

COCHRANE LOSS CHIEF CONCERN M'GILLICUDDY

Injury to .365 Batter Bodes No Good for Athletics— Yanks Break Even in St. Louis Skirmish — Hoyt Crumpled in 7th.

By William J. Chipman,
Associated Press Sports Writer.

Events over the week end were not exactly beer and skittles for Mr. Cornelius McGillicuddy, what with the loss of Mickey Cochrane and two ball games, but even so, the Athletics can not yet be said to be in any need of a wall against which to place their backs. The Yankees were able to get only an even break in their first two skirmishes at St. Louis and the Mackmen were left with a lead of eight and one-half games.

The Mackmen were more concerned over the return of Cochrane to the lineup than with the immediate fight at hand. The loss of a .365 batter who also is one of the leading catchers in either league never did any team any good, not even one like the Athletics.

Cochrane is suffering from a fractured rib, injured by a pitched ball in the Washington series. The fracture, at first mistaken for a bruise, was not discovered until the Philadelphia club reached Chicago.

Having shaded the Athletics by 5 to 4 on Saturday, the White Sox did a more thorough job yesterday to win by 9 to 3. Ted Lyons halted the Mackian attack while the Sox climbed upon Earnshaw, Yerkes, Shores and Rommel for 11 safe hits.

At St. Louis Hoyt was hurled for the Yanks after the champions had stretched a winning streak to eight games by taking the opener on Saturday. Pitted against Alvin Crowder, the former Brooklyn schoolboy, put on a neat pitching battle for six rounds, only to crum-

OUT & KEELER'S GOLF BAG!

By W. O. KEELER

Frank Ball walked off the 18th green of the first round of the open championship of the southeastern professional golfers' association, at the Roebuck course in Birmingham, picked a little putting cleft from his bag, and handed it to me. The shaft was splintered.

"Here's a present for you," he said, despondently. "It let me down completely."

He had holed the round in 78. Up to the putting surface he had played well, even brilliantly. And he had missed six putts of a yard and under. At the 17th green, after one more miss, he had taken the offender across his knee, in the good old-fashioned way.

"I'll never miss another putt with that club," said Frank. "There's only one thing to do when you get to mistreating a putter, or any other club."

And he told me a story of old Sandy Herd, British open champion back in 1904.

"Sandy gave me a bit of advice," said he. "He once said to me, 'Never carry a club in your bag after you mistrust it. You may like the club; it may be a pet with you. But, take my word for it, it will let you down in a pinch. There's only one thing to do—put your foot on it, and get rid of it forever.'"

So I acquired a very beautifully balanced putting cleft, which has not begun letting me down yet, and Frank went on struggling with another putter, which he seems gradually to have subdued, to an extent. His rounds progressed 75-76-77-78, for a total of 300, which landed him as runner-up in the S. E. P. G. A. open of 1929.

I am somewhat too Scottish to accept unmitigated the advice of that grand old Scot, Alexander Herd, if you get what I mean. Besides, I cannot think of any single club in my rather expensive kit in which I repose a really implicit trust.

ed his game, say fans. The Medford twirlers were weakened by the absence of Conlin, outfielder, and Valencia who normally holds down the first sack.

"Mac" Mahoney, manager of the locals, received a wire from the House of David team saying that they could not play a Sunday game here but could schedule one for a week day. Mahoney would like to know what the fans think of a week day game. The Bearded Beauties, who won a double-header at Spokane Sunday, were beaten by Medford last year.

Next Sunday Medford will probably tangle with Grants Pass on their home diamond. Phoenix will play Ashland at the fair grounds next Sunday.

Both League and Genevick were knocked from the box in the second game, but Ralph Judd did some fine undertaking at the finish, and the Giants just lasted to win, 8 to 7.

Home-runs by Grantham, Bame, Russell and Comoros helped the Pirates to defeat Brooklyn by 17 to 6 yesterday and so to maintain their lead of half a game over the Cubs, who won in Boston, 15 to 4.

ASHLAND PITCHER AND OWN ERRORS DEFEAT MEDFORD

Carranza's curves and errors by the local baseballers resulted in a 7 to 3 defeat for the Peapackers at the fair grounds. Art Schoeni, the pitching reporter, looked nodd on the mound, allowing only three base hits and would have pitched a winning game had it not been for errors behind him which spoil-

BAY GOLFERS TOO MUCH FOR LOCAL MASHIE SWINGERS

The Rogue River Golf club was defeated by the close score of 25½ to 28½ at Marshfield Sunday. Some of the Medford players were said to have been a little off form and they also had some tough opposition in some of the Marshfield golfers. The local players hope to have a return engagement here soon, at which time they expect to get revenge on the Coos Bay aggregation.

Complete information could not be obtained on the matches, but as near as could be ascertained the scores made by the Medford players are: D. S. Clark, 7; D. R. Wood, 3; R. Hammond, 8; 3; W. Miles, 3; W. P. Biddle, 3; Sydney Smith 2; Tom Emmens 1½; R. G. Bardwell, 1½; B. Getchell, 1½; H. Pringle, ½; Earl Tully, 1; Stanley Coleman, 1; Fred McPherson, ½; E. H. Young, ½; E. E. Kelly, ½; R. Hammond, Jr., ½; and Geo. M. Roberts, 0.

LOG OPERATIONS ENTAIL BIG SUM JACKSON COUNTY

Logging operations in districts adjacent to this city, during the month of June, entailed the expenditure of more than $100,000 by the Owen Oregon Lumber company, and the Tomlin box factory, for the purchase of logs. The Owen-Oregon company paid out $45,000 for logs, and the Tomlin box factory about $55,000, the managers of both concerns said this morning.

