CHICAGO ENTRY STEPS TO FORE OVERCARDINALS

Cubs Win Twin Bill From Champs — Pirates Take Second Place, Shade Under Leaders — McGraw Clan Creeping Upward.

By William J. Chipman
Associated Press Sports Writer.
The National league riot struck a new high note of tumult yesterday, and when all the debris had been cleared away the unruly Cubs were found clinging to the top perch by the margin of their fingernails. The men of McCarthy slammed the Cardinals generously by scores of 7 to 3 and 7 to 3, running their string over the champions to three straight. The Pirates stayed off two Cincinnati rallies to win by 6 to 5, and in company with the Cubs, stepped to a position one ahead of the Cardinals, erstwhile leaders.

The Bruins and the Buccaneers joined hands gaily in one of those "virtual ties," but the Chicago entry stood five percentage points forward through the time-honored process of having lost fewer games. The Giants, meanwhile, were winning two from the Phillies, and so reducing the margin between themselves and all the other contenders save the Cubs. The clan McGraw remained three and one-half games behind the little Braves, but with the important difference that the little Braves had stepped into first place as related.

Steve Swetonic seemed not to know what to do with a six run lead in Cincinnati yesterday, and to save himself from heart failure, Donnie Rush rushed Carmen Hill to the mound in time to shade the Reds at the finish.

The Giants won two games from the Phillies, as reported, but the New Yorkers were in serious difficulties through most of the 11-inning opener before finally pulling it out by the back-of score of 15 to 14. Chuck Klein of the Phillies got his eighteenth homer, which led Hafez for the league lead. The Giants won the second game by 12 to 6.

The Boston Braves won a pair from the Brooklyn by 8 to 4 and 9 to 6.
The most important action along the American league front was the return of Babe Ruth to active campaigning at the Yankee stadium and Lou Gehrig's nineteenth home run at the same inclosure. The Yankees defeated the Red Sox, of course, by 13 to 2, and so reduced the margin of the idle Athletics to seven and one-half games, but this questionable success was tempered by the announcement that Henry Johnson would be unable to pitch in the big series against the leaders. Johnson, inactive since June 9, is suffering from a strained back. Detroit defeated Cleveland by 8 to 3 in a six-inning game halted by rain, and the Browns won from the White Sox by 8 to 3 in other American league engagements. The Senators and the Athletics were idle.

GRUDGE MATCH IS SEEN IN MONDAY'S BOUT AT ARMORY

Following the demonstration of his ability last Tuesday in his match with Bob Kruse of Portland, at the Armory, the return match next Monday night between Jack Romona, handsome Italian wrestler of Los Angeles, promises to be one of the classic events of the season. Romona, who has been only rarely defeated, has his heart set on revenge, and is determined to throw Kruse in two straight falls.
Perhaps nothing would please local fans more than to witness the Portland man's defeat, because of his questionable ring tactics, including every type of roughness known in the business. Kruse has made himself unpopular in Medford by his continued repetition of roughing up his opponent by kicking, slugging, hair-pulling, eye-poking and jumping. Fans take great delight in greeting him with a varied assortment of cat-calls and "boos," and always favor the other man to win.
Their wishes in Monday night's match may be gratified, as Romona, whose ability is practically unquestioned, has learned more of Kruse's style of wrestling, and will probably depend more on the headlock hold, with which he made Kruse groggy several times Tuesday night. Romona is young, has just as much endurance as Kruse, and appearances are he can take more punishment. He can also break holds quicker and is the faster man. When he lost the third fall in the last match, it was not due to Kruse's ability, but a lucky break.

The Portland man, after taking the fall, was hardly able to arise and leave the ring, being thoroughly exhausted and suffering from progress caused by a series of headlocks. A leg strangle, which accidentally worked, won him the fall.

PEARPICKERS TO PLAY IN KLAMATH SUNDAY

The Medford baseball team will journey to Klamath Falls next Sunday for a game with the Klamath Falls team, on their home lot. Klamath won their first game with Medford in a ten-inning battle two weeks ago.

The Medford team early in July will play the House of David team. This is the hickshaker squad that played here last year. The last work in July the locals will play a colored House of David team, also headed.

A game is scheduled with Bend for the first Sunday in August.

