

YANK TOREADOR GORED BY BULL BACK FOR MORE

Spain Acclaims Sydney Franklin for Sunday Stunt — Leaves Hospital to Dispatch Animal—Senoritas Wave Shawls.

SEVILLE, Spain, July 1.—(AP)—Sporting Spain today acclaimed Sydney Franklin, Brooklyn bull fighter. He suffered injuries here at the horns of his bull yesterday, was sent to a hospital, but returned in time finally to dispatch the animal.

Franklin, wearing a tobacco brown jacket with gold trimmings, had his cape caught in the horns of his second bull of the day. The bull, a huge black beast, twisted his head and downed the American, who was bruised and badly mauled before his fellows in the ring could get him away.

He was taken immediately to a clinic, where his wounds were dressed. Meanwhile back at the arena the "espada," or second man in the ring, made ready to substitute for Franklin in killing the bull. He had just entered the ring when Franklin himself appeared, and despite many bandages, insisted on completing the job himself.

He obtained a new sword and made short shrift of the animal, the audience giving him an ovation. This was inspired partly by his good luck in escaping the bull, and partly by his courage in coming back and vindicating his skill in the arena.

The bull was Franklin's second of the afternoon, the first, a bay animal, having outplayed him slightly. Franklin's first "muñeta" failed to hurt the animal and a second was required. This extra trial dimmed the enthusiasm of the huge audience, many of whom had come a great distance either afoot or in ox carts to witness the performance of the "Yankee Toreador."

The huge arena was filled, with women wildly waving their shawls in their enthusiasm, and as many of the younger and more beautiful senoritas wearing the classic mantilla.

FAREWELL LUNCH FOR WALTHER IS GIVEN BY COPCO

A farewell luncheon was held by the Copco employees' club this noon in honor of L. B. Walther and Miss Alvina Boland, former Copco employees, who leave shortly for Rio de Janeiro, where Mr. Walther will accept a position with the American and Foreign Power corporation. J. J. Buchter, Copco merchandise manager, acted as toastmaster and introduced the various speakers, who paid tribute to their former "partners in progress."

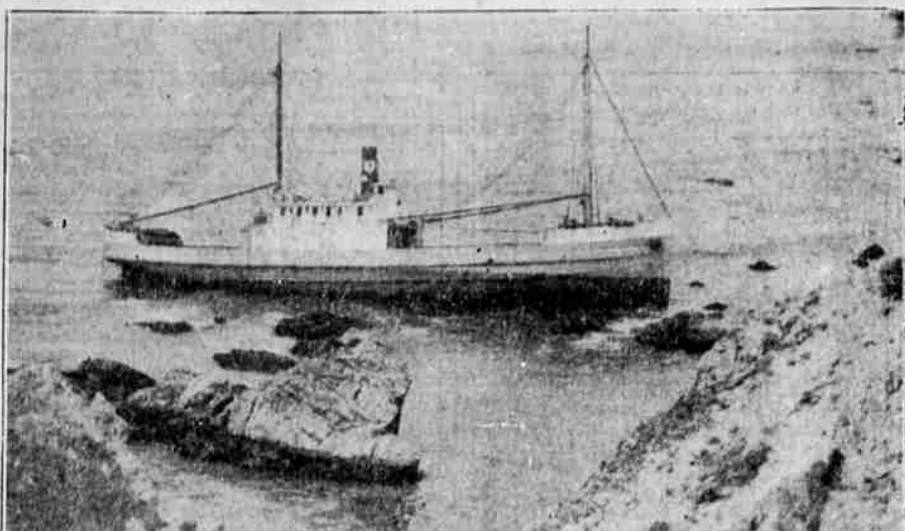

A clever skit entitled "The Wedding" was put on by the Copco Forum. Miss Carol Petty acting as the bride, Fred King as the groom and Lloyd Williamson as the minister. The play, which was dedicated to Mr. Walther and his fiancée, Miss Alvina Boland, made a big hit with all present.

Mr. Buchter, in speaking of the "series of battles" which the new bride and groom will shortly engage in, recalled the battle of San Juan Hill in which he participated just 31 years ago today. He reviewed the pleasant relations the Copco family had enjoyed with the honor guests for the past seven years and stated that the couple had many friends in the organization as well as outside, who regretted their departure, but wished them well in their new field of endeavor. He also called upon C. M. Brewer, the vice-president and general manager; T. G. Bradley, general superintendent, and O. A. Eden, newly appointed purchasing agent, for a few remarks.