This payroll, which will approach the $150,000 mark during the height of the season, this month, and in August, is one never heretofore mentioned in compilation of booster statistics.

The payroll is independent of the payrolls of the established logging camps of the Owen Oregon company, in the Butte Falls district.

The logs are hauled from logging operations in the Trail, Evans Creek, Antelope, Jacksonville and Applegate district, and are brought over the highways and byways of the county.

The logging operations are expected to continue until snow flies. A small proportion of the logs are hauled by the Southern Pacific.

Both the Tomlin and Owen-Oregon plants resumed operations this morning after the Fourth of July shutdown.

The sawmill of the Pickett Lumber company, recently established in Prospect district, after test runs the past two weeks, has started sawing lumber on the Gungler claim.

ITINERANT WHITTLER IS ARTIST WITH KNIFE

A man dressed in soiled trousers and a white shirt, carrying a box of different kinds of wood and leading a cow dog, was seen on the streets of Medford today. He was whittling pairs of pliers out of single pieces of wood, using only a pocket knife for a tool. The whittler was formerly a mining man, but was injured and is now making his living whittling. He has literally whittled his way up here from southern California. Thirty-one pairs of pliers all connected, and all whittled out of one piece of wood is one of the novelties he was showing. He also had some samples of Balsa wood from South America, which is the lightest wood in the world and is used in the manufacture of life preservers and toy airplanes.

FLANNEL SHIRTED EUGENE BOOSTERS AT KIWANIS MEET

Real "he men" from the great open spaces of Eugene, in red and yellow flannel shirts and high boots, added a colorful note to the Kiwanis club luncheon at the Hotel Medford this noon. Placed in charge of the program for the day, the Eugene men told about the "Sunset Trail Pioneer Celebration" to be held in their city July 25, 26 and 27, and in which the entire state is being asked to participate.

Caravans have been sent from Eugene to the various cities in Oregon to tell of the celebration and to enlist support. A pageant, depicting the pioneer spirit, and tracing the historical movement west, from the earliest time to the present industrial age and then returning back to the Sunset Trail, was described in vivid style by Jack Magladry, chairman of the industrial parade, and Hugh Rossen, manager of the celebration, speakers of the day.

A chorus of over 400 male voices trained by John Stark Evans, will be used in the chorus work. Trained oxen and other live-stock will also be used in both the parade and pageant, which will be produced upon an 80 by 240-foot stage.

The Eugene delegation represented at the meeting included: Hugh Rossen, Jack Magladry, E. L. Chambers, F. M. Hathaway and George H. Godfrey.

INCENDIARY FIRES ON COCKER BUTTE

Three fires of incendiary origin and far apart on Cocker Butte, state fire protected land, early yesterday forenoon burned over 25 acres of brush and grass before they were gotten under control by fire fighters from the district warder's force, by 11:30 a. m. No damage resulted beyond causing considerable excitement and smoke in that territory.

Two small fires, each in grass and brush were reported to the forestry office here about 10:20 a. m. today, both on state land in the south end of the county. One was at the Emigrant Creek dam and covered at that time about a half acre. The other was 2½ miles south of Ashland and covered about an eighth of an acre. Both fires were on state land. Fire fighters were at once dispatched to combat them, since which time no report had been received here up to early this afternoon.

BAUER BEATS EMMENS WEEKLY GOLF TOURNEY

Bruce Bauer, averaging a 63 net score for the week, nosed out Tommy Emmens, who had a 66 net score, on the golf course yesterday in their competition for the weekly McPherson award. Tommy Emmens, who holds a 12 handicap, and Bruce Bauer, a 27, made a gross of 78 and 90, respectively. The award this week was a clever golf hat, this being the second given by McPherson in the series of eight weeks of competition. The award last Monday was a pair of Scotch plaid golf socks.

PIPES WILL HEAD GROUP IN CHARGE PORT DEDICATION

Mayor A. W. Pipes was elected general chairman for the new airport dedication celebration to be held Labor day, September 2, at the luncheon of the combined city council and chamber of commerce committee held at the Hotel Medford this noon.

O. O. Alexander was elected vice-chairman and C. T. Baker secretary. The executive committee chosen consists of Charles Wing, J. C. Collins, J. O. Grey, R. B. Hammond and E. M. Wilson.

Al Hayden and Charles Wing will handle publicity for the affair, Jack Thompson and E. M. Wilson, finance, J. C. Collins and Seeley Hall, stunts.

That an appropriate float, consisting of a real airplane decorated to advertise Medford's big airport dedication will be sent to the Sunset Trail Pioneer celebration to be held at Eugene July 25, 26 and 27, was a decision of the committee. A princess from Medford will also be sent to the northern city, to represent this city in the three day program.

PATHFINDER OFF FOR ROME

Newspaper men asked him for some statement just before the take off. Williams, as usual, would not comment.

The Pathfinder, a Bellanca monoplane, powered with a Wright motor, bears the insignia "NX 3789" in black on the tail and underneath the left wing. The wings and tail are painted with aluminum paint and the fuselage is a light green with the name "Pathfinder" on both sides.

As the fog lifted for a moment, spectators on the beach could see the Pathfinder and its two accompanying amphibians circle, apparently in an effort to gain altitude.

JUST AS A STEAK can be tough, tasteless, disappointing—or tender, crisp, done to a turn—a cigarette can be flat, heavy, over-sweet—or sparkling with spicy aroma and delicate tobacco flavors.

To knowing smokers, Chesterfield makes the difference clear. A blend of fragrance, flavor, and satisfying character, to which cross-blending, the standard Chesterfield method, adds a final touch.
