mrs. Davidson at the piano.

An enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Middleton, Saturday, June 8, playing cards. Four tables were in play. The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kent, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lay, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Davies, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Seaman, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Clements. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

AT THE RIALTO

John Barrymore in "Tempest" is now playing at the Rialto. It is a colossal human "heart storm" in which a soldier hero struggles with love and tyranny. It is not a war picture. This drama of modern Russia fluctuates between the hard-bitten life of a frontier barracks and the allurements of imperial palaces, and blends the affairs of six memorable characters in a suspenseful and epic conflict.

Barrymore, as Ivan Markov, an aspiring sorcerer, steals a kiss from a Romanoff princess. The results of this act follow them both through the revolution and into a tremendous climax. Camilla Horn is the heroine. Others are Louis Wolheim, George Pawcett, Boris de Foa and Ulrich Haupt, Wolheim achieving a classic humorous hit.

AT HUNT'S CRATERIAN

Walter Huston, who gave notable legitimate stage performances as leading man in Eugene O'Neill's play, "Desire Under the Elms," "The Barker" and "Elmer the Great," has the principal role in the all-talking production of the Ward Morehouse stage success, "Gentlemen of the Press," which is playing now at Hunt's Craterian.

Huston, in addition to his success on the legitimate and vaudeville stages, has been unusually successful recently in talking moving pictures.

At the Isis Although he is a bridegroom of but a few months, Joseph Jackson frankly admits he is the author of "On to Reno," a sophisticated comedy-drama of divorce, starring Marie Prevost at the Isis theatre. Jackson, a specialist in motion picture advertising and publicity, recently was married to Ethel Shannon, a screen player. Cullen Landis plays opposite the star.

TALENT AUTOISTS HIT BY TOURISTS. CAR, OVERTURNED

(By Mrs. Marion Trayer) TALENT, Ore., June 11.—(Special)—What might have resulted in a fatal accident occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Eaton Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Eaton had been to Talent from their home on the Pacific highway and were just entering their place from the road.

Mr. Eaton had signaled and had slowed down to take the turn and when a car driven by Mrs. Carrie O. Weinstock from Montana caught the front fender in the spare tire on the back of the other car, causing the Eaton car to swerve directly around opposite the way they were going, tipping the car over on its side, pinning the car over on its side, pinning the car over on its side, pinning the car over on its side.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jenkins, from Ashland, were visiting with friends in Talent Friday. Mr. Jenkins later sold his property here and moved to Ashland, but he says Talent looks pretty good yet.

Mrs. V. V. Helbig arrived from Eugene the first of the week and spent the day at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Long. When she returned home she was accompanied by her sister, Miss Iris Long, who will spend a month in the city. She will also visit with another sister, Mrs. H. McIntyre, who also lives in Eugene.

Mrs. Malvin McGrew was taken to the Community hospital in Ashland Wednesday in a critical condition. She was operated on for appendicitis, the appendix having broken before she was removed to the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Elinger from Turlock, California, arrived by motor the first of the week, and are house guests of their brother-in-law, Mr. Tom Lamb. They expect to remain about two weeks.

Mr. Glenn Eaton arrived Thursday evening from Santa Ana, California, and visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Eaton, returning to California Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Bond spent Thursday afternoon in Medford attending to business affairs.

Miss Edna Wisley of Medford, who taught the fifth and sixth grades the past year in the Talent school, left for San Diego, California, where she will spend her vacation. She will return here in the fall where she will resume her duties in the room which she taught last year.