In behalf of the Copco employees, Lloyd Williamson presented Mr. Walther with a handsome desk, emblematic of his former "partners in progress." "T. B." responded with a few words of appreciation, expressing regret at leaving the Copco group and Medford and assuring those present that this would be his first stop when he returned to America. He also introduced the future Mrs. Walther, who made a short talk of appreciation to the forum. Mr. Walther and Miss Boland will be married in San Francisco this week, leaving for Rio de Janeiro about Aug. 1.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 1.—(AP)—Directors of the Pacific Coast baseball league met here today and voted to split the season. A bonus of $10,000 to be hung up as a prize in a championship post-season series playoff for the winners of the two halves was approved. The San Francisco Missions were declared winners of the first half. The second half begins tomorrow.

AMELIA'S PILOT DIES IN CRASH DOING 'STUNTS'

ROOSEVELT FIELD, N. Y., July 1.—(AP)—Wilmer Stultz, Amelia Earhart's trans-Atlantic pilot, and two companions were killed today in the crash of a plane in which Stultz was stunting between here and Mineola.

The two men with Stultz were identified as Patrick Costluchi of Boston and Charles Harwood of Mineola, personal friends of Stultz. The men with Stultz were instantly killed as the plane went tailspin at an altitude of about 300 feet and crashed. Stultz died as he reached the Nassau County hospital in Mineola.

Stultz was born in Williamsburg, Pa., 29 years ago. He was married. It was the fourth fatal airplane accident at the Long Islands fields within the past few days. In the first Francis Phillips, son of the late John Phillips, Queens sewer pipe magnate, was the victim. Next, an endurance plane fell, Jack Ashcraft being killed and Miss Viola Gentry critically injured. A few hours after that an army plane caught fire in the air and Corporal Elmer Barry was fatally injured. Lieut. Maxwell Halfour being severely burned.

Brevities

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burnham of San Francisco have arrived here to spend the summer as usual on their property on Rogue river. Mr. Burnham is an expert fisherman and landed five fine steelhead yesterday.

J. M. Beck, veteran editor of the Daily Lowland and Citizen of Centerville, Iowa, with Mrs. Beck, visited Mrs. R. A. Holmes and Mr. and Mrs. Cole Holmes today en route north on a transcontinental motor trip. Mr. and Mrs. Beck have two sons at Stanford University who intend to enter the newspaper business on the coast.

Beck remarked he was surprised at the large number of morning newspapers on the coast, as there are only four morning newspapers left in the entire state of Iowa.

Harry Scott, prominent club man of San Francisco, arrived in Medford Saturday to spend several weeks at his cabin on Rogue river.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sheldon and family left by motor Saturday for Los Angeles where they will spend the summer at Hermosa beach, their home on Kings highway having been rented to Mrs. Stewart Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln McPherson of New York City.

A card was received today by a friend of L. F. Ivanhoe, who was formerly employed by the Copco in Medford, in which it was announced that Mrs. Ivanhoe is to be married. The sender apparently aimed at a little joke as the card is written in Portuguese or some other language unknown to the casual Spanish students to which it was submitted.

Late Saturday afternoon Constance Oliver, niece of Tarrant county, Texas, and Frank Raymond Steele of Jackson county were united in marriage here by Judge Taylor, with Arthur Schoen and Howard Gault as witnesses.

Mr. and Mrs. John Holmer spent Sunday at Crater Lake.

On Copco Hour

Axel Jorgensen.

Axel Jorgensen, celebrated Danish baritone, and Victor record artist, will be featured in the Copco radio hour from 9 to 10:15 o'clock tomorrow night. Mr. Jorgensen will sing popular American songs and also a few of his Victor recordings in Scandinavian folk lore. Copco is glad to give radio fans this exceptional musical treat.

Mr. Jorgensen is well known all over the country as an interpreter of popular songs. Reports from former engagements say that he always pleases his audiences. He has traveled extensively, his visits including Australia, Europe, Canada and Egypt.

McPHERSON LOSES SOCKS TO H. HART

Fred McPherson, Scotch clothier, who recently inaugurated a contest in which local golfers were to compete for an award from his store each week for the next eight weeks on the basis of low net score, held out with desperate tenacity yesterday for his own prize. Getting a lead on the other contestants early in the week, the Highlander jostled upon carrying his score card in his vest pocket, until long after sundown yesterday.

