Reports were current here today that the Pickwick Stages company had abandoned its plans for a terminal in Grants Pass. Pickwick employees stated that a franchise had been offered the company in Medford and that all moving operations to this city had been suspended. Nothing authentic had been learned from officials but efforts were being made by local interests to see if there is any foundation for them. It is known that moving to this city, which began Saturday night, was suddenly brought to a halt. Pickwick employees were here last week looking for houses to rent. They had been instructed at that time that the terminal was to be in Grants Pass after July 1.—Grants Pass Courier.

Economy Groceteria

HOME OF BREAD LIKE MOTHER MADE
KEEPING DOWN COSTS

Prices of foods, like everything else, are governed by the cost of getting them to you. Fully half and in many instances more than half of what you pay goes for distribution expense. That is why we have given so much thought to cutting costs—keeping down the overhead—yet always adding to your pleasure while shopping. Come in and shop the Groceteria way—take all the time you want, visit with your friends—refresh yourself at the fountain—don't worry about a clerk—nor let a clerk worry you. Get acquainted with our stock of quality foods—all priced on the basis of our lower business costs.

Many, many times we have told you "It costs no more to be sure of quality." Come in and let us prove it.
