CUBS OUTFIELDER INDULGES TASTE FOR FIST FIGHTS

CHICAGO, July 5.—(AP)—Leon "Hack" Wilson, the Cubs' pudgy outfielder, yesterday added two to his list of fistie squabbles.

After being banished from the field during the afternoon game with Cincinnati for attacking Ray Kopp in the Reds' dugout, Wilson sent his fist crashing twice into Pittsburgh's Tommie Phelan's face when the two teams met at the Union station last night to entrain for the east.

"You're quite a scrapper, aren't you?" Donohue was reported to have said to Wilson. "If you want any more, come into our car."

Wilson's fist shot out twice and Donohue fell to the floor, striking his head. While the Reds gathered about Donohue and helped him to his feet, the Cubs hustled Wilson off the field.

Railroad officials diplomatically avoided what might have been an all-night battle by sending the two teams on different sections of the same train.

The afternoon fight occurred when Wilson took offense at a remark by Kopp, who was sitting in the Reds' dugout. Wilson, who had just reached first base on a single, strode over and struck Kopp. Several blows were struck before players, umpires and police could pry the fighters apart. Wilson and Kopp were immediately ordered off the field.

For the Love of a Lady

by Jeffery Farnol

ANGELA, wept, and the Duchess, nager and thumb suddenly arrested in her snuffbox, watched Helen's abstracted face with a singular interest; thus was silence awhile save for Angela's weeping.

"Ah, kind Heaven aid me!" she moaned at last.

"And him!" exclaimed Helen.

"And him!"

"Who?" demanded the Duchess, sharply.

"Whoever lies in most danger," answered Helen.

"Ha!" exclaimed the Duchess. "Angela, my dear child, don't grieve; 'twill make your pretty little nose like a strawberry."

"Oh, I know—I know!" wailed Angela, "and Mr. Trumpton expected! But how may I help my tears and Helen so cruel? And how was I to know Sir Richard was not Mr. Julian—I mean that Sir Julian was—Oh, my poor heart is breaking, I vow!"

My lady Helen uttered a sniff, whereupon Angela bridled and turning upon Helen like a defiant dove, ensued the following:

Angela: Oh, how should I know you was so vastly interested in the man?

Helen: (Languidly) What man pray?

Angela: In love with him!

MERRITT-CLEARLY WEDDING IS HELD IN CENTRAL POINT

CENTRAL POINT, Ore., July 5. (Special).—A very pretty home wedding was that of Miss Grace Merritt and Mr. J. E. Clearly, at 10 o'clock p. m., June 30, at the home of the bride's mother in Central Point. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Still, brother-in-law of the bride, assisted by Rev. J. M. Johnson.

The bride was beautiful in pink tulle and carried a bouquet of pink sweetpeas. The rooms were decorated in pink and white with white St. Joseph lilies. Those attending the affair were Rev. and Mrs. Still and little daughter Beth, Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. James Merritt, Central Point, Mr. and Mrs. Will Merritt and children, Gene, Ruth, Billy and Gene of Pinhurst, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Spake of Talent, uncle and aunt of the bride, Miss Sylvia Clearly, sister of the groom, and Will Weidner of Grants Pass, the Misses Lola and Vera Davis, Central Point. Luncheon was served by the bride's mother. Mr. and Mrs. Clearly left on their honeymoon and will visit Mr. Clearly's parents in Idaho. The best wishes of a host of friends go with them.

The passing of Mrs. E. E. Scott to the family home in Central Point June 29th cast sorrow over the community. She had been ill about six months and all that medical aid and loving hands could do was done. She was a faithful wife, a devoted mother and was never too busy nor too tired to help others if needed. In 1906 Mrs. Scott came as a bride to Central Point, where she has resided since, and was a dear friend to many. Funeral services were conducted from the Ed-erated church by Rev. J. M. Johnson, assisted by Rev. Beknap. She leaves her husband, Ernest D. Scott, and her two daughters, Elizabeth and Ethlyn; and son Everett of Central Point, and daughter, Mrs. Ray Anders and baby of Klamath Falls, and Lester Scott of Talent, Ore. There was a seating capacity for all in the church. The floral offerings were beautiful and many, which shows the high esteem in which she was held. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community.

Albert Holloper and Farrel Wood of Medford came to Central Point Wednesday and they and Roy Love and Archie Mastin went to Coquille City and spent the Fourth. The Coquille club met with Mrs. Sanford Richardson Wednesday afternoon. Those present were Mr. Albert Mellett, Mrs. Truman Bronner, Miss Earl Herford, Miss Lola Davis and Mrs. Christina Davis, a visitor from Salem. Refreshments of sandwiches, salad, strawberry whip and lemonade were served by the hostess.

ROAD IS FACTOR OPERATING COST OF AUTOMOBILES

"How are the roads?" is a question that has a great deal to do with traveling economies, according to a table recently released by the Oregon State Motor association. The table shows the cost of operating a car over high type roads, intermediate type roads and low type roads, and proves clearly that the motorist pays for good roads whether he has them or not. The table is shown in cents per mile as follows: First column, high type roads; second column, intermediate type roads, and third column, low type roads.

Model	High Type	Intermediate Type	Low Type
Light 4-cyl.	5.10	6.02	7.03