Harry Hart, employee of the Valley Candy company held the second lowest net score yesterday, and when he came to claim the McPherson award, the canny clothier drew his own score card from his pocket and smiled significantly.

With the combined co-operation of the Rogue Valley Golf association and Jack Hueston, club professional, the handsome award, a pair of Scotch plaid golf socks, was wrested from the clothier by force, and presented with compliments, to the rightful winner.

Mr. Hart shot a gross score of 93 and was given a handicap of 25, which brought his net score down to 68. Fred McPherson, with a handicap of 11, averaged a net score of 88.

TRIAL DOCKET FOR WEEK IS ANNOUNCED

Starting out the trial docket for the week, the Medford National bank vs. Ralph Blanchard case, represented by G. M. Roberts and H. G. Shullason respectively, was the first on the list in circuit court this morning.

TEN COUPLES IN SATURDAY'S RUSH FOR JUNE SPLICE INCLUDE MEDFORD FOR POSSIBLE SITE AS BALLOON BASE

The anxiety to be married in the romantic month of June was apparently the motive back of the surprise attack of 10 couples upon the county clerk's headquarters Saturday, the last working day of the month. Della "Cupid" Meyers, surrendered the license department to the offensive and local preachers were kept busy tying knots yesterday and today.

Another couple motoring all the way from Sacramento, Calif., to force a marriage ceremony performed in Medford, arrived yesterday and succeeded in getting George Prescott to swear that they were of age. The bride was 42 and the groom 41. They were Orrin B. Lininger and Zula Bowling.

Those who received licenses Saturday were: Frederic N. Phillips, 45, of Oakland, and Margaret Bahington, 26, of Santa Barbara; It was the second marriage for the groom and the third for the bride. Others were Herbert Hartle, 29, of Medford and Edith Perkins, 18, of Venis, Calif.; James Elmer Cearley, 25, and Grace Mildred Merritt, 18, of Central Point; Austin Chas. Thissell, 22, and Katherine Elizabeth Stewart, 19, both of Yreka; Frank Victor Bauch, 36, of Danmar, and Mattilda Wacker, 22, of Yreka; Raymond Dockery, 21, and Helen Boyle, 16, of Hickory, Missouri; Stanley Schlemmer, 21, of Berkeley, Calif., and Bernice Shafsky, 22, of Berkeley; Leslie E. Shouk, 32, of Ono, Calif., and Verona Stuart, 22, of Gas Point, Cal.; Frank Raymond Steele, 27, of Medford, and Constance Olivia Corey, 21, of Fort Worth, Texas; Harold Fuller, 29, of Medford and Thelma Pierce, 19, of Gold Hill.

That the U. S. naval board has accepted the invitation extended by Senator Charles L. McNary on behalf of Medford, to include Medford in their consideration of possible sites for the proposed five million dollar navy dirigible base, was the gist of a telegram received here today and presented before the Kiwanis club at the Hotel Medford this noon. The navy committee will probably visit Medford sometime this summer.

Capt. Carl Tenstaedt gave a brief resume of the national guard encampment, which came to an end last week at Camp Clatsop. W. J. Warner spoke on the new airmail service schedule, which now makes it possible to send a letter from here to New York city in 46 hours.

Brief remarks were made by the following: other members, and guests: Kiwanian Foss and Kieran Stone of Bend, Harvey Link of Burbank, California; N. R. Ellis of San Francisco, Gus Newbury and Al Solinsky, superintendent of Crater Lake park.

That the rim road to the park is almost entirely cleared, was a statement made by Mr. Solinsky, who said that over 300 cars visited the resort yesterday.

ROTARY MEETING WILL BE HELD IN EVENING

The regular Tuesday meeting of the Medford Rotary club will be held tomorrow night instead of at noon. It will be in the form of a Rotary picnic to which all members and their families are invited. The affair will take place at Jackson Hot Springs, dinner being scheduled for 7 p. m. The committee will provide coffee and ice cream, and each "Rotary Ann" will bring a well filled lunch basket. Those who care to swim are urged to come early and make up a swimming party before dinner. After the meal is over a dance will be held in the pavilion with music by Alfred's Imperial orchestra.

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., July 1

—(AP)—With from 2000 to 4000 visitors expected from western states, Klamath Falls today downed its convention garb in preparation for the second annual Indian congress which opens here Wednesday morning and closes Friday night.

Already Indians from virtually every tribe of any consequence in the west have arrived to attend the congress.
