BANQUET FISK TIRE DEALERS BIG SUCCESS

The Fisk tire dealers and auto dealers, whose cars are equipped with Fisk tires, were given a banquet at the Medford hotel last night by F. H. Manning, northwest district manager for the company.

Dealers from Jackson, Josephine and Klamath counties attended and the success of the evening was due partially to the work of Sam Jennings, local Fisk dealer. Mr. Manning was much gratified by the 100 per cent attendance.

After the banquet, at which Mr. Manning presided, moving pictures of the Fisk factory, showing the process of manufacture of these well known tires, were presented, with comments by Mr. Manning.

A. W. Oya took Mr. Manning for a drive over the valley, showing the orchards, factory districts, airport and other points of interest. He was delighted with the trip and said "Your slogan 'This Is a Great Country', is truly well chosen, but you should let people know more about your city and valley."

"I enjoyed a game of golf on the Rogue River course yesterday, and you can understand my appreciation when I tell you I have played on many courses, and I consider this one of the nicest I have visited."

OPEN LAKE OF WOODS ROAD IN SHORT TIME

Fishing is good at the Lake o' the Woods and the road to that resort from Ashland promises to be open in ten days, according to Fred Wahl, who is interested in the Lake o' the Woods Improvement company. Trips to the lake so far this spring have been made around through Klamath Falls, entailing a trip of 115 miles, all of which is on good road.

Despite the long trip, a good many Medford people have been visitors at the lake for two weeks past, and all have been reporting bass and trout fishing to be excellent. Mr. Wahl was there Saturday evening and today said one fisherman caught a good sized basket full in less than a half hour.

The improvement company has a force of ten men at work building cabins and completing a new lodge and lounging place for campers. The construction work is expected to be completed in a short time, with the exception of additional cabins. The coffee shop is open and the resort store was recently opened by Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Terrill.

Wall Street Report

NEW YORK, June 12. — (AP) — Quiet strength characterized today's stock market. Prices slipped off moderately in the early trading in sympathy with the decline in wheat futures, but fresh buying support quickly appeared and the market rallied again.

Public utility and several high-priced shares moved up during the last hour in contrast with the liquidation in other sections of the list. Auburn Auto rose 15 points to a new high, while Midland Steel Products preferred gained 12, Allis-Chalmers and American Waterworks and Electric 8 each. On the other hand, Universal Leaf Tobacco lost 7¼ points to 71, and National Bellas Hess 2¼ to 48, both new lows for the year. Allied Chemical was down 4 points, while Commercial Solvents was off 10 points. New York Central and Southern Pacific sagged substantially. The close was irregular. Total sales approximated 3,300,000 shares.

Drama Underworld Life at the Rialto

"Stool Pigeon," which is coming to the Rialto theater tomorrow, is a gripping drama woven around the daily lives of those who follow the crooked path and run afoul of the law. It throbs with heart interest and presents characters that become real pals, loyal unto death.

A beautiful love interest is introduced between a girl of the underworld and a "mother's boy." Tense situations and thrilling sequences follow one another.

KING CITY, Cal.—(AP)—Bodies of two young sons of A. Antongonini, Greenfield dairyman, were found buried under a sand bank on their father's ranch. A cave they were digging collapsed over them.

SANTA ROSA, Cal.—(AP)—John Kemper, attacked by a nine-foot octopus at Point Arena, killed it after a battle with the creature.
