

ATTENDANCE AT CRUCIAL SERIES SET A RECORD

EDWINSTON, BAILEY BEAT COLLEGIANS NET TILT OPENER

Yankee-Athletic Argument Drew 184,095 Spectators in Three Days—Mackmen On Long End of Series, Three to Two.

Medford's summer tennis tournament got under way at the high school courts Sunday with the order of the day in both singles and doubles. Under a sweltering sun all of the first round matches and a number of the second round were run off.

By William J. Chipman, Associated Press Staff Writer. That hysteria in and about the Yankee stadium how is recent rather than current, and the boys are busy checking up the net result, artistic and financial. The Athletics tipped the champions by a 4-3 score before game 35,000 in the fifth and rubber game yesterday, but the really important transaction took place in the counting house. Exactly 184,095 New York fans paid their way at the gate in three days, making the series a complete victory for Edward Grant Barrow, regardless of what happened to Huggins.

Edwinston, Bailey and former Oregon champion, paired with Jimmy Edmonson, local high school champion, took Tolleson and Kirkpatrick, former college stars, placed to win the tournament, into camp by scores of 6-2, 4-5. Kathleen and Boggs, Ashland Normal entry in the doubles, beat Elson and Carlo, Medford high entry, in the only other doubles match played, 8-6, 6-5.

The attendance set a new record for a single series, beating the mark of 177,152 made by the same team at the same park last September in three afternoons.

Raymond Fish, former southern Oregon champion, almost caught a Tartar in little Buddy Garfield, diminutive high school player, who was on top of his game and forced Fish to retire, 7-5, 7-5.

Although the victory of the Athletics by three games to two was, of itself, hardly decisive, the lead of the Mackmen was stretched to eight and one-half games, and the impression spread among metropolitan fans that here, indeed, were the coming champions. The current Athletics have in the face of Yankee fire a confidence lacking by their immediate predecessors, and ability to stand up before the Hugmen is all that was missing in the Mackmen last year.

Harry Butler, newsy addition to the local tennis colony, showed he is capable of some finished tennis when he disposed of "Bittered" Kathleen, Ashland Normal star, 6-9, 6-1, in the second round. Jimmy Edmonson also came through in excellent shape in his second round match when he put Kirkpatrick, former Washington State college star out, 6-2, 6-2.

The final game was a triumph for Howard Elmsie, the veteran right-hander, although George Earnshaw had to be called in the eighth to put down a Yankee unblinking which threatened to assume the proportions. The series ended without the appearance of Eddie Hommel, the knuckle ball expert, who never seemed to fool the Yankees.

Both singles and doubles matches will be played this evening and tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock. Wilson will tackle Tolleson in the quarter final.

Coast League Yesterday

By The Associated Press. R. H. E. Sacramento 5 4 9 Portland 9 7 1 Batteries: Keating and Severeid; Porterfield and Woodall.

The defeated pitcher yesterday was another left-hander and the third Yankee south-paw victim of the series—Eddie Wells. The Birmingham boy's customary wildness showed, but the Messrs. Simmons and Fox made up for this little oversight with successive home runs in the seventh. Mr. Mule Hines so caught the spirit that he hammered Wells' rescuer, Tom Zachary, for a four-batter within the lot in the eighth.

Second game—R. H. E. Sacramento 10 18 1 Portland 4 15 1 Batteries: Cano and Koehler; Mahaffey, Ortnan and Rego; Woodall.

It was Simmons' eighteenth, Fox's thirteenth and Hines' ninth. Simmons might have had an earlier home-run in the second when he limped palpably on a triple because of his bar ankles. Now that the Yankee series is over, Simmons may remain out of the game to rest his rather limber, but the real misfortune for the Ruppert-Huggins combination seems to be that Simmons did not arrive at this decision earlier. Here is what he did to the champions in three days:

National League. R. H. E. Philadelphia 4 15 1 St. Louis 35 24 593 Detroit 34 29 311 Cleveland 27 29 474 Washington 24 23 421 Chicago 22 40 355 Boston 19 43 366

Games, 5; at bat, 21; runs, 10; hits, 13; total bases, 26; two-base hits, 3; three-base hits, 1; home runs, 4; runs batted in, 9; average, .619.

Second game—R. H. E. Hollywood 8 19 2 Los Angeles 2 6 1 Batteries: Shellenback and Bassler; Holling, Baecht, Montgomery and Warren.

Yankee-Giants combination seems to be that Simmons did not arrive at this decision earlier. Here is what he did to the champions in three days:

PLACID WATERS FOR SHELLS IN POUGHKEEPSIE

Intense Humidity Greeted Thousands of Fans and 22 Crews in Hudson Regatta—California, Columbia Choice of Fans.

By Alan J. Gould (Associated Press Sports Editor) POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 24.—(AP)—Overcast skies, intense humidity and placid waters greeted the incoming thousands arriving here this morning for the intercollegiate regatta in which 22 crews from nine colleges row late today.

The weather experts prophesied good water conditions but expected also heavy showers might develop in the afternoon. Fully 100,000 spectators are expected to witness the regatta.

The advance forecast of expert opinion bracketed the details of the world's champion Californians and New York's own Columbian, 1927 champions and 1928 runners-up, as co-favorites in the varsity struggle, but there was a distinctly milder opinion that anything might happen with the shells sweeping down the old Hudson.
