GOOD CONDITIONS FOUND IN EAGLE POINT ORCHARDS

EAGLE POINT, Ore., July 11.—(Special.) Mr. Crause of Portland has been looking over our valley in respect to fruit conditions. The present outlook for this section he finds very bright. The condition of the orchards generally reflect great credit on the growers. It is a peculiar fact that some growers are looking to the apple as an item of value, while some are planning to cut their apple acreage.

It is also noted that some attention is focused on pean and filbert culture. These nuts could be made very profitable here, it is believed. It is hoped that the growers will push their research along these lines.

Mr. Crause represents the Russellville nursery and is gathering facts and figures for his company that will enable them to serve the growers more intelligently.

Mr. W. Winkie and Ed Winkie and family of La Pine and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Winkie of Crescent were visitors for the holiday at the home of William Winkie and son Glen.

Rid your home of flies.....

The new Shell Sprayer screws onto the spray can

...a safe, stainless spray
...a simpler, better sprayer

SPRAYS will kill flies and insects all right. That has been proven. And now Shell laboratories have overcome the last objection to sprays. The new Shell Fly Spray is stainless.

Used properly it disappears from walls and curtains—every trace of it. You can spray it into closets, into wall cracks—everywhere in the house without making yellow, ugly stains.

And the improved Shell Sprayer simply screws onto a full can of the spray. No tank to fill, no spilling or messy handling. See these new home necessities at your stores or Shell stations today.

RUSSELL FAMILY OF SAMS VALLEY MOVING PHOENIX

SAMS VALLEY, Ore., July 11.—(Special.) The Geo. Russell family is making preparations to move to their lately purchased home in the Phoenix district. The neighborhood regrets the departure of the Russells who have proved themselves industrious, progressive citizens. They have made an up-to-date little chicken farm of up-to-date horse care and Mr. Russell would not leave but for the long distance to his place of employment at the Owen Oregon Lumber mill at Medford. The Russell chickens and turkeys are being sold as his new location will not accommodate them.

The post office is now located at the P. L. Coton store and Mr. and Mrs. Loveland are making preparations to go to their place of employment at the Eagle Point section.

The O. T. Wilson family attended the Nealon family reunion picnic at the Nealon ranch. The reunion was held in honor of the visit of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hudson of Portland.

Clarence Holmes was a Sunday visitor at Ashland with relatives. Mr. Woodruff, the poultryman of Medford, was calling at the Russell place last week in the interest of chickens.

Colleen Moore at Rialto Today

"Why Be Good?" a racy story of modern youth that finds Colleen Moore as much at home in the role of a dance-mad young girl as she was in her romantic portrayal of "Lillian Tyme," or her comic characterizations of many amusing farces.

"Why Be Good?" at the Rialto Theatre, is a comedy-drama, with equal emphasis on the humorous and serious qualities of the story. It shows a modern American girl just as she is, her faults as well as her virtues.

Colleen makes decidedly real the character of little "Pett Kely," wise-cracking, fast-stepping, pseudo-sophisticated and lovable.
