DAWES IS SILENT ON MESSAGE

New Ambassador to St. James Welcomed in London Port—Refuses Interview On Word From Hoover to MacDonald—Presents Credentials to King Saturday Morning.

SOUTHAMPTON, England, June 14.—(AP)—Ambassador Charles G. Dawes, newly accredited to Great Britain, today accepted the welcome of this city on disembarking. Dressed in a light gray suit, he declined to be interviewed. General Dawes expressed his delight over coming to England as the American ambassador, but would make no disclosure of any message he might be hearing from President Hoover to Premier Ramsay MacDonald.

"I quite understand the interest of the press in my official instructions," he said when besieged by reporters, "but no doubt the press from the liner Olympic and intention to be interviewed."

Replying to speeches of welcome the new ambassador recalled an historic occasion 12 years ago when he, with the 17th United States Engineers, embarked on a battleship at Southampton "to go to France to join the fighting alongside the glorious British army."

General Dawes confirmed news of his plan to go Saturday night to confer with Premier MacDonald in Scotland. He said he would present his credentials tomorrow to King George at Windsor, and see the wisdom of my declining with a soft grey hat, the new American ambassador was cheered by hundreds of Englishmen, as he left the Olympic to take the train to London.

He exchanged handshakes with scores of friends, replying with a laughing negative when he was asked to comment on his instructions.

Mrs. Dawes and the general's nephew, Henry Dawes, who is acting as his secretary, accompanied the ambassador. Ray Atherton, American charge d'affaires, was present to greet his new chief.

Mother of Eight Boys

"I read an ad in the newspaper and I started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I will recommend this medicine to any woman who is in bad shape like I was. I used to get so tired after a few hours' work that I was even afraid in my own house in the daytime. I didn't care if I lived or died. I have given birth to eight boys and feel strong right after, since I have taken the Compound."

—Mrs. Maud Meyers, 460 E. 13th Street, Dubuque, Iowa.

Bees Follow Master. DURHAM, N. H.—(AP)—The late Charles James, professor of chemistry at the University of New Hampshire, had 14 hives of bees. He cared for them personally. Recently a swarm disappeared. It was found on flowers on his grave.