OUT & KEELER'S GOLF BAG

By O. O. Keeler
All innovations are met by opposition, hither and yon. The proposed new standard golf ball, larger and lighter than the 1.62 ball under the present standard, is meeting furious opposition among the duffers, who imagine, with no very good reason, that it will curtail their range on the infrequent occasions when they manage to get the club and the ball in approximately correct contact.
The rubber-cored ball, which made its appearance about 1902, was opposed bitterly until Sandy Herd espoused it—and won his first and only British open championship with it. The gutta-percha itself was opposed, when it was first presented—in a crude, hand-marked form—in the days when Allan Robertson was king of the professional realm in Britain.
Allan Robertson was born in 1825 and died at the age of 34, in 1859, the greatest golfer of his day. He looks much older than he could have been, due to a fine fringe of whiskers, in the reproduction of an old lithograph I saw the other day in Golf Illustrated.
Indeed, there is a third record to his credit, though not on the golf course. He was a maker of "featheries," and as player and manufacturer he despised the "gully" and never approved it. The "featherie" was made largely in Holland at that time, by a slow and laborious hand process. A leather cover was sewn up, all but one small opening, dampened, set in a frame with a spherical hollow, the size of the ball, and feathers—of all material!—packed in tightly with mallet and a packing-tool, the sewing then being completed. As the cover dried it contracted somewhat, making a fairly hard and durable ball, unless it got wet, when it went lopsided and began to sprout feathers.
And old Allan Robertson in a single year turned out by himself 2,456 "featheries"! That, I think, ought to be a third record.

GAME SATURDAY WILL ELIMINATE ONE TEAM IN JUNIOR BASEBALL

The playoff Saturday, for the privilege of entering the district finals of the American Legion Junior Baseball league, will be keenly contested no doubt, as either Medford or Roseburg will be eliminated from further competition by this game.
The winner of the district championship will enter the state tournament of the American Legion National Junior Baseball competition. Thousands of teams of boys have

REIGH COUNT IS NERA WINNER OF ASCOT RACE

ASCOT, Eng., June 20.—(AP)—Reigh Count, America's leading 3-year-old of last year, ran the best race of his career today but failed to annex the gold cup for which he came overseas.
The race was won again, as last year, by Reid Walker's Iversin, with Reigh Count second and the French horse, Palais Royal II, owned by H. Whitlock, third.
Iversin nosed past the judges' box two lengths ahead of Mrs. John D. Hert's American colt, which was ridden by the English jockey, H. Wragg. Palais Royal II was three lengths back of Reigh Count for third place in the field of 13.
Reigh Count was made the favorite in betting both before and during the race, going to the post at 4 to 1. The winner paid 8 to 1, while the odds on the French horse to win were 10 to 1.

The gold cup, run over a two and one-half mile route, was worth 2500 pounds sterling (about $12,500), to the winner in addition to the cup valued at 500 pound sterling, or about $2500.

Young Comedy Team, Rialto

"Girls Gone Wild," first co-featured vehicle for the new team of youngsters—Sue Carol and Nick Stuart—comes to the Rialto theater today.
It is a story of the jazz age, revolving about a high-stepping high school crowd of which Babs Hollywood is the leader.
Sue Carol, played by Sue Carol, is the leader.
Nick Stuart has the role of Buck Brown, son of a traffic cop, who is dazed by the wealthy and effervescent Babs.

Don't let Rheumatism

make an invalid of you—S.S.S. stands ready to knock it out.

THOSE muscular pains, commonly called rheumatism, are generally due to a run-down condition, with the number of red-blood-cells below the normal count.

S.S.S. aids the system in building up these red-blood-cells and in getting rid of the condition of which the rheumatism is but a symptom. The body becomes strong and disease-resistant, and the rheumatic pains go.

Pains in your muscles and joints make you miserable, less efficient, interfere with your working hours, ruin your sleep. If allowed to continue, as the years pass the danger increases.

But what a change with rich, red-blood-cells in your body—Nature's building material—making the flesh firm—giving strength to the vital organs.

You can't rub rheumatism out. It is deeper than that. It must be knocked out. And the sure way is by helping the fighting blood—the red-blood-cells!

Fights Last Night

(By the Associated Press.)
MONTREAL.—Jackie Cohen, New York, won on a foul from Andre Roubin, world's featherweight champion, (6); non-title.

DAVENPORT, Ia.—Tuffy Griffith, Sioux City, Ia., knocked out Johnnie Krueger, San Francisco, (2).

ST. LOUIS.—Jackie Fields, Los Angeles, knocked out Jack Horner, St. Louis, (4).

WALLACE, Ida.—Fred Lehman, Spokane, outpointed "Young" Firpo, Burke, Ida., (12).

Union Oil company's Glendale plant completed.

Increase your army of "workers" (red-blood-cells), and those muscle and joint pains, commonly called rheumatism, vanish. S.S.S. has brought this change about for thousands. Why not for you?

"After suffering several years, six bottles of S.S.S. completely relieved me of rheumatism. It also cleared up a skin eruption and gave me a good appetite. I think S.S.S. is a wonderful medicine."—R. L. Busie, Southern Railway, Knoxville, Tenn.
