It costs no more to own a Reo than any good $1000 car

Maybe you've thought that a Reo Flying Cloud was beyond your means. But let's consider! A hundred dollars, or so, more on the down-payment, possibly three additional payments, and you've cleared up the first cost difference—a difference which a Reo Flying Cloud will ultimately save you in repairs alone. Reos are not built on the "one-year—two-year—trade-in" basis. They are built to give outstanding service for four, six, or even more, years—to be running well long after the ordinary car has outlived its usefulness.

More than that: a Reo gives you a degree of road performance and mechanical dependability that can fairly be compared only with that rendered by cars in the highest price-field. You will get a pleasure and continued satisfaction that you have never experienced... And it will cost you actually less than it would to run a $1000 car.

Now you can have a Reo Flying Cloud at a lower price than ever before.

Reo Flying Clouds are priced at the factory as follows: 5-Passenger Sedans $1395, Sport $1445, Master $1745, Sport $1870, Car of the Month $1970, 2-Passenger Coupe $1325, Sport $1475, 2-4-Passenger Coupe $1395, Sport $1495, Master $1625, Sport $1750, 5-Passenger Brougham, Master $1595, Sport $1720, 4-Passenger Victoria, Master $1695, Sport $1820, Roadster, Master $1685, Sport $1810.
